THE PRAYER CORNER.

Remember our missionaries on the sea. Pray that they make good connection with steamers for India at Hong Kong and so avoid tedious delay.

Remember our convention. Pray that it may be a time of refreshing. May blessing come fresh from the presence of God.

Miss Jones asks that herself and workers be remembered in a special way just now. There is so much work that she cannot give it all close supervision. Pray that the workers may be faithful, and that she may have the needed strength and wisdom for her need.

Miss Priest asks prayer for a Brahman who sent a messenger to buy an English Bible, also for a Brahman lad who, during his vacation, spent considerable time in committing to memory many passages in the New Testament; for a Bengalee woman living near her who is hungry for the Word of God; for herself and her Bible women that they may be clean, clear channels through which the living water may flow to thirsty souls.

Remember our sick and tired missionaries who are with us.

OUR NEW MISSIONARY.

Miss Munro, the only missionary that our Board is sending to India this year, is a trained nurse. She finished her training in Winnipeg hospital last spring and spent the summer in Dr. White's Bible School in New York. She is a member of the Broadway Baptist Church, Winnipeg, the pastor of which speaks of her in terms of warmest commendation, and adds: "During her hospital course she has ever been the acknowledged leader among her sister nurses in such matters as organizing religious services for nurses and patients and in the general life of the nurses' residence. She has been the president of the Student Volunteer among the nurses, and was the chief factor in this organization. We are very thankful to be represented by her in India."
