The Guardian Assurance Company, Limited, was established in Canada May 3, 1859. The trustees of the company here are W. H. Beatty, Esq.; Hon. A. Desjardins; J. O. Gravel, Esq.; W. M. Ramsay, Esq., and R. Wilson Smith, Esq. In addition to Fire and Life, the company also transacts Accident and Burglary Insurance business, although in Canada it only transacts

Fire business. It is essentially a national mercantile institution and practically confines its business to Great Britain and her colonies and dependencies.

The company has recently erected a magnificent new office building in Montreal at Nos. 160 to 164 St. James Street, in one of the most convenient and finest sites on that splendid thoroughfare.
