EARL UNVEILS TABLET LAUDS CITY'S PATRIOTISM

Tribute to the Contingent Who Went to Africa-Railway Acquiring Property.

honor of the 150 soldiers who volunteered from the city to fight in South Africa. His Excellency said the tablet would be a reminder that in the hour of the greatest need the empire had but to call upon the colonies for co-operation. A great Dominion was now rearing itself where these soldiers had fought and it would take its place in fought, and it would take its place in supporting the crown. Hamilton had the reputation of being patriotic, and if the occasion ever arose again the recruiting officers would have no difficulty in selecting jicked men. His Excellency came by special train, accompanied by Sir John Hambury-Williams, and Capt. Newton and reviewed the local garrison from a carriage at the Gore Park. The tablet was erected by the trustees of the patriotic fund. Hon. fought, and it would take its place in the trustees of the patriotic fund. Hon.
John S. Hendrie gave a brief sketch of the raising of the fund. Lieut.-Govthe raising of the fund. Lieut.-Governor Gibson and the trustees of the fund occupied seats on the platform. The local garrison turned out 1000 strong. Mapor Forneret, chaplain of the 13th Regiment, and Capt. Drum? mond, chaplain of the 91st Regiment, conducted a religious service in the drill hall previous to the unveiling. Members of the Coppley, Noyes and Randall firm estimate the damage caused to their warehouse by fire, shoke and water at over $10,000.
