McDONALD-GARRETT.

A charming event took place at the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Garrett, Duluth street, on Saturday evening, Jan. 28th, when their daughter, Miss Bertha Garrett, was united in marriage to Mr. Frederic A. McDonald, one of Chatham's most popular old boys, now a well known and prosperous business man of Superior, Wisconsin. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hoyt in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Many splendid and expensive gifts testified to the popularity of the much admired bride. Lohengrin's wedding march was effectively rendered by Miss Helen Smith. The house was beautifully decorated with festoons of green, wedding bells and cut flowers, the clever work of a cousin of the bride. The bride was given away by her father and looked queenly in her bridal robe of Limerick lace veiling and underdress of taffeta silk, and carried a superb bouquet of white roses, hyacinths and orange blossoms. The matron of honor, Mrs. Cherry, of Toronto, sister of the bride, wore her wedding gown of Duchesse satin draped with Chantilly lace and carried pink roses. The groom was assisted by Mr. C. R. Cherry, of Toronto. Mrs. Garrett, the mother of the bride, wore a dress of black net over white silk, and Mrs. John Park, sister of the groom, wore a beautiful gown of black and white grenadine with trimmings of white lace and an underdress of black taffeta silk.

After dejeuner the bride donned a travelling gown of grey chiffon velvet with hat to match and coat and muffs of grey squirrel. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald left on the 9:50 train for Chicago, from whence they go to Superior, where they will be at home after March 1st in their new house, which will shortly be completed. Mrs. McDonald was one of the Maple City's most charming young ladies and leaves behind a host of friends who wish her every success in her new life. The bride will be quite an acquisition to society circles in Superior, Wisconsin.

STEVENS-SYMGINGTON.

A very quiet home wedding took place at 11:30 a. m. to-day at the residence of Thos. Symington, Esq., when his daughter, Miss Winifred, was married to Mr. W. A. Stevens, of Chatham. Only the near relatives of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony. The newly-wedded pair left by the 2:30 G. T. R. express for the east on their wedding trip. On their return they will reside in Chatham. The bride was very popular and will be greatly missed socially by a large circle of friends in Sarnia. The best of good wishes accompany her to her new home. Among the guests present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Stevens, parents of the groom; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ross and son Kenneth, of Owen Sound—Sarnia Observer.

MORLEY-KREUTZIGER.

The following, from the Berlin Daily Telegraph, is of interest to many Chathamites:—

The beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kreutziger, Erb street, Waterloo, was the scene of one of the prettiest and most fashionable weddings of the season Tuesday evening, Jan. 24th, when their second daughter, Miss Emma, was married to Mr. Reginald Morley, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Morley, of Hamilton, formerly of Waterloo, before assembled guests to the number of about fifty, among whom were a number from Buffalo, Hamilton, Beamsville, Toronto, Three Rivers, Que., and other places.

At precisely six o'clock the bride, who looked charming and exceedingly sweet in duchesse satin, with bertha of real lace, trimmings of lace medallions and with bridal veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a lovely shower bouquet of bridal roses, entered the spacious drawing-room on the arm of her father, to the happy strains of Lohengrin's bridal music, played by Miss Emma L. Bean, A. T. C. M. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. A. E. Leveille, B. C., pastor of the Waterloo Methodist Church, took place under a beautiful arch of smilax. Miss Elizabeth Kreutziger, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and was attired in a charming gown of apricot yellow voile over silk, with green girdle and violets. The groom was ably assisted by his brother, Mr. W. D. Morley.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining room, which was prettily decorated for the auspicious occasion, where a sumptuous dinner was served. The able refreshments, catered by Mr. J. W. Davey, of Berlin. The house, which was in pink and green, looked very pretty decorated with smilax, pink carnations and pine.

Your doctor says you must take cod liver oil. Probably he means Scott's Emulsion because you cannot take the clear oil who needs cod liver oil. The doctor understands that and doubtless means Scott's Emulsion of cod liver oil which everybody can take because it is emulsified and prepared so that it can be very easily digested by the most sensitive stomach. Most everybody likes it.

The happy couple were kept busy receiving the congratulations and well-wishes of their many friends until they departed amidst showers of rice on the 8:30 train for points east. They will reside in Ottawa. Mrs. Morley's going-away gown was of red velvet with toque to match.

The numerous and costly wedding gifts included a number of handsome cheques.

The removal of the bride from the Twin-City society, of which she was a prominent member, will be much regretted by her hosts of friends, but they will join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Morley a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lewis gave a four point euchar party on Tuesday evening. There were just enough present for six tables. The drawing room was prettily decorated. Pink carnations contributed their share. Mrs. Chas. Hadley and Crown Attorney H. D. Smith won the superior prizes. Mrs. Gundy and ex-Mayor McKeough secured the consolation gifts.

The Misses Gemmill, Victoria avenue, entertained Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Sibbald, of New York. Euchar pleasantly assisted in whiling away the hours of the afternoon. Miss Davies and Miss Muriel Hennessey carried off the honors in the game.

Miss Edith Holmes entertained a large number of her young friends Thursday evening to a jolly coasting party. After the coasting had been enjoyed to the fullest extent the party retired into the house, where light refreshments were served.

The Misses Ball, Victoria avenue, entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. F. D. Laurie's guest, Mrs. James, of Toronto. Only a few were present, just enough for two tables of seven hand euchar.

Mrs. James Holmes, Victoria avenue, gave a thimble party for the married ladies on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. P. S. Coate entertained a few of her friends this afternoon to five o'clock tea.

The Value of Charcoal

Few People Know How Useful it is in Preserving Health and Beauty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but on the contrary, great benefit.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

I wonder if Ross stayed in to examine the ballots and see how the people voted.

I suspect that the Council will have to deal with the license reduction question soon.

That robbery all comes of letting the burglar goers, James McGregor and R. S. Dunlop, go.

Do you know there are actually some members of the Library Board who want to argue law with this G. H. J.?

Don't worry ye members of the Library Board. When you do an illegal act we'll point it out to you quick enough.

There was a robbery last night. I'd been feeling kind of lonesome for awhile and now things have resumed their normal condition once more.

Charlie Hicklin—I'm glad I'm going to get that photograph for that more than lots of people get of any money that Mac Gardner gets his hands on.

If I've missed anybody with my valentine I'll correct the omission before the 14th of February, provided I'm notified in time.

Now that elections are over, and things are quiet, I expect every day that G. S. Heyward or R. J. MacIntyre or some of those nimrods will be telling a fish story that is mostly true.

The Irish Detective has captured the "Two Jolly Tramps"—and will arrive with them on the "Midnight Express" next Monday evening in time to witness the "Octoroon" presented by the Kennedy Players at the Grand.

Chairman Humphrey, of the Library Board, now says he was a pro tem chairman elected under the provision of the statute. Of course Mr. Humphrey was pro tem chairman, but only for the meeting at which he was nominated.

We lost a subscriber this week because we did not mention that fact that the man's wife has away this Christmas vacation. How in the devil could we know where she was. We haven't time to follow other fellows' wives around and see what they do; and besides we have troubles enough as it is.—Mountain View Leader.

DRUGGING CHILDREN

The mother who gives her little one "soothing" stuff when it cries rarely does not realize that she is simply drugging it into temporary insensibility with a poisonous opiate. But that is just what she is doing.

All the so-called "soothing" medicines contain poisonous opiates; they are all harmful—some of them dangerous, and should never be given to children. Baby's Own Tablets are sold under a positive guarantee that they contain no opiate or harmful drug. The Tablets speedily cure all stomach troubles, constipation, diarrhoea, and simple fevers; they break up colds, prevent croup, ease the pain of teething, and give healthy, natural sleep. When little ones are cross, peevish and ailing, give them Baby's Own Tablets, and you will find there's a smile in every eye. You can get the Tablets from any medicine dealer or by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brookville, Ont.

BATTLE WITH ICE

The Grand Trunk car ferry Great Western, after battling for eleven hours in the heavy ice in Detroit river, was compelled to give up the attempt to reach the Wabash railroad slip dock at the foot of Seventh street last evening and returned to Windsor without making a landing.

The Great Western, with Wabash train No. 54 aboard, left the Windsor slip dock at nine o'clock yesterday morning. On being told of the possibilities of being detained several hours in the ice on the car ferry, all but three passengers alighted on the Windsor side of the river, and came to Detroit on the passenger ferries.

Three passengers, however, decided to take chances and remained aboard the train. At eight o'clock last evening the Grand Trunk car ferry Lansdowne was sent to the rescue of the Great Western and took off the three passengers and conveyed them back to Windsor.

The Michigan Central car boats made regular trips, but were considerably delayed by the ice, although at no time was more than half an hour taken in making a trip across the river. The Canadian Pacific trains were greatly delayed, but the Grand Trunk made fairly good time from the upper slips.

Supt. Burns, of the Wabash railroad, said last evening that no further attempt will be made to run the Great Western down the river through the ice, but that the Lansdowne will in all probability be able to take care of the traffic.

The ice in the river was moving down and jamming abreast the lower part of the city all day yesterday.

A very pretty wedding took place at high noon on Wednesday, Feb. 1, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Campbell, Stewart, when their eldest daughter, Ella M., was united in marriage to Garfield D. Sloane, of Cayley, Alta, formerly of Leamington. Rev. J. P. McQuarrie officiated.—Marlin Mirror.

Men like to believe their word has a convincing effect in a family argument.
