REPORTS AND DISASTERS.

Portland, Me., Jan. 17.—A wireless message was received here late yesterday from Commander Ridgely of the revenue steamer Woodbury, who left here a few days ago for the eastward, the vessel referred to being the British schooner R B Hardwick, of Annapolis, N. S., which is ashore on Glover's Rock, Small Point, with a short distance of the ledges where the steamer Monhegan narrowly escaped being pounded to pieces last week. The Hunnewell's Beach life saving crew are aboard. The message read: "Hardwick went ashore at 4 a. m. today. High and dry at low water. Slight probability of saving her. If
