The Holiday De Luxe in a Kenyon House

THE Kenyon Take-Down Bungalow is a positive boon to anyone wanting an inexpensive holiday abode—a portable house which may be erected here one season and somewhere else the next. Can be set up in about two hours.

Here are a few practical particulars:

The Kenyon house requires no experienced help in erecting it, a blue print with full directions being provided for the purpose.

Georgia pine floor put together in sections.

The frame-work is of best quality Washington fir-wood, held together with bolts and thumb-screws.

The covering is a heavy army duck, specially prepared to render it waterproof.

All windows and doors are screened with a fine pearl wire, keeping the bungalow free from mosquitoes and flies, the window lights are transparent, while the awnings are adjustable from inside.

Finally, the Kenyon is available in various sizes, one of the most popular being the three-room bungalow, 22 feet by 10, priced at $210.00. The others include two roomed house, sized 15 feet by 9, at $145.00, and another with five rooms, sized 24 feet by 12, at $265.00.

Any of which will be delivered freight paid to your nearest railway station in Ontario and Maritime Provinces. See the Kenyon bungalow erected on the Fifth Floor.
