SIDNEY OLCOTT'S
STUPENDOUS HEART-INTEREST SPECTACLE

The Belgian

STARRING
WALKER WHITESIDE
and VALENTINE GRANT

THE BELGIAN is not a war picture but it shows with unerring accuracy the effects of the invasion of the Huns—it does not put on the screen the unforgivable ruthlessness of the Teuton Horde

These great picture shows how Germany planned this war 30 years ago—it shows in detail how the Belgian people are being treated by the inhuman Huns

Argot Lad 2 3 3 3

Epheus 4 4 4 4

The laurels of the day went to A. P. Ryan who drove two horses to victory, Nancy Winston and Peter Farren.

Mr. Ryan drove eleven heats in all, seven in Class A and four in Class B, but he made his best showing in handling Nancy Winston against horses markedly higher. Preparations are now underway for the big meet the latter part of this month and much enthusiasm has been worked up among local horsemen.

WOMAN WHO ENLISTED IN MAN'S UNIFORM IS DEAD

Douglas, Ariz., July 12.—Mrs. Ifeal Carter, who last fall went in an infantry regiment from Douglas to France, disguised as a soldier, died at Lordsburg, N. M., last week. Her husband, a corporal in the regiment, is still in France. Her identity and sex were discovered a little while before the ship bearing the troops reached its destination and she was sent back to the United States.

WAR BOARD WILL NOT RAISE ITS OFFER

Montreal, July 14.—An emergency meeting of the Canadian Railway War Board came to an end this afternoon in the dispatch of a letter to the representatives of the railway federated trades stating that the board would not raise its offer of the McAdoo award, rejected by the men's representatives on Friday last. This is taken to mean that unless either side recedes from its position the men will walk out Tuesday.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Strain-Phillips.

Woodstock, July 14.—A marriage of much interest took place at the residence of Byron Emery, Jacksonville, on Saturday afternoon, when Robert Strain, manager of the Manzer Department store, formerly of St. John, was wedded to Miss Mabel McLeod Phillips, daughter of the late Rev. Dr. C. T. Phillips, for many years pastor of the Baptist church in this town. Rev. L. A. Fenwick officiated at the ceremony. The bride was attired in a traveling suit of castor color broadcloth, and only the immediate relatives were present. Mr. and Mrs. Strain left on a bridal tour of a few weeks to Boston and other American cities.

Ottawa, July 13.—The following list of maritime casualties were announced this evening:

INFANTRY.

Presumed to Have Died.
