Ottawa, 30th July, 1918.

Sirs:-

I beg to enclose herewith a requisition for drugs required by Dr. H.Y. Baldwin of North Vermillion, Alberta, for use among the Indians of the Peace River District, and would request you to supply the same on account of this Department. The requisition has been prepared from your catalogue and you will endeavour to fill it as completely as possible with drugs of the best quality.

As it is important that the consignment should reach Peace River as soon as possible to connect with the boats, you should ship without delay to the address given in the requisition by express charges prepaid. Your account should be sent to this Department in triplicate with receipted express bill attached.

Your obedient servant,

Messrs. Parke Davis Co.,
