WM. CRAWFORD DEAD

At the great age of ninety-two years, William Crawford, father of Policeman Alexander Crawford, of St. John, passed away at his home, 78 Exmouth street, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Crawford, who was a native of Donegal, Ireland, came to St. John in 1854, and was for years engaged in

The Late Wm. Crawford

The funeral will take place on Saturday at 2.30 o'clock from 78 Exmouth street. In the evening, Mr. Crawford went to the tobacco store he took a farm, and was prosperous.

Six years ago Mr. Crawford and his wife left the farm and came to this city to reside with their son Alexander.

Mr. Crawford had been in excellent health until only five days ago when he was taken to his bed with heart trouble. Shortly after he arrived here in 1854, he was married to a young lady from his home in Donegal, Ireland, and his wife is at present at their home, 78 Exmouth street, with their son Alexander. He is 90 years of age and in excellent health.

FOR BALD HEADS

A Treatment That Costs Nothing If It Fails

I want you to try three large bottles of Rexall's Hair Tonic. I can guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's what I mean. If you do not get the result you want, I will refund you the money. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall's Remedies in this community only at my store--The Rexall Store, Chas. R. Watson, 100 King Street.

TREASURY BOARD MATTERS

At the meeting of the treasury board yesterday afternoon, L. G. Crosby, E. T. Sturdee, J. R. Stone, and Edwin Peters appeared on behalf of the Gormain Street Improvement Association, and the residents of the street who had contributed to the cost of the alterations. They had received their bills, but before making payment they wanted certain portions of the street repaired. They also asked for detailed statements of the cost of the work.

Ald. Hayes and McLeodrick and the engineer were appointed to deal with the matter.

Ald. Smith and Codner were appointed to act with the chairman and the common clerk in calling for tenders for steel filing cabinets in the common clerk's office. The corporation committee reported having exceeded their appropriation by a few dollars. Their report was accepted.

The matter of the early closing cases was laid over until the next meeting, after the recorder had given his report on Judge Ritchie's decision.

W. M. Jarvis wrote in complaint that some insurance companies were paying no tax, but the recorder said he had looked into the matter and found things satisfactory.

LEB. B. Jordan, secretary of School District No. 1, Lancaster, complained of lack of funds for the school work for 1910 in the parish, and it was decided to pay a claim of $51.25 to settle the difference.

MORNING LOCALS

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Home for Incurables served tea on the grounds yesterday afternoon. A large number enjoyed the affair.

The St. John customs receipts for August were $129,267.46, corresponding month of last year $123,473.37.

Had named Marvin, about ten years old, must have met a watery grave about 3.30 o'clock last night in a slip near Mill street, had it not been for Walter Moore of North street. Marvin fell in from the trestle work and being unable to swim struggled desperately. Moore jumped into the slip and brought the lad to shore.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

A new law went into effect in New York last night, providing that any person over the age of sixteen who has a revolver or firearm in his or her possession, without a license, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and the crime is made a felony if the weapon is concealed. All sales of fire-arms must be registered.

The Canadian Union of Municipalities elected J. W. McCreedy, of Fredericton, president. The place for the next convention was left to the executive.

A letter was received this week in the office of the secretary treasurer of Boston, from a man who signed the name of "George Law," of Bolina, Kings county, who wanted information regarding the conducting of a gambling house in that city, prices of license, etc.

THE REVOLVING BUOY LIGHT OF RED HEAD, FROM SEASIDE PARK

Wink, wink, think little eyes of night, Thou sparkling gem in ocean's crown, Across the sea they glance and gleam, Bidding me sit and wait and dream, Of ships a-coming down.

Art thou some floating fallen star, A-winking at thy mother moon? So pale and sad she looks for thee, Casting search-lights o'er the sea, Though night is all too soon.

Still thou art happy twinkling star, And useful too in fallen state, So, useful can we always be, And fallen may we be like thee, Then are we truly great.

SPOILING IT.

A man who fancies himself a raconteur was with his wife paying his first call in a new neighborhood. He told a humorous story with fine results. Said his proud wife then:

"Now, tell them your other story, dear."

Women Need sympathy and help when they are attacked by weakness and suffering. At times when Nature seems cruel and very hard--when depressions and derangements come--kind womanly friends may give sympathy. When ailments occur, the best natural help and correction is the safe and well-tried family remedy

BEECHAM'S PILLS

They correct the result of indigestion and remove the cause of suffering. They have tonic and purgative action on the whole system. They relieve nervousness, headache, backache, diarrhoea, depression and suffering.
