THE MORBID PRINCIPLE OF RHEU MATISM IS URIC ACID.

DRIVES IT FROM THE BLOOD AND CURES THE DISEASE.

Much has been written about the present The Wonderful Medicine Does a Marvellous Work For Mr. G. J. King Edward of England, but the following story was related to my father by a McDonald of Cornwall, Ont.

The ablest pathologists are of opinion sented this country at the Court of St.

James, and with whom he had been well acquainted in America, says a writer in The Chicago Record-Herald. Given in his own words the story runs as follows:

blood when rheumatism is present. This morbid principle is uric acid, which circulates with the blood and acts upon the joints and muscles, causing the pains and agoules of rheumatism.

' ine's Celery Compound is the only scientific remedy for the complete banish. The Chicago Record-Herald. Given in his own words the story runs as follows:

"By the way," said Schenck, as we were about to separate one morning, "what are you going to do this afternoon?"

"Nothing of moment." I replied (Nothing of moment.)

Schenck in a whisper what limit usually obtained at these poker festivals. He replied, also in a strong 'aside,' that there was no limit.

"The Prince never plays with a limit,' whilspered Schenck. "It would infringe his dignity as a prince."

"I felt a bit cold after this. My $2000 blinking in the Bank of England vauit with its vellow neighbors didn't seem such the whole island to draw on, to say nothing of the Rothschilds. It started the perspiration, but I was in and couldn't get out. I hastily made up my mind to stay long enough to lose $100 or so, and then grow suddenly ill and extricate myself. It was a happy thought. 'Cold reet' would pull me out if my losses became too lowering.

"As we sat down, however, two things happened to disturb my dream of 'cold feet' as a means of escape. Schenck was to bank the game, and the first thing the Prince said was: 'Give me £1000 worth of chips' $5000. And he said it with no more of notice or emphasis than if he had said 'Pass the pie.'

"I began to realize that I was liable to lose my $2000 the first hand, before 'cold feet' could come to the rescue. To add to my string the character of the sounds. A deep sound of considerable or medium strength, he says, indicates that there will be slight showers of rain with moderate winds within a period of from 30 to 48 hours. A shrill, sharp sounding among the wires means that a heavy storm is on the way and that it will be accompanied by much rain or snow. The explanation is that the wires contract and expand accordingly as they are affected by barometric changes in the atmosphere and, therefore, the sounds they produce when the wind plays on them vary in pitch and in entirely fine the kind of weather that is to be expected may be forestoold by noting the character of the sounds.
