

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

ROTHESAY

Rothsey, Aug. 8.-Mr. and Mrs. Horace King, of St. John, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bell Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Malcolm Mackay and sons and Mrs. Alice Forsyth enjoyed a few days trip up river on the yacht Dahinda, returning on Monday.

Mrs. Henry Gilbert gave a children's party on Thursday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her little son, Master Dick. The little folk had a delightful time and made a very pretty picture playing about the grounds in their dainty summer clothing. Miss Mariel Fairweather assisted in entertaining the young guests.

Mrs. West has recovered from a recent indisposition. Mr. James Donville, of Montreal, arrived on Saturday and spent Sunday with his family at the Kennedy House, returning home by Monday's C. P. R.

Mrs. and Miss Stewart, of St. John, are at Hillhurst Hotel. Mrs. Thomas Bell gave a very pleasant party on Friday afternoon at her charming new home, Mrs. C. O. of Savannah, sister of Mrs. Bell, assisted in receiving.

Mrs. D. A. Pugsley and Mrs. H. F. Pugsley presided at the tea table, which was very prettily decorated with yellow flowers and quantities of smilax.

Mrs. J. Caverhill Jones has returned after a successful fishing trip. Mr. and Mrs. John Seely and Miss Knowlton, who have been guests at Kennedy's, returned to St. John by yesterday's C. P. R.

Mr. Gordon McIntyre was a guest of Mr. Percy Page Sunday. Miss Close, of London, who came out by the steamer Tunisian, arrived at the Kennedy House on Saturday and drove to Nauyasigauk on Sunday. Miss Close, who was too ill to come, is slowly recovering but will not be able to visit Canada this summer, which is a great disappointment both to herself and her executive committee here.

Mrs. Andrew Blair is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Cameron. Last Saturday's tennis tea was in charge of Mrs. Robert Thomson, Miss Mabel Thomson and Mrs. J. Royden Thomson. Mrs. Elton, who has been at the Kennedy House for some weeks, left on Saturday for Boston.

Mrs. A. O. Skinner, Miss Skinner and Mrs. Percy W. Thomson were with Rothsey friends on Tuesday. Mrs. James Patterson and sister are at Fairleigh House.

Mr. Robert Brown, of Boston, and Mrs. Brown are guests at the Kennedy House. Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

Mrs. F. C. Jones entertained a few friends at afternoon tea on Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. George West, Mrs. Herbert Clinch, Misses Mabel Thomson, Sophie and Madge Robertson and Annie Brock and Mr. W. S. Allison attended the provincial tennis tournament at Sackville this week.

executive ability, submitted a programme for the visit of Earl Grey to the farm next week. She also gave a very interesting account of the meeting held at the Mansion House, London, in the interest of the emigration of children and said the "Farm Home" Association had been formed. Mrs. Close has had two fine farms presented to her last week. One is near St. Andrews and the other is a secret for the present. Miss Close is a most interesting talker and very enthusiastic in regard to her mother's plans.

Mrs. Smith spent Tuesday with Mrs. Donville. Rothsey, Aug. 8.-Mr. A. C. Fairweather left for Halifax yesterday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the governors of King's College.

Miss Close and Miss Dunn came down from Nauyasigauk this afternoon and visited among Rothsey friends. Miss Ganong has returned from Upper Canada, and is entertaining her mother and brother, of St. Stephen, at Netherwood.

Miss Pitcher is enjoying a visit to friends near Montreal. Miss Jean Daniel has returned from Annapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm entertained a number of friends today on board the Dahinda.

Non. William Pugsley returned to Rothsey from Ottawa yesterday. Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley gave a bridge whist party this afternoon. Mrs. Bancroft captured the prize.

HAVELOCK

Havelock, Aug. 12.-Rev. Geo. Howard on Sunday, Aug. 4, held service at Lower Ridge and baptised eleven. Two were also received by letter, making thirteen received that day as members of the Baptist church. Mr. Howard has received a unanimous vote to remain another year but declines the offer. He will preach his farewell sermon next Sabbath.

Two very handsome deer visited the dooryard of C. B. King last week. Miss Nellie and Hattie Alward will attend Normal school the ensuing term, which opens Sept. 3.

Mr. W. E. Clarke, of Canaan, left today for Portland (Me.) to visit his daughter, who is married and lives there. The new house of Everett (Mesa), a native of Havelock, is being resumed here, the guest of his brother, W. D. Fowler.

S. E. McDonald, game warden, is at present visiting in Grand Lake, Queens county, in the interests of the game law. Miss Rebecca MacDonald and her niece, Miss Marjorie MacDonald, have returned to St. Andrews after a pleasant visit here of a few weeks.

Rev. Coleman Corey with his wife and two children is visiting his brothers and other friends here before resuming his work in the home mission field. Mrs. C. W. Hicks, of Upper Ridge, still remains quite poorly and her friends think she is falling gradually.

While James H. Hicks and his son were visiting relatives here in Hickeysville, his son, who is a Methodist preacher, held a few meetings and is very highly spoken of as a young man of much promise.

Miss Clark, of Canaan, went to Salisbury today to take charge of the school at Eagle Settlement. Mrs. D. J. O'Neill and two daughters, Nina and Lizzie, of Moncton, returned home today after visiting friends and relatives here for a couple of weeks.

Miss Laura Howard went to River Glade today to take charge of the school there. The BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, Aug. 7.-The dull weather and frequent showers the past week caused the postponement of several picnics and down river excursions. Although the weather is dull today, the Methodist church Sunday school enjoyed a sail on the steamer Henry F. Eaton to St. Andrews to picnic in the park near the harbor.

Dr. George J. Clarke is in St. Andrews visiting friends this week. Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore and children are spending this month at Oak Bay. Among the many jolly drives and picnics given for the pleasure of Mr. Thomas Laffin, of Portland (Me.), who has spent the past three weeks in town, was the Chaucer ride to Champlain last Thursday afternoon. On the arrival of the party, they were entertained at "Windsor Cottage" by Mrs. F. W. Nicholson. After a sumptuous dinner served at 6 o'clock the guests gathered on the broad piazza surrounding the cottage and were entertained and amused by a committee of ladies who gave impressions of notes characters, both in and out of books. Loud and merry were the peals of laughter and fun and merriment reigned supreme until the twilight deepened into darkness and the hour for returning to homes in town arrived. It was with great reluctance each guest turned homeward and the outing was pronounced by all to be the most delightful of the summer and many pleasant comments have been made in regard to the happy way Mrs. Nicholson has of entertaining at her sea side home.

Mr. Thomas A. Irvine, who spent several weeks here last summer, is this year traveling in Arizona. Mrs. Willard B. King is spending a few days in Houlton (Me.). Miss Louise Purves, who has been Mrs. Harold C. Powers' guest, left on Saturday for her home in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson are in Campbell, guests at the "Owen." Mrs. Lewis Wadsworth has concluded a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Young, and returned to her home in Worcester (Mass.). Mrs. John McInch, of Woodstock, is visiting Mrs. A. Rose, of St. John. Dr. Richard Kallah and Miss Annie Kallah, of New York, are visiting Kallahs friends.

Miss Ethel Teed is here from Montreal, visiting her parents, Mayor and Mrs. Teed. Mr. Arthur S. Burdette expects to be in Boston early in September to place her daughter, Miss Edith Burdette, at a school in the vicinity of the city. They will leave San Jose, Costa Rica, some time the last of this month.

Misses Mary Grimmer, Kathleen Hill and Sadie Enright are visiting friends at Bartlett Mills, several miles from town.

and Sunday school, came down river on the Eaton, on Wednesday and enjoyed the day on the beach in St. Andrews.

Miss Alice Burton has been having a pleasant time visiting Eastport friends. Mrs. A. Sprague and Miss Sprague, of St. John, have been recent visitors to St. Andrews. Mrs. M. J. Hogan, of Monticello (Me.), Dr. W. Lamb, of Camrose (Alta.), arrived on Wednesday's train, and is the guest of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lamb.

Mrs. L. Howard, Mrs. Howard and Miss Jean Howard, of Philadelphia, are in St. Andrews for the season. Miss Grace and Miss McDiarmid, who have been enjoying a pleasant visit with Miss Freda Wren, have returned to their home in St. John.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Morrison, who have taken a cottage here for the summer. The children of Greenock church Sunday school, with their parents and friends, had a very pleasant day picnicking at Pointe-a-la-Croix.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant have been among late St. Andrews visitors. Mrs. John Dornance, Miss Mary Stirling Dornance, Miss Winnifred Dornance and Master Arthur C. Dornance, of Bristol (Pa.), are at the Algonquin. Mayor Hooper of Montreal, is now with Mr. Hooper at the Grimmer cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Gove, and her daughters, Misses Pauline and Doris, of St. Stephen, spent a few days lately visiting Captain and Mrs. N. M. Clark. The children of the late Mrs. Catherine Bleakney took place from her son's residence Sunday morning and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. H. Ferguson. Interment took place at Five Points cemetery.

HAMPTON

Hampton, N. B., Aug. 7.-Mrs. H. E. Fowler, of Main street, Station, spent last Sunday with her family in Lehighville. Mrs. William H. March, of Main street, Station, who with her youngest son, Robert, has been visiting friends in Albert County and Moncton, returned home Monday.

Arrangements are in progress for holding the Anglican church annual picnic on Tuesday, Aug. 14. Miss Amy Scovell, of Bellisle, who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Ella Murray, Main street, Station, returned home Saturday.

The Hampton Cornet Band gave an open air concert in the village last Saturday evening and it was enjoyed by a large number of promenade. Miss Lottie Bridges, of Maugeville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. Flewelling, Hampton, this week.

Rev. Canon Cowie, of Fredericton, is visiting Rev. Dean Hanington at the rectory, Central street, Station, on Monday morning in the Lower Norton church, taking as his subject The Transfiguration. Mr. Ken. Schofield is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. March, of Main street, Station, who with her youngest son, Robert, has been visiting friends in Albert County and Moncton, returned home Monday.

Ald. H. H. Pickett and his daughter, of St. John, were visitors here on Monday. Mr. William Conway, of the C. P. R. telegraph office, who has been at home with his parents for the past two months because of indisposition, resumed his duties in the St. John office.

Miss Hattie Barnes, of Linden Heights, is visiting her mother, Mrs. McAvity at Rothsey, this week. The Misses Hannah Logan and Ayer are again guests of Miss Margaret McAvity at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. McAvity, Lakeside road.

Lieut. E. A. March, of St. John, was the guest of his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. March, Railway avenue. Mr. C. E. Macmahal and his son Harold spent from Saturday till Monday as guests of Mrs. G. Pritchard, Hampton Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gray, of St. John, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George S. McLaughlin, of Hartland, and returned to their home in Lynn (Mass.) Saturday.

Mr. Thomas Duke, of Brooklyn, made a flying visit last week to the home of his father, Rev. J. A. Duke, Lakeside road, after an absence of some years. Together they visited old friends in phan on Thursday, and on Friday his two sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Ida Duke, who were visiting in Shanklin, returned in time to spend a few hours with the brother, who started on his return home on Saturday.

Mr. George Kierstead, of West End, St. John, is serving the Baptist churches in Smithtown, Ellsworth and Hampton, until the reopening of Acadia College, when he will enter on the second year course in that institution. He was a twelfth year graduate of the St. John High school, and is said to be an interesting and effective preacher, with admirable records.

Mr. Edward McCarron, of the C. P. R. staff, visited his mother, Everett street, Hartland, last week. Miss Bertha Jenkins is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Manner Reid, Station. The Tabernacle church, St. John, held its annual picnic on the grounds of the Riverside hotel, after a delightful trip to the Kennebecasis river in the steamer Hampton.

Miss C. M. Eaton, of Parrabro, who has been spending her vacation with her grandfather, Mr. Samuel McCurdy, returned home Monday. Dr. W. H. Ruddick returned to his home in Boston last Wednesday. His young ladies, consisting of the Misses Louise and Minnie Girvan and Nelly Macmahal, on Monday to Central Norton where they spent a few enjoyable hours as the guests of Miss Minnie Travis, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eliza Fowler.

The ladies of the Lower Norton church intend to hold a garden party on the beautiful grounds of Mr. George M. Freeze, Riverside hotel, tomorrow afternoon and evening. The Cornet Band will furnish music.

Mr. J. D. Wood, of St. John, has been visiting his former home, Hampton, this week. Mrs. James H. Moran and Mrs. Irvine and their daughter May, of England, arrived from Montreal on Friday last, and were guests, for a few hours, of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ruddick, Main street, Station, where they went to St. Martins and will sit Mr. and Mrs. George Parker, of New York, at their summer home at Tyne-mouth Creek.

Miss Rebecca Ruddick returned to her home in St. John on Thursday, after a pleasant visit to her brother Andrew's home at Hampton Station. Mrs. W. M. Barnes entertained a ladies' bridge party last Thursday afternoon.

a pleasant visit with friends in St. John county.

Mrs. Abram Steves, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Crandall, for a few weeks, returned to her home at Victoria Mills on Wednesday. Miss Nettie Carter is spending a few days visiting friends in Moncton.

Mrs. W. R. Beckwith, who has been spending a couple of months visiting her daughters in Boston and Portland, returned home this week. Mrs. John Lewis, of Portland, arrived in Salisbury a few days ago and will spend some time visiting relatives and friends here in Moncton.

A sister and niece of Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, a sister and niece of Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, returned from Boston this week and are guests at the Methodist parsonage.

Dr. Ylmer Gorman, who has been under special medical treatment in St. John for several weeks, arrived home last evening, greatly improved in health, and will resume work in the C. P. R. service, Moncton, in a few days.

Mr. Wright attended the government sale of imbed houses in Moncton this week and purchased two.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. 12.-The singing of Miss Ida Beverly, the talented Boston soprano, at the Baptist church at this place Sunday evening was greatly enjoyed by all present. Miss Beverly's selection was a 1 A. Redeemed.

Mrs. A. R. Brown and children are visiting friends at Dorchester Cape for a few weeks. Mrs. W. Dixon Baird, who has been visiting her son, Harry, at Richibucto, returned home on Monday. Rev. C. W. Hamilton spent Sunday in Moncton. His nephew, G. A. Colpitts, B. A., filled his appointments here very successfully.

Dudley Duhy, who has been visiting Salisbury friends for a couple of weeks, left for his home in Fells (Mass.) this morning.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Catherine Bleakney took place from her son's residence Sunday morning and was largely attended. The service was conducted by Rev. H. Ferguson. Interment took place at Five Points cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank George and children, who have been spending a few days lately with Mrs. Charles M. Gove, have returned to England.

Despite the inclemency of the weather a large congregation gathered at the Methodist church on Sunday evening. The service of song was unusually fine, the members of the choir being in excellent voice and singing each with great fervor. Mr. Verne Whitman and his sisters, Misses Margaret Maloney, Winnifred Maloney and Hazel Maloney, were delightfully sung, and gave great pleasure. At the morning service Rev. Mr. Lodge preached a special sermon on the Orangenmen of St. Andrews Lodge.

Rev. Dr. McShane, of Notre Dame, Montreal, is enjoying a few weeks in St. Andrews. Mr. L. P. D. Tilley and Mrs. Tilley came from Montreal and spent a few days as guests of Lady Tilley at The Inn.

Mr. J. Harrison Wade has been enjoying part of his vacation visiting friends in the city. Mr. J. G. Forgie, Mrs. Forgie and family, of Pembroke (Ont.), have been registered at the Kennedy Hotel, Moncton.

Mr. Fred Sullivan, of St. Stephen, was in town recently. Mr. Walter Scott and family of New Glasgow are recent guests of Rev. A. W. Mahon and Mrs. Mahon, at the manse.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Frank Aldrich of Provoy, N. B., are enjoying a few weeks at the Algonquin. Mr. I. McCullum, Mr. R. Parker, Mr. F. Mitchell, Mr. T. G. Allingham, Mr. M. MacShane, Mr. G. Farmer and Mr. A. V. Alexander were among a number who visited St. Andrews from Campbell this week.

Miss Alice Grimmer very pleasantly entertained a number of her lady friends at Forest Lodge on Monday afternoon. Among those who enjoyed the afternoon were Miss Nellie Stuart, Miss Amy Stuart, Miss Nellie and Bessie Hibbard, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Betty and Clara Gove, Miss Bessie Grimmer and Miss Hazel Grimmer.

Mr. Jack Fraser, of St. Stephen, was in town on Tuesday. Miss Marguerite Lamb of Woodstock, is Mrs. Angus Kennedy and her granddaughter, who have been visiting in Quebec. Mr. A. E. Prince, of Linden Heights, and Mrs. Pile and her daughter, of Calais, are residing at the Penderbury cottage this season.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith and the Misses Smith and Mrs. Guthrie, of St. John, are spending a couple of weeks in town. Colonel J. D. Chipman of St. Stephen, was in town on Wednesday. Mrs. Manner Robinson, of St. Stephen, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Wade in town on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Costin, of Deer Island, was in town the first of the week, and was the guest of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Lodge, at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Van Horne, of Covenhoven, are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son, and are receiving many congratulations.

Miss Jessie McWha, of St. Stephen, has been visiting Miss Alice Burton. A party came from St. Stephen last week on the Nautilus. Mr. Young's pleasure party was on Wednesday. Miss Lillian Morris came home last week, and is spending the rest of the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morris.

Edison Phonograph

The most wonderful machine ever invented. Will reproduce all music as if you were present. Will reproduce all music as if you were present. Will reproduce all music as if you were present.

noon, and in the evening a company of young people spent a few hours with music and social games.

Both functions were greatly enjoyed by those present. Her guests, the Misses Girvan, returned home to St. John on Friday. Mrs. and Miss Martin, St. John's city library, were week-end visitors at Hampton Station.

Friday's C. P. R. train brought from Montreal, as temporary guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Ruddick, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hutchin, who went to St. Martins to spend a few weeks.

Mrs. Edgar March and her daughter, Miss Isaac Zouire, passed through yesterday on their return home to St. John after a three weeks' visit to friends in Ficton.

Mr. W. J. Brown went to Chatham on Tuesday. Mr. Thomas A. Peters, of Fredericton, and his son, Mr. L. W. Peters, of St. John, spent from Saturday to Monday with relatives here.

Mr. Frank A. Young and Mr. R. A. March went to St. John on Monday to join a party of commercial men who are now enjoying a few days' outing on the St. John river on the Armoed. They may go as far as Fredericton and return, but their movements will largely depend upon the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murray, of St. John, were guests with Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Young last week at their home, Lakeside road. Miss Young Langstroth, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Langstroth, will go to Newport (R. I.) on Saturday to enter a hospital to take a course in nursing.

Miss Maud Golding, of St. John, is a guest with Mrs. Richard Arscott, Church avenue, station. Mr. Elmer Ross, of Boston, visited his brother, Rev. G. A. Ross, at the Methodist parsonage, on his way home to Charlestown.

Mr. Howard D. Fowler and his son, Albert Linde, of Boston, returned to their former home, Hampton Station, on Tuesday, and have gone to Kingston to visit friends.

Messrs. C. A. Bland and B. H. Thurman, of Charro (S. C.), were guests of Miss Annie Cochran last week. Other guests during the past few days have been Mrs. K. L. Butler, Mrs. H. E. Van Fleet, and the Misses M. R. McGlashan, E. H. Gillerlevie and C. S. Atkinson, all of New York; Messrs. E. O. Harvey, H. L. Doane, G. Rogers, H. A. Wiley and E. M. Munro, of St. John; Mr. J. F. Williams, of Halifax; and Mr. E. Vaughan, of St. Martins.

Professor W. Morley Tweddie spent a few hours here on Tuesday on his return to Sackville from the Pacific coast. Dr. E. M. Wilson, of St. George, is here on his way to St. John. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cooper and child, of St. John, arrived here on Monday after a visit to Westmorland county, and will be guests with Miss Cochran, at her home here.

Mr. Robert Watson, agent of the Bible society, arrived here from Fredericton today on his way to St. Martins for a few days.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Aug. 11.-The mate of the schooner Virginian, which was loaded with plaster here, was charged the other day with assaulting one of the hands, a lad of fifteen years of age, and settled the matter by paying some $10 cents at Justice Barry's court. The boy agreed to go back on the vessel on promise of better treatment.

Five sisters met at the home of one of their number, Mrs. Harriet Hamilton, an old resident of this village, on Friday, after a good many years of separation. The sisters were: Mrs. Hamilton, the eldest; Mrs. Lizzie Rowe, Mrs. Wm. Dodge and Miss Alice Russell, of Brooklyn (N. Y.), and Mrs. Geo. A. Steeves, of Hillsboro. Mrs. Dodge had not been at her old home in this county for twenty-two years.

Samuel McCrea's superintendent of the mechanical department of the Morning Telegraph, of New York, left for his home yesterday, after a short visit to his sister, Mrs. Frank Carney, of this place. G. Hudson Stewart, of Fredericton, arrived yesterday to take up his duties as principal of the school here, which opens tomorrow. Joseph Alexander, of Fredericton Junction, was the new principal of the Harvey school.

Mrs. W. K. Gross, of Moncton, and little daughter, Alice, are visiting Mrs. Grose at her home here. Mrs. Dennis Duffy and son and daughter, of Seattle (Wash.), are visiting relatives and friends in this county.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Aug. 7.-Mr. T. C. L. Ketchum was in Hartland on Monday. Mrs. A. B. Connell is at home after spending a month at Bay Shore, St. John. Mrs. Frederick Jones, of Boston, is spending some weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Zopher Phillips, Woodbank.

Mrs. D. W. Marston, of Hartland, spent a few days of last week in town. Mr. Walter Sprague, of the Bank of Montreal, Hartland, spent Sunday at his home in town. Mrs. L. A. Phillips and Miss Maud Raymond left yesterday to spend a few weeks in Bristol and Andover.

Miss Jean McKnight, of Fredericton, is visiting relatives in Northampton. Mr. Irvine Dibble, of Millinocket (Me.), spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. C. F. Dibble. Mr. Paul Lengley, of St. John, was the guest of Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland last week.

Mr. George S. McLaughlin, of Hartland, is in town this week. Mr. Mark Savage, of the staff of the Bank of Nova Scotia, left on Saturday for Montreal, to which branch he has been transferred.

Mr. W. L. Gallagher left on Monday for his home in Lawrence (Mass.), after spending several weeks in town. Miss Marion Rankin is at home after a pleasant visit in St. John.

Miss Ella Donnelly left last week a few days of last week in town, leaving on Saturday for Montreal. Mrs. H. G. Noble, Master Gordon Noble and Miss Lulu Vince are spending a few weeks at Grand Manan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wakeman, of New York, are expected here about the 22nd.

Mrs. Gilmour Brown, of Fredericton, arrived yesterday on a short visit to her grandmother, Mrs. Scovell. She is accompanied by her daughter, Miss Dollie.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVeber and family are guests of Rev. R. Mathers on Gordon Island. Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, of Smithtown, spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Morris Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Peters expect to have as guests at "Camp Kennebecasis" Miss Ellen, of Apohaqui and Mrs. Roche and children, of Sussex. They are to come this week.

Mrs. W. E. Foster gave a pleasing children's party yesterday. It was thoroughly enjoyed by the little guests. Tea was served on the lawn.

Messrs. Robert Thomson and Thomas Bell are home after a successful fishing trip. P. E. Island. Miss Winnie Hill is giving a bridge whist party this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Robertson are expected home tomorrow, after having spent a month at their fishing camp at Upsalchick.

A party of young people, chartered by Mrs. W. Z. Earle, are camping on the island.

A special meeting of the committee of management of the "Elinor Home Farm" was held on Tuesday evening at the home of the secretary, Mrs. J. S. Armstrong.

Miss Close and Miss Dunn were both present, having driven down from Nauyasigauk. Miss Close, who has excellent executive ability, submitted a programme for the visit of Earl Grey to the farm next week. She also gave a very interesting account of the meeting held at the Mansion House, London, in the interest of the emigration of children and said the "Farm Home" Association had been formed.

Mrs. Close has had two fine farms presented to her last week. One is near St. Andrews and the other is a secret for the present. Miss Close is a most interesting talker and very enthusiastic in regard to her mother's plans.

Mrs. Smith spent Tuesday with Mrs. Donville. Rothsey, Aug. 8.-Mr. A. C. Fairweather left for Halifax yesterday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the governors of King's College.

Miss Close and Miss Dunn came down from Nauyasigauk this afternoon and visited among Rothsey friends. Miss Ganong has returned from Upper Canada, and is entertaining her mother and brother, of St. Stephen, at Netherwood.

Miss Pitcher is enjoying a visit to friends near Montreal. Miss Jean Daniel has returned from Annapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm entertained a number of friends today on board the Dahinda.

Non. William Pugsley returned to Rothsey from Ottawa yesterday. Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley gave a bridge whist party this afternoon. Mrs. Bancroft captured the prize.

HAVELOCK. Havelock, Aug. 12.-Rev. Geo. Howard on Sunday, Aug. 4, held service at Lower Ridge and baptised eleven. Two were also received by letter, making thirteen received that day as members of the Baptist church. Mr. Howard has received a unanimous vote to remain another year but declines the offer. He will preach his farewell sermon next Sabbath.

Two very handsome deer visited the dooryard of C. B. King last week. Miss Nellie and Hattie Alward will attend Normal school the ensuing term, which opens Sept. 3.

Mr. W. E. Clarke, of Canaan, left today for Portland (Me.) to visit his daughter, who is married and lives there. The new house of Everett (Mesa), a native of Havelock, is being resumed here, the guest of his brother, W. D. Fowler.

S. E. McDonald, game warden, is at present visiting in Grand Lake, Queens county, in the interests of the game law. Miss Rebecca MacDonald and her niece, Miss Marjorie MacDonald, have returned to St. Andrews after a pleasant visit here of a few weeks.

Rev. Coleman Corey with his wife and two children is visiting his brothers and other friends here before resuming his work in the home mission field. Mrs. C. W. Hicks, of Upper Ridge, still remains quite poorly and her friends think she is falling gradually.

While James H. Hicks and his son were visiting relatives here in Hickeysville, his son, who is a Methodist preacher, held a few meetings and is very highly spoken of as a young man of much promise.

Miss Clark, of Canaan, went to Salisbury today to take charge of the school at Eagle Settlement. Mrs. D. J. O'Neill and two daughters, Nina and Lizzie, of Moncton, returned home today after visiting friends and relatives here for a couple of weeks.

Miss Laura Howard went to River Glade today to take charge of the school there. THE BORDER TOWNS. St. Stephen, Aug. 7.-The dull weather and frequent showers the past week caused the postponement of several picnics and down river excursions. Although the weather is dull today, the Methodist church Sunday school enjoyed a sail on the steamer Henry F. Eaton to St. Andrews to picnic in the park near the harbor.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Moore and children are spending this month at Oak Bay.

Among the many jolly drives and picnics given for the pleasure of Mr. Thomas Laffin, of Portland (Me.), who has spent the past three weeks in town, was the Chaucer ride to Champlain last Thursday afternoon. On the arrival of the party, they were entertained at "Windsor Cottage" by Mrs. F. W. Nicholson. After a sumptuous dinner served at 6 o'clock the guests gathered on the broad piazza surrounding the cottage and were entertained and amused by a committee of ladies who gave impressions of notes characters, both in and out of books. Loud and merry were the peals of laughter and fun and merriment reigned supreme until the twilight