American Decisions, by JAMES APPLETON MORGAN, of the New York Bar. 3 large vols., 8vo. 1883 Nett 13 50

The numerous collection of English and American cases tends to render this work the most exhaustive text-book upon the subject that has appeared either in England or America.

Addison on Torts.—A treatise on the Law of Torts. With full American notes by Judge H. G. Wood. 2 large 8vo vols. of over 1900 pages. 1883. Nett 9 00

This excellent work upon the Law of Torts has been carefully annotated upon the most intricate and difficult questions involved in the subject.
The thoroughness with which the work has been done is evidenced by the fact that over 400 pages of notes have been added to the work, which, printed in the same type as the text would make over 700 pages, forming of themselves a complete and thorough treatise upon the various phases of the law of legal wrongs.
