

* * *

The Governors of Notre-Dame Hospital offer their sincere obligations to the Lady Patronesses, who have spared neither time, fatigue, nor expense, in their labours for the advancement of the institution. The thanks of the Board are also extended to the gentlemen who made the yearly collection, as well as to all who, by their donations, have enabled the Hospital to take its place among the most worthy charitable institutions in Montreal.
