

C

- Calhoun, John C., portraits and busts, 104
 Caldwell, Mrs. Jane R., daughter of Elias Howe, 368
 Caloric engine, Ericsson, 225, 226, 227
 Camden & Amboy Railroad, 24
 Casson, Herbert N., biographer of Cyrus H. McCormick, 312
 Chain-stitch, 359
 Chappé telegraph, 135
 Choate, Rufus, on Blanchard and his lathe, 105
 Church, William Conant, Life of John Ericsson, 220
 Clay, Henry, portraits and busts, 104
 Clephane, James O., criticises Sholes' typewriter, 328; engages Ottmar Mergenthaler, 405, 408; extends aid, 424
 Clocks with automata, 400
 Cobb, Nathan A., cotton classification, 95
 Condenser, surface, Ericsson, 222
 Cooper, James Fenimore, friendship with S. F. B. Morse, 137; offends John Quincy Adams, 141
 Cornell, Ezra, builds first telegraph line, 159; subscribes for New York line, 162
 Cotton crop, 94; classification, N. A. Cobb, 95
 Cotton gin, Whitney, 80, its value to the South during Civil War, 94; recent improvements, 95
 Cutters, revolving, development, 106; for reapers, early forms, 77
 Cylinder, rippling, William Pitt's, 281

D

- Daguerre, friendship with S. F. B. Morse, 154
 Davis, Ari, employed Elias Howe, 344

- Day, Jeremiah, teacher of S. F. B. Morse, 122
 De Forest, James, befriended Charles Goodyear, 185
 De Forest, William, befriended Charles Goodyear, 196
 Delamater, Cornelius H., friendship with John Ericsson, 242; advances half cost Destroyer, 264
 Densmore, James, buys patent Sholes' patent, 327, 328; facsimile of letter to E. D. Ingersoll, 329
 Dickens, Charles, copies Sholes' recital of murder, 320
 Digesters for wood pulp, faulty and improved, 376
 Distribution of type, 395; of matrices in linotype, 397, 428
 Dodge, Philip T., president Mergenthaler Linotype Co., 425
 Donatus, Latin Grammar, 317
 Dot-and-dash alphabet, Morse, 149; its forerunners, 150; its universal applicability, 152
 Draft, forced, devised by R. L. and E. A. Stevens, 25; its general development and advantages, 26
 Dunlap, William, on S. F. B. Morse's theory of colors, 136
 Dunlop, John Boyd, pneumatic tire, 206
 Dwight, President Timothy, friend of S. F. B. Morse, 121

E

- Edge-rail, 22
 Electrical engineering indebted to telegraph, 119
 Ericsson, John, birth, boyhood, education, 218; takes command of 600 troops, joins Rifle Corps, attains captaincy, 219; studied artillery, his personality at twenty-one, Life by W. C. Church, 220; resides in Havre, goes to England, tests flame-engine,