

KING GEORGE OF GREECE MURDERED YESTERDAY

MR. CARVELL APPEARS IN RIDICULOUS LIGHT IS SHOT THROUGH HEART IN STREET OF SALONIKI CROWN LUMBER LANDS BILL PASSES HOUSE

Carleton County Member Attacks St. John Ambulance Association.

CHEAP GALLERY PLAY IN VERY POOR TASTE

"Dark Lantern" Brigader Intimates Government Desires to Curry Favor at Rideau Hall by Grant of $2,500 to Worthy Association.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, March 18.—It remained for F. B. Carvell, representing Carleton County, N. B., and known in the days of the Liberal rule as a leading member of the "dark lantern brigade," to make himself rather more than ordinarily ridiculous today when he vigorously opposed a grant to the Canadian branch of the St. John Ambulance Association, in the course of his remarks, intimated that the grant was given because the name of the Duke of Connaught appeared as patron of the association and several officials of Government House were on the disbursement.

Mr. Carvell's attitude was particularly in bad taste and that this was recognized even by the members on the opposition side of the house was shown by the fact that for the most part his remarks were received with stony silence.

The grant of $2,500 was passed, but in the discussion considerable animosity was shown by the opposition against the association.

Mr. Lemieux raised the question whether the institution could be classed as a charity and if so as falling under provincial jurisdiction.

Mr. Borden said it was similar to the society for the prevention of tuberculosis. It did work in all the provinces and for general departments. Incidentally he remarked that the amount would save the militia equipment about $20,000 a year in its medical service.

Mr. Carvell dilated the principle of the grant. The society was not half as much good work as the Salvation Army. He intimated that it was getting its grant because the Duke of Connaught was patron and the Duke of Government House officials were on the board.

Col. Hughes said that the society was not a charitable undertaking. It was akin to the Red Cross Society, which, however, gave no training as the St. John Ambulance Association did.

Mr. Carvell insisted that it was because of the names at the head that the association got its grant.

"Yes, too tony," said Mr. Carvell. Mr. Borden pointed out that most of the expenses were met by private subscription. The grant was to coordinate the various activities. As for the constitutional point it was a matter of the public health of the country.

There are a great many respectable people about Ottawa," said Mr. Murphy, "who have little else to do than to promote well dressed raids on the government."

He wanted to have the matter committed to a department of public health.

Mr. Borden said that it was desirable to have private beneficence interested in the work.

Mr. Emmerson wanted to know if any request had been made for aid to the Boy Scouts.

Col. Hughes said that the Boy Scout organization was not under the control of the government, as the cadet movement was. The grant was then passed.

BODY OF P. S. ARCHIBALD TAKEN TO ANTIGONISH

Moncton, March 18.—The body of the late P. S. Archibald, C. E., who died on Sunday, was this afternoon taken in Mr. Foutlinger's private car to Antigonish, N. S., where interment will take place.

Previous to the removal of the body a large number of railway men and citizens gathered at the family residence, where an impressive service was conducted by the Rev. D. MacOdrum of St. John's, Presbyterian church, with which Mr. Archibald was connected. Rev. Mr. MacOdrum in the course of his address referred to the many excellent qualities of the deceased.

The pallbearers from the house to the railway station were Messrs. David Foutlinger, J. W. T. Smith, J. B. Green, St. John, J. B. Bruce, L. B. Archibald, Truro, and B. W. Simpson. Mr. Foutlinger and Sheriff Willett accompanied members of the family to Antigonish.

IS RESISTING ALL EFFORTS TO FEED HER

Sylvia Pankhurst Confined in Holloway Prison Tells of Hunger Strike — Using Stomach Tube.

London, March 18.—The militant suffragette union today issued the contents of a letter received by Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst from her daughter, Sylvia, now in Holloway Prison. It was in the following terms:

"Dear Mother—
"I am fighting, fighting, fighting. I have four, five or six wardresses every day, as well as two doctors. I am fed through the stomach pump twice a day. They pry open my mouth with a steel gag, pressing in where there is a gap in my teeth. I resist all the time. My gums are always bleeding.
"I am afraid they may be saying that we do not resist, yet my shoulders are bruised by the struggling while they hold the tube in my throat. I used to feel that and that I should go mad at first, and be pretty near to it as I think I feared, but I have got over that and my digestion is the thing most likely to suffer now."
(Sgd.) "SYLVIA."

SCUTARI IS IN FLAMES

Montenegrins Straining Every Effort to Capture Fortress — End Expected in Few Days—Return Fire Faint.

London, March 18.—A Podgoritz dispatch says that every effort is being made for the capture of Scutari before peace is concluded. Serbian reinforcements are arriving and the garrison is believed to be short of ammunition, as their return fire during the cannonading has been weak.

A Vienna despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says that the bombardment of Scutari is proceeding, and that the Austrian Consulate has been partly destroyed, as well as an Italian convent, in which one nun was killed. The Catholic population has taken shelter in the cathedral and the town is burning.

This morning's newspapers caused great excitement in Austrian official circles. According to a Cologne despatch the Montenegrins have sent an officer under a white flag to inform the Turkish commander of Scutari that the foreign consuls and their nationals may leave the town.

PATIENTS ARE IMPROVING

Marked Change for Better of Tuberculosis Sufferers Who Were Treated by Dr. Friedmann—Will continue Work.

New York, N. Y., March 18.—Marked improvement in the cases of the patients whom he inoculated with his anti-tuberculosis serum in a physician's office here about ten days ago, was noted by Dr. F. F. Friedmann, when he examined the patients this afternoon.

According to Dr. Friedmann and his assistants tonight sixteen of the seven patients inoculated appeared for the examination. The tuberculosis joints treated were examined and the results were compared with those made before the treatment and tests were applied in the other cases.

Dr. Friedmann announced that he would treat patients tomorrow at Mount Sinai Hospital, and Thursday at the Hospital for Infirmitates and Joint Diseases.

Grecian Sovereign Dead at Hand of Assassin

WORLD STARTLED BY NEWS OF TRAGEDY

Queen Mother Alexandra, of Great Britain, Sister of Ill Fated Monarch—Murderer Proves Demented Greek — Is Arrested.

Saloniki, March 18.—King George of Greece was assassinated while walking in the streets of Saloniki this afternoon. The assassin was a Greek of low mental type, who gave his name as Aliko Schines. He shot the king through the heart.

The king was accompanied only by an aide de camp, Lieut. Col. Franzclous. The assassin came suddenly at him and fired one shot from a seven-chamber revolver.

The king fell into the arms of his aide when shot. Two soldiers ran up to him and he was taken to the hospital.

The British Foreign Office, Marlborough House, where the Queen Mother Alexandra, sister of the late King, is residing, and the Greek legation were besieged by reporters, but no one at these places had any information, except the newspaper butlers, until nearly ten o'clock.

The King and Queen of England are stopping at Windsor Castle, and the first official confirmation of the death of the king was given by a despatch from Prince Nicolas at Saloniki, and was transmitted to Windsor and to Marlborough House, and then given to the public.

The Greek administrator at Saloniki, announced that King George had been shot, and had died in half an hour. Another telegram, reporting the death of the king, was received from the Greek administrator at Saloniki.

Great Sympathy. The greatest sympathy is felt for Queen Mother Alexandra. King George of Greece was her favorite brother. She only recently suffered another, although less tragic blow, in the death of her brother, King Frederick of Denmark. The Princess Victoria broke the news to her, and because of the uncertainty she was able to hope that the report was not true. But it was soon confirmed by an official despatch.

Queen Alexandra is said to be prostrated, and King George and Queen Mary will come from Windsor tomorrow morning to give her what consolation they can. Even if the King of Greece's close relationship with the British Royal Family did not exist, the circumstances of the death would debar the court for a time from social functions.

It is said that court mourning will be announced for three months, and that all official engagements, except the most necessary, will be cancelled. King George had a particular fondness for a good dinner and a game of cards and was known to all the foremost restaurateurs in the continental capitals and watering places.

At a meeting of Moslems and Turkish sympathizers here tonight, the announcement of the assassination was greeted with cries of "shame," although there were good reasons for the Queen Mother Alexandra in her bitter loss.

The Greek legation had received the official word of the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.

WHAT URBAN RAILWAY COMPANY HOPES TO DO

J. R. Graham, American Capitalist, Interested in Providing Street Car Service to Suburbs of St. John, Tells of Developments if Charter is Secured.

H. W. Cushman, J. R. Graham, J. M. Robinson, H. P. Robinson, D. King Hazen and P. W. Thompson went to Fredericton last evening to appear before the corporations committee of the legislature this morning in support of the bill to permit the St. John Suburban Railway Company to build street car lines in the counties of St. John and Kings.

"The situation is just this," said Mr. Graham in discussing the matter before a Standard reporter yesterday. "If we get the charter we want we will commence the construction of the railway at once, and will have at least $50,000 worth of lines laid this season. Give us the charter and our engineers will be on the ground as soon as we can get them here and can be sure you will not hold the work up or delay it."

"There has been an impression that we want this charter to use as a club with which to bring the St. John Railway Company to terms; that is not true. While we would of course like to purchase the street railway now in existence, we are in the business to build our lines independently of them. We will not injure the St. John Street Railway, on the contrary, we will benefit them. After we have laid several miles into the city the St. John Railway Company will get the message and they will get it without building new roads."

St. John Needs Mechanics. "St. John needs street railway lines to its suburbs, and that is what we are prepared to give and at once. Making the suburbs easier of access will do more to develop the city than any other step which could be taken. It will also do much to help in the solution of the housing problem."

Greek and Bulgarian contingents at Saloniki gave grounds for the fears that the assassination of King George might have resulted in a clash between the allies. A message received at midnight dispelled such apprehensions, but the assassin was a Greek degenerate. Another despatch referred to him as demented.

Queen Mother is Sister. The British Foreign Office, Marlborough House, where the Queen Mother Alexandra, sister of the late King, is residing, and the Greek legation were besieged by reporters, but no one at these places had any information, except the newspaper butlers, until nearly ten o'clock.

The King and Queen of England are stopping at Windsor Castle, and the first official confirmation of the death of the king was given by a despatch from Prince Nicolas at Saloniki, and was transmitted to Windsor and to Marlborough House, and then given to the public.

The Greek administrator at Saloniki, announced that King George had been shot, and had died in half an hour. Another telegram, reporting the death of the king, was received from the Greek administrator at Saloniki.

Great Sympathy. The greatest sympathy is felt for Queen Mother Alexandra. King George of Greece was her favorite brother. She only recently suffered another, although less tragic blow, in the death of her brother, King Frederick of Denmark. The Princess Victoria broke the news to her, and because of the uncertainty she was able to hope that the report was not true. But it was soon confirmed by an official despatch.

Queen Alexandra is said to be prostrated, and King George and Queen Mary will come from Windsor tomorrow morning to give her what consolation they can. Even if the King of Greece's close relationship with the British Royal Family did not exist, the circumstances of the death would debar the court for a time from social functions.

It is said that court mourning will be announced for three months, and that all official engagements, except the most necessary, will be cancelled. King George had a particular fondness for a good dinner and a game of cards and was known to all the foremost restaurateurs in the continental capitals and watering places.

At a meeting of Moslems and Turkish sympathizers here tonight, the announcement of the assassination was greeted with cries of "shame," although there were good reasons for the Queen Mother Alexandra in her bitter loss.

The Greek legation had received the official word of the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.

OPPOSITION REALIZE THE GAME IS UP

Date for Final Passage of Naval Aid Bill May Be Fixed Today—Supply Considered Yesterday.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, March 18.—While the house was passing supply today there was an appearance of "things doing" outside of the chamber. The opposition is at the parting of the ways on the naval issue. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has been holding a series of conferences with small groups of his followers all day. The result has not been made known, but there is a strong feeling of wavering and that a date for the final passage of the Naval Aid Bill may be fixed tomorrow. In that event it is probable that the government will give notice of the closure resolution for the present.

The government intends to have the naval aid bill, enacted into law and there is not going to be any compromise. The absolute facility of attempting to force a dissolution is now recognized by opposition members. That being so, there is nothing to be gained by continued obstruction. It is probable that wiser counsels will prevail in the Liberal party and opposition to the naval bill from now on will be of a somewhat formal kind. That this is likely is borne out by the demeanor of two of the leading obstructionists in the house tonight, Messrs. Pugsley and Lemieux. They were ready to snap at their own shadows.

Tomorrow the banking and commerce committee will go back to the ground after an interruption of two weeks and a half.

Today was largely spent in supply. Consideration of a vote of $1,000,000 amount required to pay allowances and expenses of the commission appointed for the purpose of reporting on the pilotage system below Quebec, led to criticisms of the government by the opposition in regard to dismissals.

Mr. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, in answer to comments by Mr. Pugsley, admitted that he found it necessary to have an advisory committee on pilotage, but he said the appointments made were always subject to approval by his own department and nominations were not necessarily accepted.

He stated in answer to a question from Mr. Pugsley that one of the members of that committee was also a member of a company which was carrying on dredging operations. He made it clear that the person in question had become a member of the committee after the inspectors had been appointed.

This discussion led to a sudden and extraordinary outburst on the part of Mr. Pugsley and Mr. Lemieux. The chairman, Mr. Middlebro, suggested that discussion of dredging in St. John was hardly in order on a vote about pilotage in the St. Lawrence, and Mr. Pugsley suddenly lost his temper, declared that he would appeal from the ruling and shouted that free speech was denied. Mr. Lemieux followed by a tirade against temporary chairmen of committees. Why, he shouted, at the top of his voice, was Mr. Blonnie, the deputy chairman, not in his place. The country paid him to be there. Instead he was in his room making up affidavits on behalf of Mr. Cotter. Here Mr. Lemieux became so loud that it was difficult to hear exactly what he was saying.

A few quiet remarks by Mr. Hazen brought the little tempest to a sudden end. Mr. Pugsley saying that the opposition was touchy over the rulings of temporary chairmen.

Later a second little outburst came. Mr. White happened to remark that Mr. Pugsley had been very cross on Saturday night. Mr. Pugsley, with a good deal of vehemence, said that he had not been cross, but angry. He had been convinced that Mr. Robitoux had deliberately ignored Dr. Neely.

On the orders of the day Mr. Emmerson made a motion to adjourn to discuss the rules of the House, with regard to the right of the speaker to take the chair during a disturbance in committee of the whole.

Mr. Speaker said that this was not of sufficiently urgent importance to justify a motion of adjournment. Notice of such a motion should be given and Mr. Emmerson thus was out of order.

Mr. Emmerson then brought the subject up as a matter of privilege. The speaker held that this was an evasion of the ruling he had just given.

Mr. Emmerson said his only object was to ascertain the rights of a member. He was called to order and Mr. Borden suggested that he follow the proper course.

After some further discussion the matter dropped.

In the course of the evening Mr. White gave some information with regard to the expenditure for 1912-13. The supplementary estimates, he said, would bring total appropriations for the year up to about $174,000,000. About 10 per cent of the appropriations would not be spent, and the total spending for the year would prove to be $153,000,000 or $154,000,000. Mr. Cochrane said that the surplus on the I. C. R. this year will be about a million dollars.

Premier Flemming Congratulated for Able Legislation

Views of All Parties Are Reasonably Met

Government will Assist Projected Paper Plant in Bathurst — Land Transferred to Established Military Training Grounds.

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, March 18.—The legislature this afternoon passed Premier Fleming's bill respecting the crown timber lands of the province.

There was an interesting discussion on the bill, the Premier coming in for much congratulation on the eminent way in which the views of the large operator, the small operator and the interests of the Province of New Brunswick generally had been met. Great development in the manufacture of pulp and paper in the province is expected from the passage of the bill and the Premier this afternoon gave the assurance to his supporters from Gloucester county that the government would do everything possible to bring about the establishment of the projected paper plant at Bathurst.

Important legislation was introduced in the house, bills being presented in regard to the transfer of crown lands near McGivney to the department of militia and defense for the establishment of a military training ground for the militia of the Maritime Provinces.

Hon. Mr. McLeod introduced a bill to provide for the purchase of Esopus, which has been acquired by the government for the department of agriculture, and also to make provision for the payment of $35,000, the estimated cost for the annex and improvements at the provincial normal school building in this city.

Continued on page two.

U.N.D. DEBATERS ARE DEFEATED

St. Francis Xavier Accorded Unanimous Decision by Three Judges — Hundreds Hear Clever Addresses.

Special to The Standard. Antigonish, March 18.—St. Francis Xavier won the intercollegiate debate held here this evening over the U. N. B. an unanimous decision of three judges being accorded them. The subject for debate was as follows: "Resolved, that for the cities of Canada, a commission form of municipal government based on the Des Moines system is preferable to a mayor and council system."

The Celtic Hall, where the debate was held, was crowded when the chairman, Hon. E. L. Gerrier, took his seat and announced the subject for debate, the respective speakers on either side and the judges of debate.

The judges were Mr. Justice White, of Sussex, N. B.; Judge Patterson, New Glasgow, N. S.; and C. E. Tanner, M. L. A., Pictou, N. S. The representatives of the University of New Brunswick were A. N. Carter, Mr. E. C. Rice and R. H. Murray. The St. F. X. representatives were W. F. Chisholm, leader; J. D. Keane and A. L. MacDonald, the St. F. X. team supported the affirmative of the resolution, while U. N. B. argued for the negative.

Borden suggested that he follow the proper course.

After some further discussion the matter dropped.

In the course of the evening Mr. White gave some information with regard to the expenditure for 1912-13. The supplementary estimates, he said, would bring total appropriations for the year up to about $174,000,000. About 10 per cent of the appropriations would not be spent, and the total spending for the year would prove to be $153,000,000 or $154,000,000. Mr. Cochrane said that the surplus on the I. C. R. this year will be about a million dollars.

Mr. Emmerson then brought the subject up as a matter of privilege. The speaker held that this was an evasion of the ruling he had just given.

Mr. Emmerson said his only object was to ascertain the rights of a member. He was called to order and Mr. Borden suggested that he follow the proper course.

King George of Greece

King George of Greece was assassinated while walking in the streets of Saloniki this afternoon. The assassin was a Greek of low mental type, who gave his name as Aliko Schines. He shot the king through the heart.

The king was accompanied only by an aide de camp, Lieut. Col. Franzclous. The assassin came suddenly at him and fired one shot from a seven-chamber revolver.

The king fell into the arms of his aide when shot. Two soldiers ran up to him and he was taken to the hospital.

The British Foreign Office, Marlborough House, where the Queen Mother Alexandra, sister of the late King, is residing, and the Greek legation were besieged by reporters, but no one at these places had any information, except the newspaper butlers, until nearly ten o'clock.

The King and Queen of England are stopping at Windsor Castle, and the first official confirmation of the death of the king was given by a despatch from Prince Nicolas at Saloniki, and was transmitted to Windsor and to Marlborough House, and then given to the public.

The Greek administrator at Saloniki, announced that King George had been shot, and had died in half an hour. Another telegram, reporting the death of the king, was received from the Greek administrator at Saloniki.

Great Sympathy. The greatest sympathy is felt for Queen Mother Alexandra. King George of Greece was her favorite brother. She only recently suffered another, although less tragic blow, in the death of her brother, King Frederick of Denmark. The Princess Victoria broke the news to her, and because of the uncertainty she was able to hope that the report was not true. But it was soon confirmed by an official despatch.

Queen Alexandra is said to be prostrated, and King George and Queen Mary will come from Windsor tomorrow morning to give her what consolation they can. Even if the King of Greece's close relationship with the British Royal Family did not exist, the circumstances of the death would debar the court for a time from social functions.

It is said that court mourning will be announced for three months, and that all official engagements, except the most necessary, will be cancelled. King George had a particular fondness for a good dinner and a game of cards and was known to all the foremost restaurateurs in the continental capitals and watering places.

At a meeting of Moslems and Turkish sympathizers here tonight, the announcement of the assassination was greeted with cries of "shame," although there were good reasons for the Queen Mother Alexandra in her bitter loss.

The Greek legation had received the official word of the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.

The strained relations between the two nations were further strained by the death of the king.