THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN

ST. JOHN, N. B., AUGUST 25, 1900.

WHEN THE END WILL BE.

The people of Canada are speculating over the date of the Dominion elections. It is not yet certain that the government will appeal to the country this year or before another session is held.

The election, which was to have been held last year, was postponed because the government was smitten with a mighty and justifiable fear.

So far as can be seen, the people of Canada are not in the least excited over the coming election. It may not be a sensational campaign.

It may be claimed that the people of Canada voted for liberal rule. This is open to question, but it is certain that they never bargained for Tarte rule, or Blair rule.

There is no panic. There are no hysterics over the matter. But there is a certain calm and quiet determination which is more dangerous than an agitation.

We hear stories that Mr. Tarte must retire from this government. We give them such currency as they seem to deserve, but Mr. Tarte is not likely to go until they all go.

After Mr. Blair had made his contract with the company, the Grand Trunk president addressed a meeting of the shareholders, telling them that the bargain was a splendid one.

It is not surprising that the Grand Trunk is prosperous and that the minister of railways is obliged to charge maintenance expenses to capital in order to make both ends meet.

A REPORT FROM QUEBEC.

The Halifax Chronicle, whose devotion to the government is pathetically strong, has a three column review of the political situation in the province of Quebec. Of the 65 seats in Quebec the government now holds 51.

Now let us see what the correspondent has to say about the seats held by supporters of the government. Argenteuil is reported to be safe for the government if Dr. Christie again offers. But Dr. Christie is old and infirm and is retiring.

correspondent says, "lately redeemed had been a conservative constituency and may possibly go back to its political allegiance." Then Berthier is reported "doubtful," though it was carried for Laurier by acclamation in 1896.

"If Mr. Scriver again runs in Huntington that constituency is sure liberal." But Mr. Scriver is physically almost paralyzed, and he has positively announced his withdrawal from politics.

The Chronicle appears to think that this is, taking it altogether, an encouraging report from the government standpoint. Coming from the enemy it would afford some hope to the liberal conservatives.

A two column leader in the chief government organ at Toronto furnishes a striking and timely eulogy of the Grand Trunk railway. No doubt this important line is enjoying great good fortune and a growing time.

Some of the Blair organs in this province charge that the New Brunswick conservatives have not been in the habit of giving young men a choice in public life.

The discovery of the correspondence of Mr. Labouchere, M. P., with the Transvaal government on the eve of war will probably make it necessary for him to give up public life.

Mr. Charles Tupper has set at rest the rumors which make him a candidate in Cumberland, Kingston, and other constituencies.

The Transcript has promised Sir Wilfrid Laurier all the seats between St. John and Restigouche. Mr. Hawke has always been strong on promises of this sort.

THE MERITS OF THE EMERGENCY FOOD.

Mr. Tarte's Patrie is exultant because Colonel Surgeon Ryerson of the military hospital service, who has recently returned from Africa, says that he never heard a word there about Dr. Devlin's Emergency Rations.

MONTREAL, Aug. 23.—Advises received in Montreal today from New York say that the projected Cape Breton railway, of which Robert J. Campbell of this city, is president, will construct a line from Hawkesbury across the Strait of Canso to Louisbourg.

MR. GANONG.

While the renomination of Mr. Ganong by the liberal conservatives of Charlotte county was a foregone conclusion, it must be no small gratification to him and his friends to find the party so unanimous and enthusiastic.

Mr. Ganong has no cause for disappointment. He has taken and held a good place in parliament. He is a capital business man, with clear views on the business questions which constitute the chief issues to be discussed in the house and its committees.

The change of government, now believed to be impending, will place Mr. Ganong in a better position to serve the county of Charlotte, and especially the islands and coast districts.

Mass Liberal Conservative Meeting at Hampton, Thursday Night.

Speeches by Hon. Geo. E. Foster, H. A. Powell, M. P. and J. D. Hazen, M. P. P.

A Large Attendance and Much Enthusiasm—The Speakers Given a Splendid Hearing—Curling Rink Tastefully Decorated for the Occasion.

The public meeting held in the curling rink at Hampton Thursday evening under the auspices of the Liberal Conservative Association of the shire-town of Kings was one of the largest and most enthusiastic gatherings in the history of the place.

At 8 o'clock Fred M. Sproul called the meeting to order. On the platform were Hon. Geo. E. Foster, M. P. for York; Senator Wood, H. A. Powell, M. P. for Westmorland; J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., the leader of the local opposition; Councilor Flewelling, Capt. Brittain, Abram Colpitts, Neil Bonney, Sandall Lamb and several other gentlemen.

Mr. Sproul in his opening remarks said the attendance was creditable to the place. It showed that the people appreciated the gentlemen who had come to such a large gathering.

H. A. POWELL, M. P. was the first speaker. He was glad to see that Hampton had a political club. In the history of England and of the world clubs had played an important part.

Mr. Hazen, Mr. Powell, Dr. Wood, Mr. Flewelling, Mr. Gaudet, Mr. Bonney, Mr. Colpitts, Mr. Lamb, Mr. Brittain, Mr. Haddow, Mr. Le Blanc, Colonel Domville and Hon. Peter Mitchell, the candidates on the other side.

The Transcript has promised Sir Wilfrid Laurier all the seats between St. John and Restigouche. Mr. Hawke has always been strong on promises of this sort.

and paid another concern 42-10 cents for an inferior article. Mr. Blair denied in committee that he made the contract with the American concern, but he (Powell) was able to produce a copy of the contract. The same concern agreed to furnish lubricating oil at a price which would guarantee a saving of 10 per cent. as compared with the cost under the old government. This had not been done. The cost had been greater under Mr. Blair's management and the Lockington concern had in their coffers $28,000 belonging to the people of Canada.

In introducing Mr. Hazen the chairman spoke of him as one to whom the people of the province looked to guide them out of the troubled waters they were in and give them a good government.

Mr. Hazen, M. P. P., was warmly received. He said it was pleasing and gratifying to those who were taking an interest in the affairs of the liberal conservative party to see such a large gathering.

Mr. Hazen then pointed to the genesis of government. Of late there had been an uprising against them such as had never been known in the history of the country.

the affairs of the province. Mr. Hazen referred to the increase made in the debt of the province by the present government and the big amounts paid out for travelling expenses of the ministers. Last session $20,000 was voted for the consolidation of the statutes simply to get Mr. White to give up the office of attorney general to Mr. Emmerson so that the latter might more easily step up to the bench. Who asked for the consolidation of the statutes? Lawyers did not. Mr. Blair a few years ago said it was not necessary to make any such expenditure. The money should be spent upon the roads and bridges, and in the purchase of school books for the children.

The bridge investigation was discussed by Mr. Hazen at considerable length, and he was loudly applauded as he showed up the way the people's money had been wasted by the present government. No member of the government and no officer could tell what the bridges cost. The accounts were never audited.

HON. MR. FOSTER followed with a splendid speech. In opening he read a telegram from St. Stephen announcing the selection of G. W. Ganong, a Kings county boy, as the liberal conservative standard bearer in Charlotte county (Applause). He pointed out that the government had decided twice already when to bring the elections on, but they could not muster up sufficient courage to face the people. It was now believed that they would be held in October.

Mr. Foster here referred to some of the charges which had occurred of late years in Kings county. He appreciated very much the hearty support Hampton always gave him. Many old faces which he used to see at political meetings there had passed away. Younger ones were here in their places. Some of these young men were coming up to the exercise of citizenship for the first time.

Mr. Foster then pointed to the genesis of government. Of late there had been an uprising against them such as had never been known in the history of the country.
