Mohammedans Observe Feast of Ramadan-Eat Nothing in Daytime

BANGOR, Me., April 14—A man who says that his name is Fred Moran and that his home town is Saint John, N. B., was seen to enter a house while the inmates were out, depart with an $8 silk umbrella, was later arrested while trying to sell it for 50 cents. Moran is locked up for two weeks before the next term of court in default of bail.

LONDON, April 15—Several thousand Moslems in Great Britain recently embarked on daily fasts of 12 hours for a period of 39 days in celebration of the Mohammedan fast of Ramadan. Nothing whatever will be caten between the hours of dawn and sunset. Those who carry out the fast are at liberty to carry out their normal occupations as they do during the rest of the year. After 6 o'clock in the eventual thousand Moslems in Great Britain recently embarked on daily fasts of 12 hours for a period of 39 days in celebration of the Mohammedan fast of Ramadan. Nothing whatever will be caten between the hours of dawn and sunset.

The Easter meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the United church at East Saint John was held in the church last evening. A good representation of the congregation was In the absence of the president, Mrs J. W. Flewwelling, who was unavoidably detained, Rev. W. J. Bevis presided and led the devotions. The C.

sided and led the devotions. The C. G. I. T. members sang several hymns and missionary choruses. Miss Bernice Flewwelling gave a reading on the Lord's Prayer which had been prepared as a memorial to the late Mrs. John A. McAvity.

The address of the evening was given by Mrs. H. DeV. Partridge, assistant secretary of the Saint John branch of the Grenfell Labrador Mission. She very impressively described Dr. Grenfell's work along the coast and in the heart of Labrador. The Easter offering amounted to a very creditable sum and will be used for missionary work of the United Church.

was a member of Star of King Chapter, O. E. S., there. She was also a member of the Star of Hope Rebekahs at Orono.

Besides her husband she is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Maud L. Buntin, of Portland; Mrs. Herbert D. Crawning they are then free to take their meals.

It is largely a form of self-discipline, and no great amount of ceremonial is associated with it.

Ramadan is the month in which the Koran was revealed. Abstinence is enjoined during daylight, which is determined as the "time during which the faithful can distinguish a white thread from a black."

Mrs. Kirkpatrick is survived by her husband, three daughters, one son, three sisters and one brother. The daughters are Ruby, Susie and Doss, and the son, Duncan Kirkpatrick, all at home. The sisters are Mrs. Robert Kelly, of Hoyt Station; Mrs. William Day, of this city, and Mrs. Frederick C. Burns, of Hatfield's Point. The brother is William Trott, of Vanceboro. The funeral will be held Mrs. Lindsay Hoar
