PENALTY FOR IDLENESS

An order-in-council, read in the House of Commons last week by the prime minister, Sir Robert Borden, enacted that "all persons domiciled in Canada shall, in the absence of reasonable cause to the contrary, engage in useful occupations." The purpose of the measure is to prevent capable persons from remaining idle at a time when the country most urgently requires the service of all human energy possible. The actual regulations provide that:—

1. That every male person residing in the Dominion shall be regularly engaged in some useful occupation.

2. In any proceeding hereunder it shall be a defence to the person if

(a) Is under 16 years or over 60 years of age.

(b) A bona fide student proceeding with his training for some useful occupation.

(c) A bona fide student in actual attendance at some recognized educational institution.

(d) Usually employed in some useful occupation and temporarily unemployed owing to differences with his employers common to similar employees with the same employer.

(e) Physically unable to comply with the provisions of the law as herein enacted.

(f) Unable to obtain within reasonable distance any kind of employment which he is physically able to perform at current wages for similar employment.

Violation of the regulations imposes liability to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars, or in default to imprisonment not exceeding six months.

"In any common gaol, or in any institution or on any farm owned by a municipality or a province and declared by by-law or order-in-council, respectively, to be a public institution or farm for the purpose of this law which said institution or farm for the purpose of this law shall be a common gaol."

Where proceedings are instituted at the instance of a municipality, the fine goes to the municipality; where instituted by a provincial officer, to the provincial treasurer.

MANITOBA SCHOOL TEACHERS

At the thirteenth annual convention of the Manitoba School Teachers' Association which was held in Winnipeg during the past week, resolutions were passed and committees were appointed with a view to the fixing of a graded scale of wages for teachers, and the organization of a teacher's union. The election of officers on the last day of the convention resulted in the following appointments: Hon. R. S. Thornton, minister of education, was re-elected honorary president. The new president is Inspector J. W. Gordon, of Manitou; first vice, C. W. Laidlaw; second vice, Miss Yemans, Souris; secretary, P. D. Harris; treasurer, E. J. Motley; auditor, R. H. Smith.

The committee for the coming year is as follows: Professor Chester Martin, Dr. L. A. H. Warren, J. S. Little, Miss M. Kelso, A. E. Hearn, Bro. Jos. Fink, St. Boniface; Inspector S. E. Lang, B. J. Hales, Brandon Normal school; J. C. Pincock, J. G. Johansson, Professor C. H. Lee, Inspector A. J. Hatcher, Brandon; Superintendent D. M. Duncan, Miss Rogers, A. White, Brandon; Miss K. Broach, Miss F. Ormond, Portage la Prairie; W. J. Henderson, Dauphin; H. W. Watson, Ira Stratton, Dr. F. W. Clark, Wm. Iverach, Isabella; H. W. Coxsmith, High Bluff; Inspector T. J. Finn, Miss Greenway, Crystal City; A. McIntyre, Mr. Neelin, Virden.

Control of the house fly consists in destruction of its breeding places. The house fly usually breeds in manure, although as second choice, it may frequent any sort of decaying vegetation. The flies which are found in any community are usually bred within that community. The flies which become so troublesome around the average farm homestead usually originate on the premises, because, under ordinary conditions, flies will not travel more than a mile. Fortunately, control of house flies coincides with the most economical way of handling manure. If the manure is applied to the field immediately, it will not become the breeding place of flies.

Their children either can't or won't support them.

Tragic? Yes! But not half so tragic as the old folks' remembrance of the fact that their present plight is due to their lack of foresight in not making provision for their declining years.
