ELK LAKE, Feb. 26.—(From the Man Up There.)—A number of representative townspeople met in the store of the Jodouin Trading Co. last night and discussed the situation regarding left. summer roads between Charlton and Elk Lake and Gowganda. It was decided to send a deputation to interview the provincial government on March 10 to ask for a grant of $190,000 to build a good summer road between here and Gowganda. Among those who spoke in favor of this were W. J. Foley, Daniel Smith, William Hanley and Mayor H. H. Lang of Cobalt. Mr. Lang thought that the government should make a clear waterway on the Montreal River between summer roads between Charlton and Elk Lake and Elk Lake and Gowganway on the Montreal River between here and Latchford, which work could be done for a very reasonable amount.
