Paris, Sept. 21.-The trial of Colonel Picquart and M. Loblois, a lawyer, on the charge of revealing documents concerning the national defense, commenced to-day before the correctional the handred infantry will sail to-more or the steamer San Francisco.

Col. Picquart then rose and made a statement which caused a sensation. He said: "This is, perhaps, the last that I shall speak in public. I shall sleep, perhaps, in the military prison of Cherche Midi. Therefore, I wish to declare that if I am found there with the stranging cord of Lemencier Pickard or the razor of Colonel Henry, it will be murder, for I have no idea of committing suicide!"

The audience was intensely moved and shouted "Vive Picquart."

The judges, however, after a short deliberation, decided to indefinitely adjourn the case and Colonel Picquart was led away between two policemen. Lemercier Pickard, the man referred to by Col. Picquart, was a detective understood to have been employed in the Dreyfus affair, who was found hanged in his lodgings about a year ago, under circumstances which did 'mot indicate that it was certain he had committed suicide.
