

119 PLACES WHERE YOU CAN BUY The Standard

That there is no place for yesterday's news in today's paper, is the policy of St. John's newest daily. It is the policy that has already placed THE STANDARD in the first ranks, and it is destined for a circulation second to none in the Maritime Provinces. THE STANDARD intends to cooperate with its advertisers in building up their business. The following list will give some idea of our city circulation:

BOY SHOTS LITTLE GIRL.

"Watch Me Kill Her," Was His Alleged Threat—Mother Witness of Tragedy.

Burlington, N. J., July 21.—Before the eyes of her mother, little Frances Lord, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lord, was shot by ten-year-old Joseph Kane, who, despite his youthful years, the authorities declare, has already achieved an extended record for juvenile crimes. Mrs. Lord is prostrated today, but according to her story, she saw Kane raise a gun, point it at her daughter, who tried to run, and the next instant a blinding flash from the muzzle of the old weapon marked the speeding of the fatal lead. Mrs. Lord's screams brought her husband from the garden and he carried the wounded child to her home. Half an hour after she died in her father's arms. Thomas Ocas, a 11-year-old Polish boy, tonight told the police an unflattering story of the tragedy.

TWO MYSTERIOUS ROBBERS PAY VISIT TO CENTREVILLE

Believed To Be Same Men That Operated at Weymouth—News of Annapolis Royal, Bridgetown and Other Points in Nova Scotia—Two Deaths from Appendicitis.

Annapolis Royal, July 21.—News has been received here from Mink Cove of a burglary which seems to have some connection with the mysterious horse thieves who recently operated at Weymouth. On Friday morning last two roughly-clad strangers were seen on the road between the Cove and Centreville and that night the stores of A. M. Gidder, of Mink Cove and A. M. Boutiller & Co., of Centreville were broken into. At the former place nothing was missing and at the latter while in the act of entering, the burglars were frightened and fled. On Sunday morning a strange boat was found moored on the beach at Mink Cove which the burglars are supposed to have taken from across the bay. It was a fishing boat, and contained a quantity of clams. Up to the present no one has appeared to claim the boat. The citizens believe that the burglars are the same band who last week left the stolen booty at Weymouth and mysteriously disappeared.

Deaths From Appendicitis

The community was shocked Monday morning to learn of the sudden death of Harry Armstrong, the four-year-old son of Dr. M. E. Armstrong, of Bridgetown. The boy had previously complained slightly, but this morning he was taken to bed. A little later in the day he began to develop startling symptoms, and Dr. Spangole, of Middleton, and Dr. Blois were called in. They are supposed the trouble to be appendicitis, but it is thought that his condition did not favor an operation. Early Monday morning he died. A post-mortem examination showed that the diagnosis of the medical men was correct.

The boy was about to take up eleventh grade work in the schools, and was a very clever at his studies. Friends and acquaintances of Miss Eva Murray were shocked to hear of her death which occurred at the Truro General Hospital, at an early hour last Sunday morning. Miss Murray had been threatened with appendicitis, but had shown symptoms that gave rise to grave fears that an operation would be necessary, but she had improved from time to time and was in health until Sunday night when she became seriously ill and was removed to the hospital. Her medical adviser considered that an operation was necessary, and it was performed on the following Tuesday evening. There was every hope that her life would be spared, but on Thursday night serious complications set in and she died on Sunday last.

Miss Murray for many years made her home in Truro and was beloved by all who knew her. Her death will be regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. D. S. McDonald.

Personal Mention.

Miss Blois Freeman, of Brookline, Mass., Andrew Morris, of Weymouth, and Miss Gladys Harris and Cyril Harris, of San Antonio, Texas, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Owen. Mr. and Mrs. Harris formerly resided in Weymouth, where their father, the Rev. George Harris, M. A., was for many years rector. This is their first trip north since their removal to Texas five years ago and they are being welcomed back by their many friends.

Miss McLaughlin, of Lunenburg, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Henry De Blois.

Miss Lottie Perkins, who has been spending several weeks in Lunenburg and Lunenburg, returned home this week.

The Misses Redmond, of Boston, have arrived in Annapolis and will spend the remainder of the summer here. The Misses Redmond are annual visitors to this town, having spent the last twelve summers here.

Miss Laura Owen, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Horsfall, left on Monday for South Nelson, N. B., where she will spend several weeks with her mother, Mrs. William Horsfall, before returning to New York.

Miss Jennie Masters, of Windsor, arrived home last week. Yesterday she left for Goat Island in the Annapolis River where she will spend several weeks in camp, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weatherston.

Miss Rita Malcolm, of Boston, accompanied by her two little sisters, arrived on Saturday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram McKay. Miss Malcolm lived in Annapolis until a few years ago and her many friends here will be glad to know that she intends making a long visit to her old home.

EARLY CLOSING IN MONTREAL.

Retail Clerks Celebrate The Event—Supreme Court Decides City By-Laws Legal After Long Fight—Opponents Will Appeal To Privy Council.

Special to The Standard.

Montreal July 22.—The retail clerks' association here are celebrating the putting into force of the early closing by-law, passed four years ago by the council, with a drive which was honored by the presence of a number of the aldermen, and in which about 150 teams participated.

The by-law closes all places of business, with the exception of drug stores, tobacconists and confectionary establishments at seven o'clock with the exception of Saturday. For the last four years it has been in the courts. The superior court of Kings Bench decided against the by-law on the ground that it was an unjust discrimination, but the supreme court a month ago declared the by-law legal, and it is being generally observed.

The opponents of the measure have not abandoned the fight yet and are going to the Privy Council just as soon as the necessary funds can be raised. The amount has now been nearly subscribed.

CHARGED WITH PROFANITY.

"Sandy" Ferguson Appears in Chelsea Police Court.

(Boston Globe.)

John A. Ferguson, otherwise known as "Sandy" Ferguson, the heavy-weight pugilist, pleaded not guilty in the Chelsea police court yesterday to a charge of using profane language and his case was continued until next Monday.

Ferguson was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Mary Payne, who alleged that while at Revere, July 5, he used profanity to her. He was arrested on a warrant.

THE FISHERIES DISPUTE. Controversy Likely To Be Settled Before The 1910 Season Opens.

(Boston Transcript.)

Entirely satisfactory progress is being made by counsel for the United States for the great legal battle which will be fought in May next before the Hague Tribunal to determine the status of American fishermen in Newfoundland waters.

Under P. Anderson, who has immediate charge of the matter in hand, has been working diligently for several months with the result that before Oct. 4 next, the Great Britain, this Government will be ready to submit its case with full confidence of an ultimate decision in its favor.

One of the general questions involved is whether colonial or state laws shall be permitted to interfere with the terms of a treaty. The Newfoundland Government has insisted from the first that their laws and interests must be paramount to any treaty agreement between the Mother Country and the United States, and holding to this view, they have passed laws and promulgated regulations which have seriously interfered with American fishermen in securing bait and supplies, and have embarrassed them in many other ways with the view, it is believed, of discouraging them from fishing in their waters.

The agreement between the United States and Great Britain to arbitrate the questions in controversy provides that both cases shall be submitted to the International Bureau at The Hague, not later than Oct. 4, next. It is expected that by May 4 next the arbitrators will meet at The Hague for a final hearing and determination of the whole question. It is not unlikely that additional time may be granted should either party request it. In any event, it is expected that the long-drawn out controversy will be definitely settled in time for next year's fishing season.

The arbitrators as agreed upon are the following members of the permanent court at The Hague:—Dr. Heinrich Lammasch of Austria, umpire, who will act as president of the tribunal; His Excellency Luis M. Drago of the Argentine Republic; Johkheer A. F. de Savornin Lehman of the Netherlands; Hon. George Gray of Ireland, judge of the United States Circuit Court; Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, chief justice of the Supreme Court of the Dominion of Canada.

FUNERAL OF D. J. McLAUGHLIN. Large Body of Citizens Attended Last Night Yesterday Afternoon—Resolutions Passed By Board of Trade And Fernhill Directors.

The funeral of Mr. D. J. McLaughlin was held from his late home, 105 Leinster street yesterday afternoon at 2:30. Services were conducted by Rev. H. D. Marr, in the absence of Rev. Dr. Flinders, pastor of Centenary Church. Members of the choir of Centenary rendered the hymn "Asleep in Jesus" and Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar." The cortege was a lengthy one. The directors of the Fernhill and members of the board of trade walked in a body.

The board of trade at a meeting earlier in the afternoon adopted the following resolution:—Resolved that the members of the St. John Board of Trade take this opportunity to record their deep sorrow and sincere regret at the sudden removal, by death, of the late D. J. McLaughlin for a great many years a director of the Fernhill Cemetery Company.

"Therefore Resolved, that the directors of the Fernhill Cemetery, in meeting assembled, desire to place on record their great loss they have sustained by his removal. His invaluable services as a director, his clear and calm judgment and wise counsel, will ever be remembered with the warmest and most affectionate feeling by the Board."

"And Further Resolved, that this Board extend to Mrs. McLaughlin and the members of her family their sympathy with them in their great bereavement and that a copy of this resolution be sent to her."
