BELIEVES BEAR VISITED CITY

Raid was Made on a Hen House in Millidge Avenue.

It is doubtful if residents of Millidge avenue would have enjoyed their sleep a few nights ago if they had been aware that a bear was roaming around in that vicinity and had made an onslaught on a hen house. The fact that something unusual was going on was established by the noise the poultry were making during the night. The owner of the hen house, Wilbur Harrington, made an investigation and found shingles ripped off the side of the small building. There were large claw marks on the shingles and marks of the large paws about the mud.

INVESTIGATION NOT YET BEGUN

Mayor Speaks of Matter Between Engineer and Mr. Mayes.

Commissioner Frink said this morning that he and Commissioner Harding had not yet made arrangements to hold the investigation into the trouble between City Engineer Hare and Mr. Mayes, but would probably do so in a few days.

Mayor Potts said at the committee meeting yesterday that if Mr. Hare was found to be in the fault he would be suspended or dismissed. This morning he was asked what action would be taken should the committee report that Mr. Mayes was at fault and replied that was a matter for consideration. Personally he did not feel that Mr. Mayes was to blame as he considered the city engineer after hearing him inform Commissioner Bullock of the appointment of Mr. Mayes had no business asking to see the letter and this was what had brought on the altercation.

LETTERS WILL BE FORWARDED HERE

Correspondence in Matter of Discrimination of Marine Insurance Rates.

Word was received by the Board of Trade this morning from Premier King that he had given instructions to the Federal Marine Department to furnish the St. John board copies of all correspondence in connection with the report of the Imperial Shipping Committee and the determination of marine insurance rates applying to St. John.

SENTENCE IN BUTTER CASE SUSPENDED

A case against George Murray, who was held in custody on a charge of stealing a quantity of butter from the New Brunswick Cold Storage Co. Ltd., was concluded in the police court this morning. Paul C. Quinn, who represented the defendant, informed the court that the butter had been found. As it had not been moved off the premises he asked that this be taken into consideration and that his client be given a suspended sentence.

Hugh H. McLean Jr., who appeared on behalf of the company said the butter had been found near where the defendant said it was located. He said that the defendant had been employed digging near the cold storage building and that the butter had fallen into a ditch where he was working. He had hidden the butter.

Magistrate Henderson informed the defendant that he was technically guilty and as he had pleaded guilty to the charge he would allow him to go on a suspended sentence.

HON. MR. BAXTER IS BACK FROM ENGLAND

Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, M. P., who went to England to attend the international meeting of lawyers in London, arrived at Quebec this morning on the C. P. steamship Montreal. A wire from Mr. Baxter was received in the city early this afternoon. It did not state when he planned to come to St. John, but it is assumed that he will be in the city right away.

The power was shut off on that circuit on the corner of Paradise row and Mill street to the corner of Charlotte street and the north side of King Square, and the emergency wagon of the N. B. Power Company was being rushed to the scene to make repairs.

INSPECT PLAYGROUNDS.
Commissioner Frink, accompanied by H. E. Gould, yesterday visited the Allison grounds, the West Side playgrounds and the new park area around the "Three Lamps." At the latter place it is planned to plant shrubs and next year it is hoped to have one of the beauty spots of the city. At the Allison grounds it was found the grass was growing well, but Mr. Gould advised that these grounds be not used for football this fall if soil was desired. If the grounds were allowed to stand until next year they would be in good shape, but if football was played this fall the grass roots would be pulled out. The commissioner found the West Side playgrounds in fairly good shape and next year this will be ready for use.

PRINCE WINS PLACE IN HALL OF FAME

Collie Does a Fine Bit of Work Saving Cattle in Fire.

Here's the story of another dog hero. "Prince," the collie household pet and helper on the Beyca dairy farm off the Black River road near the city, may be rightly classed in this category. When flames were consuming the large cattle barn on last Sunday night, flames that illuminated the country roundabout and were seen in the city, there was great difficulty in getting the stamped cows from the structure. One of the Beyca men dashed into the seething interior and loosed the cattle but his efforts to drive them through the smoke and into the night were unavailing. The terrified animals turned head inwards and seemed to seek safety where their master was.

It was just here that "Prince" came in so handy. He knew the cows and he knew his master. It was his daily routine to accompany them to the pastures and shepherd them back at night. He knew all the old-time tricks such as nipping their heels when they became dilatory and wandered from the herd.

So when he heard Mr. Beyca shouting wildly to the cows in an effort to drive them from the big burning barn he dashed in from the floor and rounding up the animals still able to stand, nipped first at one cow and then another until he got them all headed for the smoke-clouded door.

In a few moments the almost suffocated cattle were in the barnyard with "Prince," himself half smothered with the smoke, barking and busing himself keeping them together in a safe place.

Mr. Beyca says the dog earned a lifetime of ease and comfort in those few tragic moments. He got him as a pup from a city milk customer three years ago and he is a useful farmhand in every sense of the word, reaching his peak of efficiency on Sunday night.

OTHERS HAVE CLAIM ON LANCASTER LAND

New Phase to Advertised Sale of Property for Unpaid Taxes.

A rather peculiar situation has developed in connection with the sale of lands in the parish of Lancaster for non-payment of water rates, advertised by the city. The school district has a claim of more than $1,400, and the county a claim of about $5,000 against the same land, that owned by the Consolidated Land Company, and they want to know where they fit in the matter. The school trustees of the district had the land advertised for sale, but the city sale will come on first.

It is understood the matter will be taken up with the city solicitor on his return, to find out what the rights of the several parties are. It has been suggested by the school trustees that the sale go on and the money received be divided on a percentage basis.

SOUTH END LEAGUE UMPIRE BEREAVED

The death of Mrs. Lincoln K. Brittain occurred suddenly at her home, 389 Duke street, this morning. Besides her husband Mrs. Brittain is survived by two children, William W. and Lenore G.; three brothers, Robert Spelman, Cecil Spelman and Clement Spelman, all of this city; and two sisters, Miss Florence and Miss Lillian Spelman. She was a daughter of James Spelman and the late Mrs. Spelman of this city. The funeral will be held from her late residence on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The sympathy of many friends will be extended to the bereaved family and Mr. Brittain, who is the well known umpire in the South End League.

As Hiram Sees It

"I was busy the hull afternoon yesterday," said Mr. Hiram Horn, when he came to The Times reporter, "patching a big hole in the roof of the barn."

"I did not suppose," said the reporter, "that a progressive farmer like you would wait till a big hole appeared before mending his barn."

"This hole," said Hiram, "was made the day afore."

"Oh," said the reporter, "I thought it was the result of gradual decay."

"No, sir," said Hiram, "we had a hail storm out to dis big as a water-fall went right through the roof of the barn. I got it in the ice-chait now. It hasn't melted, but since I put it there—I guess it'll keep things cool all summer. It was just all I could waggie under when I took it down out of the hay-mow. Why it was most as heavy as that muck iron."

"Hiram," said the reporter, "if I am and I should like to see a photograph and some corroborative evidence. You are sure you were not reading about hail-storms in Albert County or somewhere and then had a dream?"

"The Settlement," said Hiram, "don't hev to dream when it comes to keepin' up with any other place. You print that story—an'then let the other places come on if they want to. Want me to tell about that ice-berg in the lake back of my place?"

"Not today, thank you," said the reporter.

"Well," said Hiram, "it keeps the trout nice an' cool."
