LIGHT THROWN UPON THE FOUR GOSPELS

Being, A TREATISE on the indispensability of the distinction to be made between Natural Faith and Repentance, as a Duty according to Law; and Spiritual Faith and Repentance, as Sovereign Gifts, or New Covenant Blessings according to the Gospel: an Exposition of John vi. 27:—"Labour not for the meat which perisheth; but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life; which the Son of Man shall give unto you, for him hath God the Father sealed." By WM. ODLING.

"The writer has used great plainness of speech; and a tender, loving spirit, doth run so gently through the whole work; and the author's ideas are expressed with such clearness, and so closely followed up with 'Thus saith the Lord,' that we really feel a pleasure in introducing the work to the notice of our readers."—CHRISTIAN REVIEWER.

In Numbers at Two-pence, beautifully printed on fine paper, with new type:

THE SILENT PREACHER:

Containing: Communings of the Spirit; Christian Exhortation and Gospel Consolation and Encouragement; being a Series of Scripture Meditations connected with Christian Experience. By Miss KERENHAPPUCH HUNT.

This is truly a spiritual, wholesome, soul-encouraging, Christ-exalting messenger. It will be found useful for private meditation; or, as a Chaplain in a God-fearing family: and, in places where no living ministry is found, this "Silent Preacher" might prove a blessing to many souls, by being read to the assembled congregation, after prayer has been offered. We know assuredly that the author's motive is pure, simple and sincerely desirous of doing good to the fallen and feeble family, who are numbered among the election of grace.

Beautifully printed in f. cap 8vo., fine paper, and new type,
