aught the woman of

od is a Spirit, and

ip Him must worship

n our Spirit, that is

deeper consciousness,

be sought after "in

means, in sincerity

accordance with His

with images or hu-

ies, but sincerely and

ren seek their father.

iched when I read an aper some time ago s that Jesus Would uld truly sympathize

young people, bat-Christ would have gave up my former nce' sake. It seemed

t oh! the joy after

sht only to write a ow I should like to

age those young peo-ng situations. It is frequently untruths they seem part " But anything that sin, and must leave tion, for we read in 5, "Examine yourve be in the Faith; know ye not your hat Jesus Christ is ye be reprobates." is much encourageye have received by ou; and ye need not

LIVLANENG.

our readers will be leased as they read ords of our corre-

is always especially

are himself a whole-

—perhaps because it ys much harder for artists to give to ition of so-called

of a saint is one actions diffuse such cannot but "take iem, that they are Jesus." There are a man come out

D. F.

ach you, but as the teacheth vou of all ruth, and is no lie: ath taught you, ye

command. taken up too much

ith spirit may meet.

and in Truth." ause He is Spirit, we

o encourage the faint Ask and ye shall retheir lives to be, almost without by them. nd it shall be opened and are humble-minded and k and ye shall find." ifs " or " mays" or r the apostle said lie. But, before we int, disciple, or friend, p all and follow and What must we give ig and everybody, that rom obeying His Holy our Lord commanded a Him, the man replied, this is the case in quite a young man or woman—really only boy or girl, and the victory is won before middle age. And again it is fighting and victory, all along the path of life. I do not think such people ever realize that they are at all saintly. A true saint, is a very humble-minded inside the properties of the respective for the properties of the real it through to or three times. I do not trials, or temptations, which would be no trials, or temptations, which be a change of the properties of the propertie ury my father,' all men's hearts, rethe dead bury their is our pattern, He and took upon Himself an, showing us by His possible for all men, said, "Be ye perfect Father which is in ist, and Christ alone, diator and Advocate, hrough Him only, can ther. Christ is not a whatever He asks us ve up that will be a to our spiritual y be sure He will give more than we gave istian traveller, whose towards Calvary, will life pleasant and lovely to them, panion," signed Dora Farncomb. itual and carnal bat-, but if he steps carecheerfully take up the ugly, distastewith his eye always der, he will reach his joicing. And, in conful duties which lie to their hand, and ild like to draw the those around them never know or drew, Boston, Mass. ion and solemn conwhat our Lord and hrist, when personal-

A LOVER OF MANY.

Sincerely yours, HUBERT CARLETON,

which such a life prevents her from lay in the rain. The parents would cultivating is to make her life a bur- hatch out their eggs if allowed to do thinking, these dear souls are not the The above is a very beautiful demand a wasted one. Let the wo-so, but it would be folly to let them belo to their fellow-creatures that the scription of wirthinking these from politics by all means, here as they are never ready to set help to their fellow-creatures that the scription of saintliness, though per-No woman has sense enough, or suffi- till after they are done laying, and men or women are who are constant- haps the writer might find—if hearts cient humility, to be able to cope that is too late in the year. The ly fighting against sin, and Satan in could be seen—that the "dear souls" with such subjects. She would vote shells are very thick, and one must their own lives; fighting often against described in the first part of the for the nice-mannered, good-looking put under a hen only as many as she fearful odds; knocked down again, and article are fighting as hard as the man, or the man for whom her huscan cover entirely, or there is a great yet again, and rising by the Helping brave, self-sacrificing souls described band did not vote from sheer perver—waste of eggs, for a hen's body is not strength, given by Him at their ask—take when he declares it is very hard ing, to renew the fight. Sometimes to be a Christian. God knows it men to the domestic hearth. If the water. It is never draggled and wet this is the case in quite a young man is not easy.

D. F. girls have some other ambitions, and looking like a hen is in the rain. The enveronment of the for the nice-mannered, good-looking put under a hen only as many as she for the nice-mannered, good-looking put under a hen only as many as she fearful odds; knocked down again, and rising by the Helping brave, self-sacrificing souls described band did not vote from sheer perver—waste of eggs, for a hen's body is not the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country are repeated by the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the country. But don't chain all woll atter's feathers are rough and reject the research are roughly and reject the roughly are r

Man.

do them perfectly—so perfectly that Gen. Sec'y Brotherhood of St. An- long time, and we have missed you. Be sure to keep them away from

THE PRAIRIE CROCUS

ing.

(You will find it hard, I am atraid, but clever as men, as painters, musicians, about making a cosy corner. I sent Nook Chats in your paper, but I have to get repairs for your machine, but clever as men, as painters, musicians, about making a cosy corner. I sent Nook Chats in your paper, but I have to get repairs for your machine, but clever as men, as painters, musicians, about making a cosy corner. I sent Nook Chats in your paper, but I have if you would write to the Wingold poets, singers, writers and holding her an issue of last fall, describing never written before. Now I come if you would write to the Wingold poets, singers, writers and holding her an issue of last fall, describing never written before. Now I come

CARE OF GUINEA FOWL

An order from Battle River, Alta., has been received for pattern 6268—6 years, but no name was given. It is surprising how many incomplete orders for patterns are received. Sometimes the number is omitted, or the times the number is omitted, or the force. The name and address is left off quite frequently. If everything off quite frequently. If everything off quite frequently. If everything off quite frequently. The name and address to enclose any money. The forgets to enclose any money. The consequence of these omissions is a been absolute ruins.

Dear Dame Durden,—I saw Susand around again. We have a good sexite's question in April 7th advowarm house and 160 acres of land, had so many hens to one male bird, never be able to farm again. I have had so many hens to one three cows and 150 hens, and have a good warm house and 160 acres of land, had so many hens to one male bird, never be able to farm again. I have had so many hens to one male bird, never be able to farm again. I have had so many hens to one male bird, never be able to farm again. I have had so many hens to one male bird, never be able to farm again. I have had so many hens to one three cows and 150 hens, and have size is that married life and all it male, and all their eggs were fertile, been doing the work alone the most them that one must have a male for band is able to be out again, he is each female, and must watch the canvassing for books and is away downstic life is absolutely distasteful. When the bird at laying time. The hens from home. What I want is a good each female, and all their eggs were fertile. The hens from home and help in the garden and consequence of these omissions is a better of land, and all their eggs were fertile. The hens of the constant and the force has a solutely distasteful. When the domestic late of land, and all their eggs were fertile. The hens of the constant and all the land and all their eggs were fertile. The hens of the constant and all the land and all the land and all the land all the land and all the land a Dear Dame Durden,-I saw Sus- and around again.

those who are born, and continue all dream that there is any sacrifice made life when God has given her talents spoil the eggs for setting; they often en wire for they are so small, and their parents will try to coax them (I'm sure everybody is glad to have from the care of the hen and run you come back for a visit. It is a them off their feet or let them stray. I can't supply the desired recipe, but hen with chicks, for she will kill it is sure to be sent in by somebody. every one that strays into her coop, and the foster mother will kill young chicks that stray into her box with the guinea chicks. The guineas Dear Dame Durden,-Spring is here whistle, but the chickens peep, and I again, and I am sure I can say we think that is the reason the two hens are all glad to see it. The botany mistake each other's broods for long delay while the missing informa- class will, I suppose, soon be start- dangerous creatures. As soon as the The early anemonæ, or crocus, guinea chicks are four weeks old let * * *

Has anyone begun to take advantage of the premium offer described in the Ingle Nook of April 28th? The work of getting four and the leaves are always near the garden.

The down is a pale blue bird one can find the near for the male works are four weeks old let as we call it, will be out in a few them out with their foster mothers. They will live mostly on slugs, our place, but we sometimes get worms, beetles, etc., and the old ones some. In early spring it grows very will not touch or harm garden stuff, near the ground with a short stem, but will catch every insect in the garden. By listening to the male The flower is a pale blue bird, one can find the nest, for he Ingle Nook to make themselves a fine week of Easter holidays, and have fetch her by calling to her. If you wedding present. If you are not going to need one yourself, earn one and who does other people's around off. If you go down to where he was a fine from school for any the fetch her by calling to her. If you fetch her by calling to her. If you go down to where he was a fine from school for any the fetch her by calling to her. If you go down to where he use it as a wedding present for a here charges a very high price. We joined her you will find a new egg in make the paste out of flour and among the bushes. Always leave one water, boiling it for a minute or two or two eggs in it, and keep out of and then adding a small tablespoonful sight, for if they see you she will lay of dissolved glue. This makes good in a new place to-morrow. Yet the paste, and the paper always sticks eggs must be gathered as soon as possible after being laid, so watch

(Your account of the guinea fowl (Glad to have your promise to come will be of interest to a great many ith the flowers. Describe fully of our members. Thank you.—D. D.)

A GOOD CHANCE FOR A BOY

* * * Dear Dame Durden,—I greatly enjoy
Olive wrote asking for details reading the Quiet Hour and Ingle

23, 1908, by his team running away and he is just getting able to be out and around again. We have a good

INGLE NOOK

TWO LITTLE GIRLS

The Queen of Holland's little girl Was hailed with loud rejoicing; From all the land rich presents came, The nation's gladness voicing. The finest linen wraps her round, And dainty silks and laces. The cradles sent by loyal towns Are fitted for her graces.

That princess for OUR treasure. Her cradle is a homely one; Her dress is cotton merely; But she's the princess of our home, And oh, we love her dearly !

REPAIRS FOR MACHINE WANTED

Dear Dame Durden,-I have long

Stove Co., 181 Bannatyne Ave., Winnipeg, they might be able to help you.

They have the wingoid paper, but I have and issue of last fall, describing never written before. Now I come many other positions in life; and, the construction, as we had not space to thank you for your helpful words again, there have been, and are yet, to repeat so soon. We hope to hear and to ask a favor poble men whose home lives have cut from her and to ask a favor had to change your name a little. Come again.—D. D.)

tion is being sought.

yearly subscribers does not seem very ground.

GRANNIE'S IDEA OF WOMAN'S PLACE

been a silent admirer of your page, and have derived a great deal of benefit from it. Now, I come to you for help in a difficulty.

Could you or any members of the Ingle Nook tell me where I could get repairs for a Wanzer sewing machine I believe the company from whom we got our machine has gone out of business as we cannot get any trace of them.

I have a receipt for candy which some of the members might like:

Two cups of granulated sugar, half a cup corn syrup, half a cup of water.

To possible after being laid, so watch well.

Dear Dame Durden,—When I was a I have also learned how to protect when without beone's self from the spitting of pork ing seen. They keep themselves and beef which is frying. To protect the face tie a thin veil, which you out and the last to bed. Coyotes the face tie a thin veil, which you would out driving; and for the hands put on a pair of old kid or hospital, and my husband was busy. See any of the buildings, so, as-his the gathered as soon as possible after being laid, so watch your chance to get them without beone's self from the spitting of pork man's proper place was where Sarah and beef which is frying. To protect the face tie a thin veil, which you out and the last to bed. Coyotes the face tie a thin veil, which you would out driving; and for the hands put on a pair of old kid or hospital, and my husband was busy. If you went standing over the stove, but to wear standing over the stove, but they serve the purpose well.

Perhaps I am intruding on your work took him into the fields, some close now to call again when the was found in the fields, some close now to call again when the was found in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting of pork in the first one's self from the spitting Two cups of granulated sugar; half a cup corn syrup, half a cup of water. Boil till brittle. Add the flavoring and whites of three eggs beaten to a stiff froth. Beat till it sugars. Then add walnuts and dates. With best wishes for the Ingle Nook.

PURR.

PURR.

At the same time I hope that close now to call again when the flowers come.

MAY ROSE.

(Glad to have your promise to come with the flowers. Describe fully some that you see, will you, please?

—D. D.)

**

PURR.

Olive wrote asking for details (You will find it hard, I am afraid, been, and are, women every bit as again, there have been, and are yet, to repeat so soon. We hope to hear and to ask a favor. noble men whose home lives have out- from her again?

My husband was in these of wemen, and without shone those of women, and without whom those home lives would have