

By Telegraph. Canadian, British and Foreign.

[To the Associated Press.] New York, Dec. 10, p. m. Gold 111; sterling exchange 108 1/2 a 109 1/2; money 7 per cent. It is reported that President Diaz, of Santo Domingo, has been deposed, and a new provisional government established.

The Virginia left Tortugas at midnight on Thursday, in tow of the United States steamship Osage. The surviving passengers and crew of the Virginia were delivered to-day at Santiago de Cuba to Commander Brains, of the United States steamship Junata. They were sent on board of that vessel, which soon thereafter took her departure for New York.

Both Houses of Congress have voted a recess from to-day until January 5th. London, Dec. 19, p. m. Consols steady; breadstuffs quiet; corn 36s. a 36s. 3d.

The Cure of Santa Cruz has escaped into France. Penalta will probably be appointed Captain General of Porto Rico.

In the Assembly a bill increasing the salary of President MacMahon was passed. The report that M. Bartholdi, of the French Legation at St. Petersburg, has been appointed Minister to Washington, is confirmed.

THE ASSASSINATE WAR. Despatches from the Gold Coast announce that the King of Dahomey has joined the Ashantis.

Several contingents among the British troops, and 100 invalids had been sent to St. Helena. New York, Dec. 20. SENT TO JOHN TWEED.

Hon. A. W. Gomez, another of the Tammany Ring thieves, was found guilty yesterday. His sentence was deferred until Monday, but he was refused.

GRANTS CHIEF JUSTICE. It is now considered certain that the nomination of Williams as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court will be either withdrawn by the President or rejected by the Senate.

CUBAN AFFAIRS. State that a filibustering expedition was landed on the southern coast; also that a Spanish column 800 strong fell into an ambush and only 100 escaped.

A leading newspaper of Havana warmly denounces President Gomez's Message as far as it relates to Spanish and Cuban affairs. (Special to Daily News.)

OTTAWA, Dec. 19. A large number of the ladies of Ottawa held a meeting this afternoon, convened by Baroness Koerber, in order to organize a Ladies' Immigration Aid Society, the object being to aid the immigration of domestic servants.

RUMORS are again current that after a short session the House will be dissolved. The Crisis, encouraged by apparent success, believe that they could get a large majority at a general election now, before the Pacific Scandal gets quite dead, and thus get a long lease of power.

H. J. Lambert, formerly Ottawa correspondent of the Toronto Globe, publishes a card in to-day's Globe, announcing that he will be a candidate for West York at the next election.

Dodge, North York, will, for personal reasons, resign his seat for that borough. Dymond, of the Globe, will in that event run for North York.

A curious discussion is going on in Boston on "The Relative Merits of Spiritual Phenomena and Bible Miracles." There is evidently no subject that Boston philosophers tackle the question of the "relative merits" of the common and the grand parts of Colorado, or the relations of glacial-bergs to the development of modern civilization.

Second Edition! The Spring Hill mine is turning out one hundred tons of coal a day, and the yield is daily increasing.

Mr. Sharp calls people into his office in THE TOWNSEND Building to see this coal burn, and he declares that they would find more pious lives if they thought that seam of coal extended to the lower regions, as it makes an unusually hot fire, and refuses to burn out as long as anything is left to burn.

A Mad Bill. The manager of the Harrogate had a very pretty little bill presented to him last night. It was presented by a constable, at the suit of a bill-poster, and he was requested to appear at the city police court before the next day.

The demand for a work of a few hours is the modest sum of $22. This best, forty cents an hour, and there will, no doubt, be a grand rush to the fanks of the bill-posters, if this bill stands the legal test.

The Royal Marionettes. This troupe drew a good house last evening. The performance was even more satisfactory than on the previous evening. Prof. Jerome introduced several new feats in magic, which were loudly applauded.

Lubin's Genuine Perfumes, SOAPS, TOILET POWDER, &c. Please and Lubin's Choice Perfumes

Five prisoners were in the dock this morning, which is a large number that is usually seen on Saturday. The storm preventing landing outside, the loafers crowded into the court room as soon as it was open.

George Dredley and William Garney were out on a time. They got drunk but kept together, and, as a result, were both arrested at the same time.

These prisoners were taken out of the court-room, but still there remained one or two who were acting in a disorderly manner as recorded in another page.

The members of Victoria Social Temple of Honor No. 1 entertained a large party of the sisters and brothers of Fountain Social Temple, of Hampton, at the hall, last evening.

The invited guests were met at the train by a committee from Victoria Temple, and conveyed to the hall in coaches, where they were very warmly welcomed.

After the usual programme of introduction, the social games were introduced, together with music, vocal and instrumental, by the members of Victoria. About 11 o'clock refreshments, in the shape of punch, grapes, oranges and other fruits in and out of season, were handed round.

At an early hour this morning social of the guests as had remained were escorted to the station and safely started on their journey homeward, thoroughly exhausted but expressing themselves highly delighted with the hearty reception they had met with from the sisters and brothers of Victoria Social. The entertainment was an agreeable surprise to the visitors, as they expected to only participate in one of the ordinary meetings.

A Pass-Booker Fairly Placed. Three months and a few days ago Mr. Jacob Babb was tried in the Police Court for stealing a coat from the Park Hotel. He was convicted and sent to the Penitentiary for three months. They are very prompt across the fence to send a man home, as soon as his time is up, especially if he is a man too lazy to work. His wife, at the time he was sent across, was a servant in the hotel, and was glad to see her legs put out of the way. Before he came out she had left the hotel, but, not knowing this, Mr. Babb when he arrives in the city goes straight to the Park. There was no room, bed, or chair for him, and he was sent away. He did not believe that, so he tried his own old way to get in, by climbing up outside and going down the skylight. This he did last Thursday night, but he was seen, and the police sent after him. He could easily dodge any policeman, and, after climbing him along the flat roof, all they saw was hold Mr. Babb shinning down a water-spout and making off. Last night Mr. Babb was caught and taken to the Station. He had been in Mr. Smith's bar-room, and had threatened to kill Mr. Fairweather, of the Park Hotel, asked, this morning, that Babb should be bound over to keep the peace. Babb, of course, denied all knowledge of the affair, but, as he thought there was no justice for the poor man, resignedly accepted the situation. He was ordered to find two sureties in $250 each, and enter into his own recognizance in $500, to keep the peace, or in default to go to Gaol. As the sureties are not forthcoming he will go to Gaol. The man seems to be not altogether right in his head, and is as much to be pitied as condemned.
