MARCH hath 31 Days.

Now though around the festive board We meet in happiest mood, And all within conspire to cheer Stern winter's solitude.

The famish'd wretch, whom want, and years, And sorrows have oppress'd, Feels not the kindling glow of hope, Illume his faded breast.

Whilst wintry storms unheeded jowl,
'Mid drifting snows he strays;
Or else in wretched hovel hous'd,
His scanty meal displays.
