There will, most assuredly, be a not-able week at the Star Theatre, com-mencing Monday matines. No better attraction than that of "The Rector Girls Burlesquers" could have been selected for this event.

Not only is this particular organiz-ation popular for its carefully blended sharp and playful satire and delight-ful comedy, but it is looked upon as the best all round burlesque attraction that has, so far, visited this city, which is certainly something to be proud
