Revolutionary Manifesto.

Panama, Colombia, Nov. 5—The revolutionary Junta last night published a manifesto addressed to the citizens of the Bepublic of Panama, saying that the inhabitants of the isthmus had done what was inevitable in view of a situation which was becoming graver daily. It was pointed out that notwithstanding the grievances inflicted upon the isthmians by their Colombian brothers, the former had suffered with resignation for the sake of harmony and the union in the hope of impony and the union in the union in the hope of impony and the union in t that the Isthmus of Panama netted Col-ombia large sums in customs duties, adding that while the Junta did not wish in this exposition of facts, which would be hand-ed down to posterity, to be regarded as being moved by a mercenary spirit, never-theless it was but just to point out that in spite of large sums of money collected from the isthmus for fiscal purposes the latter had not received the benefit of even a bridge over any of its givers, the con-struction of a single road between any of

He said: "Mr. Chamberlain's plan proposes to put a ring fence around Great Britain and then give a tariff preference to her colonies. We cannot be unmindful that this pelicy may have serious concern for us, but if we keep our rightful trade weapons in our hands we need not fear the issue.

There is another and vital consideration. British imperialism has its burdens. If Canada is to divorce herself in both a political and commercial sense from her own continent and bind herself with England she must pay the cost. She must contribute to fleets and armaments. She must accept the chances of Europe's conflicts. She must be prepared to face at-allowed. It is but a deduction of that doctrime that no European war shall be suffered to wage itself within the American realm. Herein lies the true safeguard of Canada in consulting and protecting her own independent interests, free from imperial restraints and burdens and it will be wise and well for her to understand and appreciate the broad american stand and appreciate the broad Ar spirit."
