

One of the best homesteads in the Crowsnest Valley. Little of the land is fit for agriculture, being too rough and stony.

Land originally forested, but burned over and washed until the stony subsoil is exposed. This particular location has been homesteaded.