Lieut. Paul D. Hanson and Lieut. Murray L. Burnett have completed their special course of instruction at the military school and returned to their homes in St. John last evening.—Gleaner.

The police report a dangerous hole on Britain street. They also report having found a number of doors open last night, and managed to put out two bonfires, one on Richmond street, and the other on Brussels street.

Policeman Rosa reports the following boys for being profane and throwing stones on St. Patrick street—Peter Moran, Wm. Stack, Harold Chamberlain, Frank McKale, Harold McHugh, Robert Walcott and Chas. Smith.

James M. Power, the well known sporting man, and proprietor of the "New Hub" on Buckingham street, Halifax, has sent the Star a book containing the world's annual sporting records. The book which has 192 pages, is of pocket size, and contains the records. The book is of 192 pages, is of pocket size, and contains the records.

There will be a meeting of the harbor bridge committee this afternoon to discuss the proposal to try to hasten the erection of a bridge on Navy Island. At present the general sentiment seems to be that the time is not opportune for such a move and that the committee is not likely to get very far ahead.

The meeting of prominent citizens which was to have met in the mayor's office yesterday afternoon to discuss plans for raising funds for the Quebec Battered fund, did not materialize, owing to the fact that none of the citizens turned up. It is possible that some arrangement may be made by which the Canadian Club will undertake to take the matter in hand.

Owing to the mix-up in the time table and the fact that the Boston train was even later than usual, the C. P. R. train reached the station half an hour before the Boston express this morning. The C. P. R. was fifteen minutes late, arriving at 11.45, and the Boston, which was an hour and thirty-five minutes late, did not arrive until 12.15.

The police have many curious things handed to them that are found on the streets, but Officer Lucas could not suppress a grin when a lady handed him a set of upper teeth last night. The teeth were found on Leinster street by the lady. They are now awaiting the owner at central police station. The claimant is requested to bring her mouth to the station in order to prove her claim to the property.

ODDFELLOWS HELD A MEMORIAL SERVICE

Impressive Ceremony Last Evening in Simonds St. Hall—The Names of Deceased Brethren.

An impressive service was held last evening in Oddfellows Hall, Simonds St., by members of Peaceful Lodge in memory of deceased brethren. There was a very large attendance. Noble Grand Washburn presided, and the music was under the direction of John Salmon.

The memorial service began with the opening ode by the choir, followed by the prayer laid down in the ritual. The Noble Grand made the usual proclamation as to the intent of the meeting and following this the secretary read the names of those members of the lodge who have passed away.

Eulogistic references were made to the deceased brethren by C. A. Hannah, M. D. Brown and H. E. Colner, and the meeting was brought to a close with the hymn, "It is not death to die," and prayer by the chaplain.

The names of the members who have died since the lodge was instituted are:

IT COST HENDERSON $20 TO HAVE A HUG

Man Who Squeezed a Young Woman Pays Dearly for His Fun—Other Police Court Matters.

In the police court this morning two drunks were fined the usual amount. John Henderson, a young man, pleaded guilty to being drunk on Charlotte street, but said he did not remember placing his arm around the waist of a young lady who was looking in the London House window. Policeman McCollum saw the hug, however, and Henderson was fined $4 or 10 days for being drunk, and $20 or two months' jail for taking a hug that didn't belong to him.

Wm. Waugh, a young man, was charged with assaulting Police Sergeant Rose, but was allowed to go with a warning, as the Sergeant did not wish to press the charge against him.

Carl Peters and George Swanton had a little brush on the Marsh Road with their horses a few evenings ago. An imbibitor of lemonade, Miss Perry, took notice, and this morning the two young men had to pay four dollars each to the court.

The case of trespassing on the I. C. R. crossing preferred against M. M. Redosh, was postponed for a future hearing.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Lees Found Guilty This Morning—Rogers Pleads Guilty—Remanded for Sentence.

In the circuit court this morning Wm. Rogers withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty. He was remanded for sentence.

George and Mattie Lee, of Sheffield street, were found guilty of the theft of a purse from Percy Burnett and were remanded for sentence.

Agnes Cunningham, in whose case the jury disagreed yesterday, was remanded to jail until Friday.

PROBATE COURT.

Estate of the late Sheriff Stroud. Passing of accounts by widow and son, executors. After hearing evidence the case was adjourned until Friday, 26th instant at 2 p. m. for further hearing and particulars of accounts. L. A. Curry, K. C., proctor for executors; Kenneth J. MacRae, for a creditor whose account is disputed.

TREASURY BOARD.

A meeting of the treasury board will be held this afternoon in the city hall. It is understood that the city will be able to get the same rate that banks as they got last year, that is, three and a half per cent.

It is possible that the extent of overdraft allowed may be restricted, but the limit will probably be put at a rate that the city is not likely to reach.
