Newfoundland Notice to Mariners

Burnt Islands District of Burgeo-South West Coast

Latitude 47° 35' 40" N.
Longitude 56° 53' 00" W.

Notice is hereby given that two Red Lights have been placed on Great Burnt Island for the guidance of fishing craft of that harbour.

Structures—Wood, square in plan with sloping sides, 15 feet high from base to centre of light.
Colour—Both towers painted with two red and two white horizontal bands, lanterns white.

Remarks—Lights will be put in operation during month of January, 1915, without further notice.

N. E.—Burnt Islands Harbour affords good and sheltered anchorage for vessels of moderate size, but even with a small vessel no stranger should attempt to enter without a pilot, for the channels are not easily distinguished from seaward, and the numerous rocks give but little room for manoeuvring.

They cost only $1.00 a copy. It will be the best investment you have ever made. Read what the Rev. F. B. Meyer, B. A., of London, England, has to say regarding these books:

"The questions which are dealt with in the 'Self and Sex Series' of books are always being asked and if the answer is not forthcoming from pure and wise lips it will be obtained through vicious and empirical channels. I therefore greatly commend this series of books, which are written lucidly and purely, and will afford the necessary information without pandering to unholy and sensual passions. I should like to see a wide and judicious distribution of this literature among Christian circles."

Letters from Our Naval Reservists

From Wm. H. Bartlett, Barrow, Liverpool, Eng., Feb. 27, 1915.

My Dear Wife,—Just a few lines to let you know I have got back safe to Liverpool after a very stormy trip. I thank God he has preserved us thus far. We have had a very hard time of it, it being seven weeks since we were here last, experiencing while away almost continual gales of wind, snowstorms, etc. To-day it is summer-like. Now we have four days' leave. I hope we shall come off victorious and save the flag we so love.

I pray that God, in His own good time, will bring us (I can't say all; I wish I could) to our loved ones again. Joseph Bradbury is in good health. I am still striving to follow in the path that will bring us all to the place where there will be no more war. I often feel glad that I stepped out on the promises of God. It keeps me through all the temptations that surround me. Whatever befalls us I pray that God will receive us everyone unto Himself.

WM. H. BARTLETT.

From Isaac Snow, Coley's Point. R. N. R. Barracks, E. Ness, Portsmouth, England, Feb. 28, 1915.

Dear Father,—There has been some important happenings since I wrote you last. I have had a great experience since leaving home, from the time I entered the Clyde in Scotland and from Scotland to the barracks in Portsmouth. There is a large barracks and thousands of sailors here. No doubt you have heard of the great battle in the North Sea when the Bluebird was sunk. I had the pleasure of being on a torpedo boat destroyer then. Her speed was 35 knots. We fired more than 10 torpedoes at the enemy. You have no idea what war is like. Guns roaring and shells bursting all round us. Still we sped on not thinking of danger. Such is the spirit of British and Newfoundland sailors.

There was three other of our boys on her. It was a great sight to see the giant battleship going down. The order was then given to lower the boats and save the lives. Although we put them in that condition we were just as eager to save them. We worked like trojans. The bands were playing and the sailors shouting. We enjoyed it very much. Give my love to mother, Clarence, Mary and all enquiring friends. Hoping to see you all again when the war is over. I remain, your loving son,

ISAAC SNOW.

Naval Reservist Snow Writes

H. M. S. Fetucc, Glasgow, Scotland, Feb. 23, 1915.

(Editor the Guardian).

Dear Sir,—As I was sitting all alone this evening I thought I would drop a few lines to the Guardian. I am not much of a hand for writing, but I will try and tell a little of our doings.

Well, sir, we came across to England in November, 1914, landing at the Portsmouth Royal Naval Barracks, where we had about three weeks' drill before going to the front. The first day we tried our guns was on Christmas Day. We then did five weeks' duty in the North Sea. Then we spent five days in Liverpool coaling our ship. We then spent four weeks at sea again. About this time it was rumored that submarines were around Liverpool, so we sailed in Scotland.

We have been very successful since we started. We have captured five merchant ships, one of which had a load of cotton for Germany. We also captured two small trawlers flying the Norwegian flag, but after taking them to port we found they were German mine layers. One had 18 mines and the other 16 on board. I think we were lucky in capturing them. I will tell you more next time I write. 'God Save the King.' Wishing the Guardian every success. I remain,

GEORGE SNOW.

[We are glad to receive a letter direct from one of our Naval boys, and we are pleased to publish same. We owe our Naval Reservists a debt of gratitude for their services to the flag and for our protection. Those that survive the conflict must not be forgotten. George is a Coley's Point boy, and a son of Adam and Leah Snow.—Editor.]

SEPARATE SCHOOL TEACHER WRITES

Tells of the Good Dodd's Kidney Pills Have Done

She had no faith in them, but the Results and Health obtained convinced her.

Grates Cove, Trinity Bay, Nfld., March 21st (Special).—Among the thousands in Newfoundland who pin their faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills is Miss Mary Bridget Whelan, teacher in the Roman Catholic School here.

"I am exceedingly grateful to Dodd's Kidney Pills," Miss Whelan states in an interview. "I was very much run down in health. Close confinement to my work brought on my trouble."

"Reading of the many cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills I began to use them and I must confess with very little faith."

"Before I had taken one box I was not only cured but my strength was growing rapidly, and I felt a great improvement in every way."

Miss Whelan gives the real reason of the popularity of Dodd's Kidney Pills. "They do not cure the ailment aimed at at the expense of some other part of the body. They build up health all over the body. They do this by curing the kidneys. Cured kidneys mean pure blood."
