UPS AND DOWNS IN COMMERCE

There is a most remarkable contradiction in our economic adjustments...

WORKERS GET INTO POLITICS

The Bricklayer and Mason publishes the following confidential from Parry's Union addressed to the members of Congress and delegates to the Democratic convention at St. Louis...

Dear Sir, We should like first to recall your generous and essential service of last winter...

There is now a service of vital importance that you can do for the cause...

But there are some things which you can do for the cause...

These two movements are opposite in direction and also different in their source...

OUR 'BENEVOLENT' ASSIMILATORS

'Benevolent' shouted the road agent. As he was going through the pockets of the passengers...

'Do you want to know how so many of our clever boys grow up to be failures?' asked William Crooks...

'I have organized the production of values,' replied the captain of industry...

'I am charging only what the market will bear,' returned the capitalist...

'I am only taking what you have won, whereas the trusts take mortgages on all you may ever have.'

'I am holding it only as a trustee,' said the leading citizen...

'I am only taking what you have won, whereas the trusts take mortgages on all you may ever have.'

not, whether from your state or not, whether known to be friendly to our cause, or whether the right effect...

Why is it that such a comparatively small number of men are engaged in the production of values...

He exists because humanity has failed to distinguish between the value which is caused by the commodity and the value which the individual causes by his industry...

This distinction between these two values is the most important generalization that can be made in political economy...

It is not a monstrous fact that a man holding one of the most valuable acres in New York City, without as much as raising a blade of grass, can draw for himself more than the average...
