CATHOLIC EMIGRATION

Father Casgrain, President of the Society of Catholic Emigrants to Canada, who recently renewed his long acquaintance with Rome, where he spent several years as student of the Boda, is to be congratulated on a letter addressed to him on his work by the Cardinal Secretary of State, which was published in the last number of the Acta Apostolicae Sedis. In it His Eminence says: "The Holy Father applauds this noble and salutary initiative, the scope of which is to offer to Catholic immigrants, without distinction of nationality, who intend to settle in Canada, to those ever-growing numbers whom the wants and necessities of life oblige to leave their families and their native land to seek abroad a better lot and an amelioration of their material condition to offer them, I say, and to procure for them not only temporal assistance and protection, but the inestimable and still more necessary benefits of moral and religious assistance and protection." The whole subject of emigration is now engaging the attention of the Consistorial Congregation, in which a special department has been set apart for settling all questions arising out of the great modern movement of peoples. To the already stringent provisions made by the Congregation of the Council concerning Italian priests who wish to follow their countrymen to America, a rigorous supervision and control is now being added by the Consistorial office in order to obviate certain evils which occurred in the past.—London Tablet.

LAYING OF CORNERSTONE AND BLESSING OF NEW CHURCH OF OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE BY HIS LORDSHIP, RT. REV. M. F. FALLON, D.D., BISHOP OF LONDON

On Thursday, April 23, just thirteen months after the destruction by fire of the former church, the beautiful new church of Our Lady of La Salette was blessed and opened by Right Rev. M. F. Fallon, D.D., Bishop of London. The new edifice, Gothic in style, has been brought to a completion in a remarkably short time by the united efforts of the pastor, Rev. John P. Brennan and people of this almost exclusively Catholic district, who were present in large numbers for the ceremonies of the day and who expressed in words of unfeigned joy their holy pleasure and gratification at having on the site of the old church so beautiful a temple where they might fittingly worship our Eucharistic Lord and continue to cultivate their devotion to Our Lady of La Salette, whose statue, the only relic of the former church, is placed prominently in the tower of the new.

In the morning His Lordship blessed and laid the corner stone of the new church, the blessing of which immediately followed. Solemn High Mass, coram Episcopo, was sung by Rev. Father E. Goetz, Tillsonburg, assisted by Rev. F. P. White, St. Columban, desnon, and Rev. T. Hussey, Kinkora, subdeacon. His Lordship paid an eloquent message of praise to the faith and courage of the people of the parish which has on several occasions suffered loss in its church property by fire. He commended highly the spirit of co-operation between pastor and people which effected the erection of so pious and devotional a building for the worship of God in the sacrifice of the Mass and reminded them of the reward which would be theirs a hundred fold since they could not outdo God in generosity.

Rev. Fathers T. West, St. Thomas, and P. Corcoran, Seaford, assisted the Bishop. Rev. Father D. J. Downey, Windsor, acted as master of ceremonies.

The services of the afternoon consisted of the blessing of the stations of the cross by His Lordship, who delegated Rev. F. J. Brennan, London, to bless the bell.

In the evening the sacrament of Confirmation was administered to a class of seventy well instructed children of the parish, by His Lordship who took this occasion to explain the different doctrines of Catholic faith upon which he had examined the children, impressing upon the large congregation the fact that the failure to keep the promises of Confirmation, the neglect of daily prayer, the omitting of Mass on Sundays and holy days of obligation and the neglect of the sacraments of penance and Holy Communion are the factors which made the bad Catholic and admonishing the children to continue to be faithful to their religious instruction for the salvation of their souls and the teaching of others.

Rev. Father C. Nagle, Simcoe, preached the sermon of the day in which he eloquently showed to the people of La Salette what a part the Church was to play in their lives since it is by virtue of the Real Presence the House of God and gate of heaven.

The church was constructed by Mr. B. Blonde, of Chatham, contractor from plans of Mr. C. Dietrich of Detroit, architect.

The following visiting priests were present: Revs. T. West, St. Thomas; P. Corcoran, Seaford; P. McCabe, Maidstone; P. J. McKeon, London; F. Forster, Pres. Assumption College; D. J. Downey, Windsor; D. J. Egan, Stratford; D. Forster, Mt. Carmel; J. F. Stanley, Woodstock; E. N. Robert, Walkerville; J. F. Dowdle, Milford, Mich.; W. J. Kelly, Mitchell; C. F. Nagle, Simcoe; A. E. Goodwin, St. Thomas; F. P. White, St. Columban; G. P. Pire, Woodstock; T. P. Hussey, Kinkora; A. Fenrich, West Lorne; E. F. Goetz, Tillsonburg; M. D. O'Neill, Parkhill; J. J. Gnam, Ingersoll; F. X. Laurendeau, London; F. Ford, Bothwell; F. J. Brennan, London.

A person who is obliged to live in an unfortunate environment is often protected from the low aims or vicious ideals of those about him because of his taste for something better.

fort to perpetuate the reign of ignorance." It is described in this high-faluting style: "That city on the slope of the Janiculum, as cosmic matter in dissolution; is the fragment of a spent sun hurled into the orbit of the contemporary world." We can imagine Nathan, in his broken Italian and with his foreign accent, denouncing before a Roman audience the Papacy, the most venerable of institutions, which as Lord Macaulay pointed out, was carrying on its beneficent work when the forefathers of the most civilized people were barbarians. This imported English Jew, with shameless effrontery, held up to the reprobation of Romans what is the chief glory of their city, and what has saved it from a dire fate that would have overtaken it, if it had not continued to be centre of Christendom.

Francisco should not have a monopoly of the protesting against Nathan being the guest of the nation, as he will be, if he goes next year to San Francisco as Italy's representative at the Panama-Pacific exposition. He will go to the Queen City of the Pacific, if his appointment as Commissioner is not cancelled, not as one representing the reciprocal good will of two mutually friendly nations, but as one whose chief claim to notoriety in his indecent and venomous attacks upon the religion of millions of Americans.—Freeman's Journal.

"SOME HAV' MEAT, AND CANNA EAT"

So Bobby Burns tersely describes the rich, but still poor, dyspeptic. But their case is not now so desperate as when Burns wrote. For the man who has the food now can eat without suffering for it, if he just follows the meal with a Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablet.

These remarkable tablets banish the troubles of the chronic dyspeptic—the heartburn, gas on the stomach or occasional indigestion. You can eat hearty meals of wholesome food—and digest them, too—if you take Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets.

Compounded by expert chemists, after probably the best formula known to medical science, they are quick and certain in their action, giving prompt relief from all forms of stomach trouble, toning up and strengthening the digestive organs and bringing about permanent cures.

A man is no stronger than his stomach. Fit yourself for your best work by taking Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets, etc. at your druggist's. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

AN INSULT TO CATHOLICS

Inter national comity requires that an official representative of one country to another should be an acceptable person to the country in which he will have a representative character whilst residing in it. Any intimation from an official quarter that an American ambassador, minister or consul would not be a persona grata to the Government to which he was accredited, would cause his nomination to be withdrawn instantly by the State Department. Such a person would be incapable of strengthening friendly relations between the two countries, which is one of the chief duties of our official representatives abroad. We have been led to make these remarks by the announcement that the notorious ex-Mayor of Rome, Nathan, has been appointed as Italian Royal Commissioner to the Panama-Pacific Exposition of 1915.

That appointment will be an affront to millions of Catholic Americans. From the time Nathan sets foot on American soil till the moment he sails for Italy, which by the way is not his native land, he will be clothed with an official character as a representative of the Italian Government. He will have to be regarded and treated as such by the United States Government. The man who will be thus honored is a non-Christian, who, whilst at the head of the Municipality of the Eternal City, went out of his way to heap the grossest insults upon the Father of Christendom. Millions of Catholic Americans were stung to the quick by the foul language an English-born Jew, dressed in a little brief authority, used in speaking of the successor of St. Peter.

In a public speech he referred to the Vatican as "the fortress of dogma," which makes "a desperate effort to perpetuate the reign of ignorance."
