

serve to promote the aims of this Organization, and awaken public opinion to right action.

7. A Board composed of the Officers of the League and Chairmen of the above mentioned Committees shall constitute one Central Executive.

I. All services rendered by this Organization, whether as a body or through individuals, shall be purely voluntary; any donation from friends of the cause will be used to defray the necessary running expenses of the Association.

II. No member shall be forced to support any candidate disagreeable to him, and at any time, by special consent of the Executive, a member may be exempted from any particular service.

III. In general, this Organization shall not enter the field where both candidates are, in the opinion of the League, good men, or where both are objectionable—reserving its strength for such contests as contain a plain issue between a good and a bad nominee.

IV. The above Constitution may be amended or altered at any time by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting, notice of motion having been given at a previous meeting.

V. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time at the request of four other members.

JUNE 1ST, 1892.