

- battle of Lissa, July 20, 1866, 187;
shifts his flag to the "Affondatore," 191.
- "Petrel," U. S. gunboat at battle of Manila, 322.
- Pets, Commodore, at battle of Lissa, 1866, 184.
- "Phaoncel," British brig in battle of Navarino, 1827, 168.
- "Phoebe," British sloop, on March 31, 1806, observes escape of French fleet from Toulon, 60; sent after French frigates off Madagascar, 1811, 127; in battle off Tamatave, May 20, 1811, 129; in engagement with U. S. ship "Essex," 1814, 416.
- "Phoenix," British frigate sights Dumanol's French squadron, November 2, 1806, 91, 92.
- Pierola claims presidency of Peru, 1877, 351.
- "Ping Yuen," Chinese ship in battle of Yalu River, 1894, 308.
- "Pinola," U. S. ship under Farragut in the Mississippi River, 419 et seq.
- "Plover," British gunboat in attack on Taku Forts, 405.
- Pola, Austrian fleet assemblies at, 1866, 153.
- "Polyphemus," British ship at battle of Copenhagen, 16, 20; at battle of Trafalgar, 86.
- "Pompée," British ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Saumarez, 24.
- Poore, Lieut., one of British landing party at bombardment of Alexandria, 446.
- "Porcupine," U. S. schooner at battle of Lake Erie, 1813, 146.
- Porter, Commander David, placed in command of U. S. ship "Essex," 416.
- Port Hudson, passed by Admiral Farragut's fleet, March, 1863, 420; surrenders to North, 421.
- "Portogallo," Italian ship at battle of Lissa, 1866, 187.
- "Port Royal," U. S. ship at battle of Mobile Bay, 423 et seq.
- "Powerful," British ship, squadron of Vice-Admiral Duckworth, 1806, 96.
- Prat, Arturo, commander of Chilean ship "Esmeralda," in fight with Peruvian ship "Huascar," 359 et seq.
- "Prince," British ship at battle of Trafalgar, 84, 86.
- Proctor, General, commands British troops in War of 1812, 144.
- Proteau, Captain, in charge of French ship "Indienne" at Aix Roads, 1809, 115.
- "Provesteen," Danish ship in battle of Copenhagen, 32.
- "Provenoy," Russian ship in battle of Navarino, 1827, 169.
- Purvis, Mr., employed by Chinese in battle of Yalu River, 1894, on the "Chih Yuen," 307.
- Q.
- "Queen Charlotte," British ship at battle of Lake Erie, 1813, 146.
- R.
- "Racehorse," British brig-sloop sent in search of French frigates off Madagascar, 1811, 127; in battle off Tamatave, May 20, 1811, 129.
- "Raleigh," U. S. cruiser in battle of Manila Bay, 322.
- "Ranillies," British ship at battle of Copenhagen, 17; of squadron of Vice-Admiral Warren, 1806, 96.
- "Real Carlos," Spanish ship in battle of Algeiras Bay, 40, 41.
- "Reasonable," British ship at battle of Copenhagen, 17.
- "Redoubtable," British ship in battle of Trafalgar, 81.
- "Régulus," French ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Willaumez, 1809, 104; at Aix Roads, 113, 124.
- "Reina Cristina," Spanish cruiser at battle of Manila, 234.
- "Renommée," French frigate cruises off Madagascar, May, 1811, 127; in battle off Tamatave, 129.
- "Repuise," British ship, squadron of Vice-Admiral Warren, 1806, 95.
- "Resolution," British ship of squadron of Lord Gambier, 1809, 104.
- "Restormel," Spanish collier captured by U. S. ship "St. Paul," May 25, 1806, 272.
- Retalick, Captain Richard, commands British ship "Defiance" at battle of Copenhagen, 16.
- Revel, Lord Nelson reaches, May 12, 1801, in search of Russian fleet, 30.
- "Revenge," British ship, squadron of Lord Gambier, 1809, 104.
- "Revolutionaire," British ship, squadron of Rear-Admiral Strachan, 1805, 92.
- Rhodes, Ibrahim Pasha seeks refuge in, after second defeat by Greeks, 155.
- Hibbott, Captain, at battle of Lissa, 1866, 90.
- "Richmond," U. S. ship in battle of Mobile Bay, 423 et seq.