JOHNNIE MCINTYRE REGAINS HIS WELTERWEIGHT TITLE FROM HEALEY

Gloucester Bay Contender Wins Well-earned Decision After 12 Rounds.

Johnnie McIntyre of Gloucester Bay regained his title of welterweight champion of the Maritime Provinces by defeating champion "Neddy" Healey of Halifax in a twelve round bout staged in the Arena last evening. The sensational part of the bout was in the first round when Healey walked into a still left jab and to many it appeared that as a result of his dazed condition he would never be able to weather the storm of blows until the bell sounded. By "hanging on" he succeeded, but the punishment he received apparently took much of the fight out of him and his efforts to even up during the remaining rounds proved futile. The judges' decision was unanimously in favor of McIntyre and he was carried from the ring on the shoulders of his admirers.

Healey assumed the aggressive in the first round. He pranced around McIntyre looking for an opening with the Gloucester Bay boy in the centre. Healey rushed in and McIntyre landed flush with his left. Healey's knees wobbled and he caught McIntyre around the body to save himself from going to the floor. McIntyre wrenched himself loose from the clench and swung hard, but Healey ducked and again fell into a clinch. McIntyre had difficulty in clearing himself and again measured Healey, but his blow was wild. Healey showed remarkable stamina in this round and came out fresh in the second round. From then on, however, McIntyre had matters his own way, although Healey never gave up trying hard. Roy Chisholm, Healey's manager, was in the Halifax boy's corner. Challenges to the winner of the main bout were announced as from "Billy" Smith, a colored Scotch boy in charge of Frankie Burns, who also was McIntyre's chief agent, and "Billy" Groff, the western welterweight.

That first round will have the fans talking for many months. It was easily the most exciting opening given to a bout in St. John since the days of "Eddie" Connelly and "Mysterious Billy" Smith, two St. John boys who later on became world champions. How Healey hung gamely on through that storm only he himself knows. He could barely see his opponent in a daze and his supporters breathed a sigh of relief as the bell sounded.

From then on until the sixth round, McIntyre gave an exhibition of boxing science. In the sixth, Healey opened up a promising aggressive but McIntyre was too strong. In the eighth, the former champion came out quickly as he realized that only a strong reversal of form could keep his crown from slipping away. He mixed it strongly with the Gloucester Bay milt artist, who had difficulty holding him in the clinches. In one of Healey's rushes in this round, McIntyre side-stepped and Healey fell on his hands. McIntyre held out his hands to help Healey up but Referee "Jim" Power was also there. Healey, however, regained his feet without assistance and the rosin was wiped off his gloves.

Opening the seventh, Healey started off to maintain his good work of the sixth round. He swung but McIntyre ducked the blow and they fell into a clinch. Healey almost got himself into another peck of trouble in this round through his dancing tactics. He rushed McIntyre near the ropes. McIntyre again side-stepped and Healey tripped over his foot and nearly went off his balance. McIntyre clipped him hard but Healey fell into a clinch. The Halifax boy quickly recovered and there were several exciting furies before the bell rang. The round was quite even.

The eighth round was also even. McIntyre showing up well. Healey was trying hard for a knockout at this stage of the game but the Gloucester Bay youngster was too clever. Healey cut loose with several rallies. The next two rounds were largely a clinching contest with McIntyre having matters well in hand.

In the eleventh round, McIntyre surprised Healey by coming out with a rush and had Healey stepping lively with his pistonlike left and overhand right.

The boxes shook hands before the final round started. Healey doggedly started out to turn the tide but it was running too strongly against him.

Main Preliminary Cancelled.

The main preliminary between "Al" Hogan, former Maritime amateur champion, and "Al" Shanks, a west-side boxer, did not take place as scheduled, owing to the fact that Shanks injured himself while in training. A substitute, Austin McIntyre, had been secured, but after examination by the official doctor for the bouts, he was pronounced unfit. It was announced that Tom Barrett, who was present, was willing to go on, but to this arrangement, Hogan assented. The main preliminary, therefore, was called off. It was more than made up for, however, by the stirring championship tilt between Healey and McIntyre.

Shields a Winner.

In the first preliminary, "Fighting Dick" Shields took on Earl Penny, an experienced 125-pounder. Shields gave away three rounds, but to the great surprise of the audience clearly earned a decision over Penny. There were no judges for this bout, Frankie Burns, who refereed, raising Shields' arm at the end of the final round. Shields had the "hit and miss" play down to perfection with Penny doing most of the missing. Penny's wild swings time and again sailed harmlessly over Shields' head. There were many laughable moments to the bout. Penny, taking it good-naturedly, but the serious faced, sore-topped youngster was all business. His victory was well received by the crowd with whom he is quite a favorite. He showed great promise but still is decidedly crude.

MA STRIBLING AND HER BOY FIGHTER DISCUSS AN OFFER.

Macon, Ga.—When Young Stribling, school-boy light-heavyweight, who caused the champion, Mike McGuire such great embarrassment some days ago at Columbus, gets an offer to fight, his mother decides whether it should be accepted or not.

"Ma" Stribling, as she is known here, is virtually the business manager of her rising young gladiator. She feels that Young Stribling is a match for any man of his weight in the world, especially after the manner in which he cuffed McGuire around, but she is careful to see that he is not overly matched—or underpaid. In short, "Ma" Stribling is a regular manager, and none of the wise-alecky promoters are going to put anything over on her.

SWIMMING CHAMPS IN MONTREAL TANK

Montreal, Oct. 27.—The first half of the two-day Canadian Swimming Championship meet being held here was swum off last night. The feature race was the 50-yard, free-style women's event, for the Canadian championship. Miss Hazel Kessler of Winnipeg won both her heat and the final, registering 32.5 seconds in the final. The record is 32 seconds flat, established by her in 1920. Miss Plontrie of McGill was second, and Miss Dalton of Ottawa third.

George Vernon of McGill scored a very easy win in the 500-yard men's race. His time of 6 minutes, 46.1 seconds will stand as a Canadian record, as no time had previously been set for this distance.

Clayton Bourne of McGill won the 100 yards in 59.1-5 seconds, which is 2-3 seconds slower than Vernon's record in 1920.
