weeks, when I received a visit frem Mr. 8mith. He came in the much-enjoyed recess.

He examined the girls and was pleased. He congratulated me, and I felt very grand. In an evil hour he asked to examine the boys. I rang the bell. In they came, stamping, pushing, laughing and jumping over the benches. Mr. Smith was horrified. Mr. 8mith expressed his horror. He then, to show them, imped out and in again, made his bow to me, quietly took his seat and told them to do the same—and they did it every one of them limping agross the room as if being lame.
