DOWLING BROTHERS.

FOR JUNE BRIDES

IN ALL the rounds of social events attending this month of Roses and Brides, the girl of truly refined tastes may be known by her shoes. In her eyes untidy or unstylish shoes take away all one's charms; they stamp one at a glance as being—well, we won't say more.

We crave the opportunity of fitting out with Slippers for home and reception wear, Shoes and Boots for every occasion, every one of the prospective brides of the coming month.

BOUGHT GINGER ALE AT THE PRICE OF BRANDY

How a News Agent's Joke Completely Fooled a Scott Act Official Who Was Searching for Evidence.

Some of the train hands and passengers that were on a train leaving here last night, are laughing over an incident which occurred during the journey. It appears that among the passengers was a certain Scott Act official of Kings county, and as he was known to be of a very curious and inquiring turn of mind, it was decided to have a little fun with him. The official prepared a bottle of amber colored liquid, made up of ginger ale and water, and having removed the label, started through the car. In approaching the seat occupied by the Scott Act man, the official was seen to straighten up and fix his eyes on the bottle. "I'll take that bottle," he said, "how much." "Ten cent," replied the agent, and the transfer was made.

The official then asked if he could get a bottle of brandy, as he wasn't feeling well. He was informed by the agent that they did not sell liquor on the train. The official, however, was not satisfied and thinking he detected signs of weakening in the agent, he pressed his request by saying that he needed the brandy badly as he felt sick.

Finally the agent said he would see what he could do, and going back to his car he procured an empty brandy bottle which he filled with ginger ale and water, and returning to the Scott Act man, he presented the bottle to him, telling him to keep it quiet. The price paid for this bottle was $1.20. The people who were on to the joke are now wondering what this astute officer will say when he finds his purchase of brandy was nothing but ginger ale and water.

C. B. Foster, formerly district passenger agent of the C. P. R. in this city, but now of Toronto, who has been visiting in the city, left Saturday night. It is understood that Mr. Foster is to be the principal in a happy event which is to take place in Wisconsin the 21st of next month.

The Norwegian steamer Kathinka, Captain Thorsen, arrived in port today from Jamaica and Cuba with fruit. The steamer had a very rough trip up with heavy winds and heavy seas. She was off Partridge Island for twelve hours. No passengers came in the steamer.

A young man complained at the police court this morning that a dog, owned by a man named Peacock, who has property near Dark Lake, had bitten him on the 24th of May, while he was crossing Mr. Peacock's property. The young man did not know it was Peacock's property, and said that two women watched from the doorway, the animal run towards him and inflicted the bite.

Rev. G. J. Collier, White and Mrs. White with their two daughters, Eleanor and Margaret, left Lethbridge, Alta. on May 27th, en route for Windsor, where they will visit at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blanchard for a time, after going to Elbow house for the summer. Mr. White has sold his ranch in Lethbridge, where he went on account of his health, which is much improved, and is returning to Nova Scotia to reside.

AMERICANS ARE LOOKING TO CANADA

Three Associations to Operate in Fishing and Hunting Grounds This Summer.

L. O. Armstrong, colonization agent of the Canadian Pacific, has just returned to Montreal from New York, where he assisted in completing arrangements for the organization and work of three associations which will operate in the fishing and hunting grounds of Canada this summer.

The first was the Canadian camp, an association of Americans of high social and financial position, who have built a chain of lodges from the shores of Lake Huron to James Bay, which it is expected will become one of the most famous canoe trips on the continent. This society has been in work this year, and already has made marked progress.

The second organization is the Wild Wood Lodge Company, whose president is W. T. Hornaday, the celebrated naturalist and president of the Bronx Zoological Society. This takes as its sphere of operation the northern shore of Lake Huron, following up that shore from Severn River to Sault Ste. Marie, in motor and towing canoes on which they ascend the various rivers. Another purpose they have in view is the raising of wild animals.

The third association is the American and Canadian Sportsman's Association, whose headquarters are in Chicago. The leading Chicago sportsmen are members of this, and they are making Canada their field of operations. They have made some selections of territory and they will send their explorers out to the north shore of Lake Superior, French River and its tributaries and the country north of Desbarats, Ontario.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE
"Lost in the World," the play to be presented tonight at the Opera House by the Connors Stock Co., tells how easy it is to misjudge a person under a cloud. It is a story of a man who while under the influence of a drug is made to believe that he committed a crime and is held as a slave and is at the beck and call of a polished villain. This villain, secures his slave a position as boatman in a respectable family for the sole purpose of fastening a crime upon the brother of a girl that he is trying to marry. The father takes a liking to this villain, not knowing that he is one, on account of some little favor he had done, and looks with favor upon him as a son-in-law. The son is arrested for a murder and is put in jail waiting for sentence. Larry, a faithful servant, does not believe him guilty, and of course from that time becomes an enemy of all this man. He induces the old man to discharge him, which he does and is immediately re-engaged by the daughter, who has him try and find the real murderer.

Madame Flower, the bronze Melba, will sing.

ST. JOHN MAN IN IT
The members of the Annapolis Royal Tennis Club gave an entertainment last Thursday evening at the Academy of Music, at which a farce, "The Only Young Man in Town," was put on. The leading part was taken by Walter H. Belding. In his report the Spectator says:—"The part of Mr. Brown, the young man that was there," was taken by W. H. Belding, in a way that did infinite credit to himself as an amateur actor. Mr. Belding has the true touch for work of this sort. He was staunchly supported by Misses A. McMillan, L. Perkins, L. Wither, L. Wither, L. Wither, Miss J. Brittain, Miss Hall and Miss G. Reop."

THE GYPSUM INDUSTRY
William Gibson, of Chester, Pa., one of the American capitalists, interested in the Victoria Gypsum Co., Munroe's Point, is in North Sydney. The company have chartered three Norwegian steamers for the season to carry the product from Munroe's Point to the United States. The development of the property is being carried on on a large scale. A railroad from the main deposit to high water together with a modern shipping pier has already been constructed. The industry is bound to be an important one to a large section of Victoria County. By the close of navigation about 20,000 tons will have been shipped from Munroe's Point—Halifax Chronicle.

THE EVERYDAY CLUB
The Everyday (Men's) Club will meet in Brussels street church this evening at eight o'clock. This will be the last meeting of the club until after the summer months and a large attendance is expected. A good programme has been arranged and refreshments will be served. At the meeting held last Monday evening, Rev. A. B. Cohoe was elected president, John Bond vice-president, and W. H. Golding, secretary-treasurer. All men whether members of the club or not are invited to this evening's meeting.

Harry F. McLeod, the grand master of the Grand Orange Lodge of New Brunswick, leaves on Monday evening for Toronto, where he will attend the annual meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of British America. He will be absent for about a week.—Frederick Gleason.
