PORT MIDWAY.

Port Midway, Queens county, N. Port Midway, Queens county, N. S., Nov. 5-An American syndicate have been negotiating with E. D. Davison & Sons, of Bridgewater, to buy out their business, property and timber lands. This firm owns vast tracts of timber, both on the LaHave and the Medway rivers. On the Medway they have the lion's share. It is rumored that the syndicate have offered to buy out for $1,250,000, but Messrs. Davi-tor ask $1500.000 son ask $1,500,000. The hope on the Medway is that soon

Railway is still the one question of supreme interest, and becomes increasingly so as the weeks pass. It is quite evident that as to the trunk line not much will be done this year. Surveys and surveys have been had, very much like the action of the famous Duke of York, with his men.—

"He marched them up the hill,

The marched them up the har, Then marched them down again." The contractors, MacKenzie & Mann, seem anxious to have an inland route, one from five to 10 miles from the shore. The aid given was for a shore route, and
