PRAY WITHOUT CEASING.

In the storm and roar of battle,
If your heart throbs fast with fear,
Lift your eyes to heaven a moment,
Breathe one word of earnest prayer;
It will give your heart fresh courage,
It will nerve your arm to fight—
Try it, brother! It will help you
In the struggle for the right.

Weary toiler in the vineyard,
Heeding not the noonday glare,
Does your faith seem unrewarded?—
Lift your heart to God in prayer.
He will bless your earnest efforts,
Harvest days will quickly come,
Then, their labor done, the faithful
Find sweet rest and peace at Home.

Tossed on ocean's storm-swept billows,
Chilled with terror and despair,
When the waves almost o'erwhelm you,
Seek your Father's face in prayer.
He alone can hush the tempests,
He will guide you with His eye;
Safe at last within the haven
You shall praise Him, by and by.

Though your lot in life be humble,
God can find you anywhere;
He will hear your faintest whisper
When you speak to Him in prayer.
For His promise, ever faithful,
Urges, "Ask—ye shall receive!"
And His stores of wondrous blessings,
All are yours if you believe!
