QUEBEC CAN HOLD 30,000 VISITORS DURING FETE

Every Effort is Being Made to Ensure Ample Accommodation

QUEBEC, May 21.—Twenty-nine or thirty thousand persons can be given comfortable accommodation during the days of the Tercentenary fete. Such is the statement of progress to date of the work of the hotels and lodgings committee, given to the Star by Mr. Jules Hone, Jr., chairman. A house to house canvass of Quebec and Lewis has been made and a careful record kept of every available room in private residences, in hotels and in regular boarding houses. Six thousand and will be accommodated in the Tent City. A large number will undoubtedly be accommodated on chartered or ordinary steamers. The provisioning of the thousands is not considered to be a matter for apprehension. The Tent City dining rooms will be able to look after ten thousand people every day, furnishing meals at a very low rate. The Chateau Fontenac, the St. Louis, the Clarendon and other hotels are making special arrangements, as well as the regular boarding houses and resi- dences turned into boarding houses for the time being. The canvas of the city for rooms by the committee which is now com- pleted has shown good results. In Quebec there are 4,800 rooms furni- shed with single or double beds, which may be secured in private residences while Lewis can furnish 875 such. One hundred and forty-five of the best resi- dences of Quebec may be let out to whole families or to parties of friends, being placed at the disposal of the committee for this purpose by citi- zens. In these private residences, several thousand persons can be com- fortably accommodated. Five thou- sand can be put up by the hotels and the regular boarding houses of Que- bec and Lewis. Arrangements have been made with all the educational and religious insti- tutions of Quebec and Lewis to use their class rooms and dormitories, and thus four thousand more may be ac- commodated in very comfortable quar- ters. These will be especially use- ful for the young ladies of Ottawa who are coming in a body as far as the availability of such accommodation is the official total. Quarters will un- doubtedly be found too, for many on board steamers in the harbors of Quebec or Lewis, as for instance, the Empress of Ireland which will sail on Friday the 24th. All intending pas- sengers by that sailing may claim and make use of their berths for several days before. The tents will all be fitted up in first-class style. They will have wooden flooring, and rugs, regular beds, and with mattresses, sheets, covers, etc., all of the best. Each tent will be supplied with running wa- ter, electric light and other con- veniences. Telephone and telegraph systems will be installed with public stations and offices at different points. There will be a hundred porters, an army of bell-boys, maids and other necessary domestics; and also by the way, a force of Pinkerton detectives, through the snow by detectives and made to surrender at the point of revolvers. He was subsequently sent to ten years in the penitentiary, and has only recently been released. Chief McCaskill, of the provincial force, has now been asked by the New Brunswick authorities to have McCar- thy held here until they can consult with the Attorney-General of their province.

PROVINCIAL CRIMINAL

ARRESTED IN MONTREAL

Safe-Cracker Now Wanted in New Brun- wick on Charge of Kid- napping Boy.

(Montreal Gazette.) Besides being an old safe-cracker, Edward McCarthy, one of the suspected Yeggmen arrested at Cotou Junction last Saturday morning by Detectives Samson, Cowan and Vena, is also accused of being a kidnapper. He is now wanted in Campbellton, N. B., to answer a charge of kidnapping Ernest McAllister, a nine-year-old boy, from his home in Campbellton in 1888 and of taking him to Toronto. The boy was arrested for begging in the latter city, and when brought before Magis- trate Denison said he had been kid- napped and taught to beg by McCar- thy. The lad died a year later in the Mercy Hospital from exposure and neglect. McCarthy was, in the meantime, arrested in the fall of 1893 in connection with the safe-blowing of the Danville Bank, being one of the six men chased through the snow by detectives and made to surrender at the point of revolvers. He was subsequently sent to ten years in the penitentiary, and has only recently been released. Chief McCaskill, of the provincial force, has now been asked by the New Brunswick authorities to have McCar- thy held here until they can consult with the Attorney-General of their province.

RESCUED FROM RIVER

Man Who Jumped Overboard From S. S. Ionian Rescued by Crew of Lady Grey.

Passengers on the Allan liner Ionian outward-bound, witnessed an exciting scene just as the vessel was passing Crane Island on Saturday. The com- motion was occasioned by the jumping overboard and subsequent rescue of a man who tried to commit suicide. Discouraged with life, Henry Mason, who had come to this country as a stowaway shortly after the opening of navigation and was being deported, had plunged into the river from the lower deck of the vessel. Fellow pas- sengers in the steerage ran to the rail- ing and noticed the man struggling in the water. In the meantime, en- gines had been stopped, and orders were given to lower a boat. Just at this moment the government steamer Lady Grey, with Mr. W. F. Cowie, channel engineer, on board, love in sight and those on board the latter vessel noticed the excitement on board the Allan liner, and a boat was also put out a boat, but there was at that time no sign of the man over- board. Presently his head appeared above the surface some distance off. Without waiting for the boat to row to him, the Lady Grey steamed nearer, and Captain Murdoch had a rope ladder lowered. The struggling man, however was too weak to grasp it and Mr. F. A. Wise, C. E., had to climb down and haul the almost un- conscious man aboard. Steaming close to the Ionian, the Lady Grey deliv- ered the rescued man to the Allan liner, and the last that was seen of him was when he was being carried to a state room to recover. Mr. Cowie returned to the city yes- terday and to him is due the details of the rescue.

ROOSEVELT GETS $10,000 FROM OLD MISER'S WILL

Bequest to President by Benjamin Hadley, the Somerville Recluse— New Will Found

BOSTON, May 21.—Upon the authen- ticity of a new will and two codicils which have been discovered and which provide for a bequest of $10,000 to Free. Roosevelt depends the distribu- tion of the $300,000 estate left by Ben- jamin Hadley, an eccentric recluse who was found dead in his home in Somerville last December. If the new documents are genuine and that point is to be determined by the courts, all of the estate with the exception of the $10,000 bequest to the President will be distributed among the English rela- tives of the testator. The will, which is now awaiting probate, was dated Jan. 18, 1907, about a year before Mr. Hadley's death. The instrument which has just been found, was dated in 1889 and under ordinary conditions would be inadmissible but attached to it are two codicils, one dated Aug. 15, 1907, and the other Nov. 16, 1907. Mr. Hadley who died alone in his house as the result of a fall down stairs, never rode on the train, spent less than $1 for street car fares during his life, never attended church or the- atre, lived alone and never wore a suit of custom made clothing.

BIRDS' NEST CANDY.

An American resident of Shanghai sent home recently an advertisement of birds' nest candy printed in English by the manufacturers. The old ad- vertisement ran like this: The Candy of Birds' Nest—Our Candy is prepared of Birds' Nest which was famous in all the countries. We made it used with Engines to take the dirty away and then put it into Sugar; there is a great of sweetness, fragrance and whiteness. Every old and young one ought to eat it.
