

these designs in the promotion of their principles in the inculcation of this spirit, the Committee would earnestly call upon their brethren of the Local Committees and other Members of this Society, for earnest and diligent co-operation—they would appeal to them not to withhold their exertions in the formation of Local Committees in their respective parishes—nor to limit their contributions for the promotion of the great object of this Society; and they would humbly trust that by the blessing of their great Head, their efforts as assistants in the great work of the larger Societies, whose Patronage they gratefully acknowledge, may be effectual in extending the limits of the Redeemer's Kingdom, and in giving occasion to many souls to glorify the Lord that bought them.

HENRY PRYOR,

Assistant Secretary.

THE Hon'ble. Chief Justice HALLIBURTON then addressed the Chair, and moved that the Report be adopted by the Society, and printed under the direction of the General Committee—which being seconded by the Revd. Mr. Coster, with an amendment,—that a resolution of the General Committee, passed on the 24th of January, 1839, be embodied in the Report, which was unanimously passed,—

The Revd. Mr. OWEN then moved the second Resolution, after having first made some excellent and appropriate remarks connected therewith :—

“ That this Society entertains the liveliest hope of the favor and blessing of Almighty God upon the design they have in view of promoting his honor by spreading the knowledge of his name, and earnestly call upon those members and friends, their brethren of the local committees, and others, for diligent co-operation in effecting the objects of
