HARVARD'S BIRTHPLACE.
LONDON, May 25.—Harvard House in Stratford-on-Avon, the birth place of John Harvard, which was purchased last year by Edward Morris, of Chicago, has been entirely renovated and fitted up as a museum and will shortly be opened to the public. This work is being done under the direction of the trustees who include Sir Thomas Lipton and Marie Curie.

RELIGIOUS LIBERTY.
ST. PETERSBURG, May 25.—The Duma today began the discussion of a law legalizing the sect of Old Believers. This is the first of a series of important measures designed to put into effect the principles of religious liberty enunciated in the Emperor's manifesto of May 18, 1905. The sect of the Old Believers which in various forms embraces 15,000,000 worshippers, is the largest dissident body in Russia. It separated from the parent orthodox church during the period of religious reforms under Peter the Great.

ADVENTISTS COME FROM SEVENTY-EIGHT NATIONS
Menu of Big Camp Includes Sterilized Bran, Yogurt, Cheese, Groceries and Protose.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—Three thousand Seventh Day Adventists are gathered at Takoma Park, Md., a suburb of Washington, spending three weeks in tents, the occasion being the thirty-seventh annual conference of the sect. Seventy-eight nations are represented by delegates from every quarter of the globe, civilized and uncivilized.

Meals are served in a big dining tent which has a seating capacity of 2,000. The culinary department is under the direction of Battle Creek experts, and not one mouthful of animal food will be consumed except milk, eggs and the products thereof. Some of the food stuffs that make up the daily menu are: grose, granola, granules, bulbers, beans, hulled wheat, lentils, molasses, catolene, nutose, plinents, potato and gluten biscuits, protose, sanitas, marmalade, sterilized bran, tao-gut-an, yogurt, cheese and zwieback.

Translations of the foregoing are furnished on request to the Philistines who stray into the camp. All of the faithful are as familiar with a bill of fare selected from this list as any ordinary mortal would be with ham and eggs or a "stack of wheat."

Will Not Make Contract for Foreign Countries—English's organize Baseball Teams

CHICAGO, May 25.—James J. Jeffries has received a letter from Hugh McIntosh, the Australian fight promoter, who is in England, asking him to refrain from closing a match with Jack Johnson for the world's championship without first giving him an opportunity to bid for the fight. HAVANA, May 25.—Secretary of State Justo Garcia Velez has ordered the Chancellor of the Cuban Legation at Washington to go to Point Loma, Cal., and make a thorough investigation of conditions surrounding the Cuban pupils of the Roja Yaga.

The secretary took this action on the strength of reports that Cuban children at Mrs. Katherine Tagley's institution are not being treated as well as other children under the care of the same institution.

La Defensas, a Santiago journal, has also denounced the treatment of the children, which Mrs. Tagley calls her "Lotos Buds."

JUDGE FORBES COMMENTS ON THE "SO-CALLED GENTLEMEN" YACHTSMEN

Says the Police Should Get After the Men Who Paint Their Boats on Sunday—Grand Jury Finds No Bill Against Charles Kerr

Brayola Vanwart, Michael J. McGrath, Thom. McManis, W. W. Brown, John J. Williams, G. A. S. Hopkins, Sydney Gibbs, C. T. Novins (excused), H. A. Aldrich, Jas. Wilson, H. W. Washburn, W. C. Morgan, Edward A. Milton, J. M. P. Whittier, Bartholomew Murphy, and W. J. Tennant.

CIVIL DOCKET.
Goldie and McCulloch Mfg. Co. vs. Isaac DeLoos—Weldon and McLean.

Waterbury and Rising vs. J. N. Tompkins—Mr. A. A. Wilson, K. C. S. A. William vs. J. S. Harding—Mr. A. A. Wilson, K. C.

H. G. Edgcombe vs. Underhill—Mr. H. H. Everett vs. D. T. Keith—Mr. H. H. Pickett.

Bank of New Brunswick vs. A. J. Burrows—Mr. H. H. Pickett.

H. W. DeForest vs. W. R. Brauer—Mr. L. F. D. Tilley.

H. J. Clifton vs. C. P. R.—Dr. A. W. Macrae, K. C.

W. E. Sanford Mfg. Co., Ltd. vs. R. W. Stockton—Mr. G. J. Oyster, K. C.

His Honor addressed the grand jury, speaking about the two criminal cases which they were to deal with, he said that in the case of the King vs. Dominic Kerrigan, charged with stealing money from James Cunningham, he thought the evidence was strong enough to justify them in returning a true bill. In the case of the King vs. Charles Kerr, charged with stealing electricity from the St. John Railway Co. for use in the Bijou moving picture theatre, his honor in reviewing the evidence commented on its weakness. He then poured some hot shot into what he termed the "so-called gentlemen" who are members of the R. K. Y. C. and who violate the Sunday observance law by painting and fixing their yachts, and boating at Millingville on the Sabbath. His Honor spoke in strong terms of this practice and said that if a poor widow established a candy and fruit stall on King street for the sale of her wares on the Sabbath she would be fined for doing so, and these gentlemen are in the same position as the widow. Continuing His Honor said it is the duty of every citizen to observe the law and those merchants who paint their yachts on Sunday might as well open their places of business and also paint their stores. He said that it is the duty of the Chief of Police and every police officer to report these gentlemen and also the duty of the police magistrate to prosecute them when they come before him.

His Honor then spoke about the increase of the use of tobacco and cigars by boys under sixteen years of age. He read the sections of the act regarding this and said it was the duty of every police officer who saw a youth using tobacco who he believed to be under sixteen, to take it from him and lay a complaint against such offenders. His Honor also said it is the duty of the police magistrate to try and find out who sold the tobacco.

The grand jury returned at 11.30 and shortly after one o'clock returned a true bill against Dominic Kerrigan and no bill in the case against Charles Kerr. Kerr was then discharged. The Speedy Trials cases are being taken up this afternoon.
