

Social Notes of the Week

The truth of the poet's words "For oft some shining April day is dark in an hour" has been literally verified by the alterations of sunshine and rain during the past week. Notwithstanding the attendance at the various functions for Patriotic objects have been splendidly attended giving evidence of the wonderful generosity and large heartedness of our citizens who need only the slightest pretext for contributing to anything and everything, if only its object is to aid in upholding King and Empire.

The Royal Standard Chapter, I.O.D.E., met at a special meeting at the regent's, Mrs. E. A. Smith, on Thursday morning. Great preparations are going on for the soldiers' sock social to be held in the Knights of Columbus Hall on April 21st, from 2 to 10 o'clock at which everyone will be welcome who brings a pair of socks, as that will be the admission fee. The officers and members take this opportunity of inviting all who are interested in our soldier boys to come with a pair of socks or send to Miss Ethel Jarvis, 145 Duke street, socks which will be forwarded direct to the front for the field comfort of the Canadian soldiers.

A very pleasant event which will be of interest to many in St. John took place at the Congregational church, Calais, (Maine), April 5th, when Geo. H. Hughes of this city was united in marriage to Miss Ellen Field, Rev. R. A. McDonald officiating. The happy couple will make their home in St. John.

Mrs. C. B. Allan was at home at the tea hour on Monday in honor of her guest, Mrs. A. A. Bartlett, Charlotte, N.E.I. Mrs. Bartlett left on Friday for Hampton where she will be a guest for a few days of Miss Kate Bartlett before returning to her home.

One of the most enjoyable home dances given in St. John was that of Monday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. James Holly for their son Mr. James Holly, at their residence German street. Mrs. Holly received the guests in a very handsome gown of black and white nylon over satin. Mrs. Leslie Lovitt, who received with her hostess, wore a most becoming gown of pink crepe de chene. Jones' orchestra provided a programme of fourteen dances and with the fine hardwood floors in the large drawing rooms everything was perfection for the merry young party. Amongst the guests were Miss Marion Mafee, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Margaret Carvill, Miss Ellen Cushing, Miss Rosemond McAvity, Miss Nina Kaye, Miss Marion Moore, Miss Louise Lyle, Miss Murchie (St. Stephen), Miss Edith Miller, Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Dorothy Jack, Miss Lou Robinson, Miss Mary White, Miss Edith White, Miss Blanche Beattie, Miss Annie Armstrong, Miss Kathleen Coster, Miss Jean Foss, Miss Margaret Paterson, Miss Marjorie Fleming, Mr. Guy Merritt, Mr. James Kaye, Lieut. Mowatt, Mr. Lionel Teed, Mr. Darrell Peters, Mr. Lloyd Campbell, Mr. Laurence Scott, Mr. Victor Crooby, Mr. Ian MacLaren, Mr. Atwood Bridges, Mr. Payson, Mr. Paterson, Mr. Douglas White, Mr. McLellan, Mr. Turnbull, Captain Wickwire, Mr. Bayard Coster, Mr. Caldwell, Mr. Carliele, Mr. Mercier, Mr. Campbell Mackay, Mr. Joseph Bullock and others.

The concert given by the Harmony Male Glee Club on Wednesday evening was a very great treat and success. The part singing and chorus went with wonderful precision and showed great work under the direction of Mr. E. S. Peacock. The solos by the different gentlemen were all thoroughly enjoyed and were received with great applause as was the piano solo by Mr. H. C. Dunlop.

Mrs. Charles Tilton, Lancaster Heights, was the hostess at a very delightful tea on Tuesday afternoon of this week. The very enjoyable function was for Mrs. Murchie of Calais, who unfortunately was called home before the occasion on account of a family bereavement.

The tea and sale given by the Loyalist Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Tuesday afternoon at the Golf Club was largely attended and thoroughly enjoyed. Unfortunately the day was wet which kept many from attending. The rooms presented a very gay appearance, spring flowers being everywhere in evidence. The regent of the chapter, Mrs. Hugh Mackay, received the guests. The handsomely appointed tea table had for its decorations pink roses and was presided over by Mrs. P. W. Thomson and Mrs. William Vassie. Mrs. George McAvity Bizard was the convener of the refreshments. A very pretty candy table was in charge of Mrs. Church, Miss Jean White and Miss Marion Mafee. During the afternoon a basket of delicious sweets was raffled, the fortunate winner being Mrs. E. L. Rising. The large amount of seventy dollars was realized which will be donated to patriotic purposes. All the members helped at the tea and spared no pains to make their delightful tea the success it certainly was.

Mr. Frank Hatheway and Miss Miriam Hatheway, who have been on an extended trip to the West Indies, arrived home on Wednesday.

Miss Helen Godfrey, of Winnipeg, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Jack, left today for England to visit relatives of her fiancé, Mr. Roffrey of the Royal Engineer's staff.

Mrs. F. C. MacNeill and son, Freddie, arrived home on Monday from Boston. Freddie's many friends will be glad to hear that his operation while in that city was most successful and he will be able in a short while to be about again.

Through the generosity of Mr. Lawrence MacLaren (Liverpool, England) No. 1 General Hospital of the Canadian Expeditionary Force has been presented with the desired motor car. It is of greater interest knowing that Dr. Murray MacLaren (Colonel) is in command of this hospital. The Brunswick Chapter, I. O. D. E., will equip a new Brunswick ward in Dr. MacLaren's hospital in France. Donations can be sent to Mrs. Hetherington or to Mrs. J. H. Allingham, Fairville.

Mrs. Murchie, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, returned home, St. Stephen, on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George L. Wetmore left on Wednesday evening for their home in Sussex. Mr. and Mrs. Wetmore will be greatly missed by hosts of friends in St. John.

The afternoon tea given by the French Club at the home of Miss Edith Skinner on Wednesday afternoon was a very great success socially as well as financially. The proceeds which amounted to the handsome sum of one hundred and fifty dollars will be devoted to the Allies' hospital in France. Delightful music was rendered during the afternoon by Miss Marion Hogan and the Misses Lynch who have been so generous by playing graciously at patriotic functions. Mrs. Daniel Mullin took charge of the door and the ladies in the drawing room were Mrs. George Carvill, Mrs. Silas Alward, Mrs. Fred Foster, Miss Le Coque, Mrs. Pauline Winslow, Mrs. J. De Seely and Mrs. Hugh Mackay. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. John McAvity, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, and Mrs. A. W. Adams. Associating with the refreshments Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, Miss Grace Hatheway, Miss Kathleen Coster, Miss Kathleen Sturdee, Miss Emily Sturdee, Miss Madeline de Soyres, Miss Mary Harrison, Miss Skinner, Mrs. Rupert Rive, Mrs. Harold Payson, Miss deBury and Miss Alcock. The very handsome ladies' fitted bag was won by the ticket held by Mr. J. M. Robinson.

Mrs. Malcolm McAvity left on Thursday evening for Montreal to meet her husband, Brigadier Major McAvity.

A very successful sale and tea was held by twelve little girls on Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. W. K. McKean, 186 Douglas Avenue. The large amount $48.37 was realized and was donated to the Royal Standard Chapter I. O. D. E., to assist them in connection with the soldiers' sock day, April 21st. The following are the names of the little girls who deserve so much praise for the very pretty articles they made for their sale: Miss Amy McKean, Miss Kathleen McKean, Miss Allison McKean, Miss Helen McKean, Miss Olivia Gregory, Miss Nettie Pidgeon, Miss Edith Mitchell, Miss Helen McCready, Miss Constance Murray, Miss Pearl Prime, Miss Rita Dykeman and Miss Hortense Maher.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. McKean left on Thursday evening on a visit to Boston.

One could scarcely bring themselves to believe on Thursday and Friday evenings that they were listening to an amateur production of "Mrs. Dot," as given by the ladies and gentlemen under the auspices of De Monts Chapter, I. O. D. E. Every one in the cast was good and did their part remarkably well. The stage settings were most artistic and the Opera House was beautifully decorated with flags and the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire emblems were on either side of the building. The tableau was a very grand and reflected great credit on the originator.

A very large and fashionable audience was present each evening and without doubt De Monts Chapter will have a large amount to swell the fund for the excellent work they have undertaken.

Many friends in our city heard with sorrow of the death of Mr. John White McKean which occurred on Tuesday evening at his home, Richmond street. Mr. McKean had many staunch friends in St. John, his upright sterling character endeared him to all who had the pleasure to know him, he will be greatly missed. To his wife and son much sympathy is extended.

Miss Anna MacKeen, and Master Bobby MacKeen are spending the Easter holidays with Montreal friends.

So many fine entertainments had been arranged for charitable and patriotic purposes, in St. John this week, that a large number of our residents have been much in the city. Yesterday Mrs. Fred Foster assisted with the tea given by the members of the "Circle Francaise" held at the home of Miss Edith Skinner, and several other ladies attended. A large number were in the city last night for the Harmony Club's concert, in the Opera House, and on Tuesday others enjoyed the delightful sacred programme, provided by the combined choirs of the Methodist churches in Centenary Church. This was a splendid affair in every particular, not the least attractive feature being the perfect enunciation, both in solo and chorus work, adding greatly to the enjoyment.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, April 8.—Christ Church Parish Church was on Wednesday afternoon the scene of a quiet but very pretty wedding, when Miss Edna Lee Golding, only daughter of the late Israel R. Golding, and Mrs. Golding of this city, became the wife of Mr. John Albert Reid, vice-president of the Hart Boot and Shoe Company. In the absence of Rev. Canon Cowie, Rev. A. H. Greenwood, acting rector, performed the ceremony, which was witnessed by a large number of friends of the contracting parties. Only a few very close friends were guests. The church was effectively decorated with palms and narcissi, and on the altar and pulpit beautiful white flowers. During the ceremony the choir rendered appropriate music and as the bridal party left the church the wedding march was heard, played by Mrs. John Cameron, organist of the church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Erse Golding of Edmonton, Alta., looked extremely well in a suit of sand colored English cover cloth, with blouse of Georgette crepe, and small Gage hat of sand color; her bouquet was a lovely one of sunburst roses, tied with a wide satin ribbon. There were no attendants.

After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, St. John street, and a very dainty supper enjoyed. Miss Weddall, Miss Fenwick and Miss Grace Gibson assisted in serving. The toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. J. D. Palmer and Mr. Reid replied in a pleasing manner. Mr. and Mrs. Reid left on the five-fifty train on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, B. C., a large number of friends wishing them bon voyage at the depot.

The wedding gifts were numerous and very handsome and included presents from the directors and staff of the Hart Company and also from the City Council. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Reid will reside on University avenue. Mr. Erse Golding of Edmonton, Alta., is the guest of his mother for ten days.
