

was inadvertently omitted to be communicated to you when the list was sent; and this Depart-ment is now informed that the dress has been seen with the Hubbard Collection without any ticket on it. May I request that, as the dress was lent for the purposes of the Exhibition and was not paid for, ~~that~~ you will be so good as to give such instanc--tions as will ensure the carry-ing into effect of the wishes of the owner, and its transmission to Messrs. Jennings at the close of the Exhibition.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Yours obt. Servant.
