

Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and scaly and disfigured with pimples or eruptions; sleep brings no rest and work is a burden.

What is the cause of all this?
Impure blood.
And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It clears out the channels through which poisons are carried from the body. When all impurities are removed from the blood nature takes right hold and completes the cure.

If there is constipation, take Ayer's Pills. They awaken the drowsy action of the liver; they cure biliousness.

Letter From Mr. E. N. C. Barnes.

I want to say a few words through the MESSENGER AND VISITOR, in acknowledgement of my indebtedness to the kind people of Cardigan, while supplying the Baptist church there this past summer, and to the brethren of the Baptist body of New Brunswick who so kindly welcomed me to their midst. After four years of absence from my native province, the past summer within its borders was very pleasant to me. I appreciate the action of the Board in granting some help to Cardigan. I wish to assure them they never bestowed it on a more worthy object. While some miles away, yet Mrs. Barnes and I feel quite near to N. B. Baptists, as the MESSENGER AND VISITOR comes every week as a welcome guest to our board.

We view with peculiar interest and gladness, the fraternal spirit between the two Baptist bodies and the press organs representing them, and say with all our hearts, "God speed the time when these two branches of Christ's church, so essentially one in many ways, may indeed become one in all senses of the term," and the Baptists of N. B. can claim with renewed assurance to be the largest Protestant body in the province.

We note with regret that we are to lose our brother, Rev. J. H. Parshley, from this State, where he has done good service and leaves a brilliant record behind. But what is Massachusetts' and Lawrence's loss will be New Brunswick and Moncton's gain.

The three great vital factors of this body of ours are the heart, the nerves and the blood. It is because of the triple power possessed by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills of making weak, irregular beating hearts strong and steady, toning up run down, shattered, nervous systems and supplying those elements necessary to make thin, watery blood rich and red, that so many wonderful cures have been accredited to this remedy.

Here is the case of Mrs. B. J. Arnold, Woodstock, N.B., who says:

"I was troubled for some time with nervous prostration and general weakness, feeling irritable, debilitated and sleepless nearly all the time. My entire system became run down. As soon as I began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I realised that they had a calming, soothing influence upon the nerves. Every dose seemed to help the cure. They restored my sleep, strengthened my nerves and gave tone to my entire system. I think them wonderful."
