HOLIDAY FOR LEAFS DOUBLE BILL TODAY

Tipple is Released—More Pitchers Are Needed—News and Gossip.

Yesterday's wetness stopped the Leafs and the Providence Grays from playing their second battle for second place in the league standing. Two games will be played today.

As was expected Dan Tipple has received his walking stick. Tipple was released yesterday morning and ordered to report back to the New York American Club. Tipple is the property of the Yankees and was sent to the Leafs under the optional agreement rule.

Tipple gave promise in the spring of being a big hit to the club. He had plenty of stuff and handled himself like a real pitcher. However, he proved a big disappointment, however, and has been of no use to the club since early in May.

At least one experienced pitcher must be secured at once if the Leafs are to be in the hunt for the Barrow bunting. Thompson and Hickey are the only reliable workers on the Leafs staff. Forester gives some promise, but he is a good man and can do much duty between times.

Leake will be given a thorough tryout before judgment is passed. This staff is not going to carry the club through. Assistance must be obtained at once.

Pitcher Forester was secured in Hopeville, Virginia, where he was working in the Dupont Powder Works, and pitching in the Dupont League. Many former Virginia Leaguers are working in Hopeville, and some of the best ball is witnessed at week-ends.

Announcement was made by the Cleveland American League Club yesterday that Catcher Tom Daly has been released under an optional agreement to the Buffalo Club of the International League.

Announcement was made yesterday that Tom Seaton, veteran pitcher of the Chicago Nationals, had been sold outright to the Los Angeles Club of the Pacific Coast League.

The Brooklyn National League Club yesterday released W. G. Dell, pitcher, to the Baltimore International League Club. Apollon, the pitcher who refused to go to Baltimore International League Club a month ago, has been released and has joined that organization.

A Boston dispatch says: Manager Hugo Bazdek of the Pirates was not long in discovering that his club did not shape up like a winner, and he has decided to plan of Jimmie Callahan—that is, he will experiment until he gets better results.

Third-Baseman Rodolfo of the Montreal, a youngster who has had the O.K. of his league scouts, is expected to become a Pirate scout. If Rodolfo has any of the actions of a major leaguer, it is likely he will get into the game at the outset, as the new pilot is willing to make almost any change that points toward better results.

As they stand, the Pirates are without a real clean-up hitter. Wagner's ankle injury will keep him out of the line-up for a few days, and there is no pinchman to throw into the breach. Bill Fischer, of course, is at the bat, but his punch is sorely needed in another part of the line-up.

One of the baseball scribes is still so angry at Mackay McGraw that he is claiming: "It is up to the Giants to repudiate his reputation or the fans will soon learn to hate him." The question before the house is: "What would Mackay repudiate if he repudiated his reputation?"

Ty Cobb is said to be very superstitious, and there can be no doubt that it is claimed that the reason why he is doing such sensational hitting is that each time he goes to bat he first goes to the little colored man, secured in New Orleans, takes the lad's cap, and rubs his hat with it.

Rockford, Ill., sends the following: Outfielder McCabe made what was probably the "freakiest" home run in Three-I League history. McCabe hit the ball with Hannibal here. When McCabe hit the ball, Outfielder Lorraine of Hannibal dashed to the field, and McCabe tried to get it. Lorraine thrust his hands against the fence to save himself from injury, and McCabe was able to get around the bases. McCabe's run was around the bases. McCabe's run was around the bases.

A double bill for one price of admission is slated for the island this afternoon between the Toronto and Providence clubs, who are virtually tied for second place. Hearn and Thompson will pitch for the Leafs and Hickey and Miller will pitch for the Grays. The Detroit Tigers will be here for an exhibition game with the Leafs next Tuesday.

Heinie Zimmerman, "The Great Zim," is trying to kiss and tell the Leafs at, and to date he has been admirably well. It was not until the National League game last night, the month of June that Zim got into an altercation that resulted in his being canned from the playing field, and then his protests were mild to what they used to be in the days of his Cubhood, when he seldom missed a week beating the rest of the team to the showers.

Zim is naturally a quick-tempered player and a hard loser. He fights for everything that he can get in a ball game, and the worst thing in the world in his eyes, is to be called out in what he thinks is a bad strike. But McGraw has taken Zim to a noticeable degree, and he has nothing of his love for the re-partner and any time a player on an opposing club tries to put him in the back he has a quick comeback. In one series Evers tried his hand at it and got a tart answer.

Hey Zim," yelled Evers, "have you ever got all your fives paid yet?" And Zim blurted out: "Is that you, Jew?" It's a surprise. Haven't you gone crazy yet? I thought they'd copped you."

A Cincinnati dispatch says: Inspired by the great playing of the Reds, Warren Pullet, local businessman, today placed his order for a box of the world's series game here this fall.

He says the Reds are the permanent winners, and he wants to be certain of his seats.

FAVORITES TO FORE AT NORTH RANDALL

Rain Interfere With Program—Mawitz in Straight Heats—Summaries.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 17.—Favorites stepped to the front today on the Grand Circuit meet at North Randall, but only two races were finished, a near-cloud-burst flooding the track and forcing the postponement of the other three events of the card.

Mawitz, with Edman up, won the first division of the 2-19 trot in straight heats and easily outclassed the field.

In the second division of the 2-19 trot, Peter Chenault, with Murphy up, was sent a hard race, competition by Roywood King in the second heat and North Spur in the third. Only a great drive down the home stretch by Murphy in the third heat gave the lay son of Peter the lead and the race.

After Reddy DeForest, favorite in the betting, had won the first heat in the 2-19 class, the rain descended in torrents and turned the track into a veritable river. This ended the racing for the day.

The unfinished events on today's card have been put forward, six races being scheduled for tomorrow.
