THE MAN WHO WORKS OVERTIME

It is not always the best friend of his eyesight. The eyes suffer more than any other physical faculty from overwork under artificial illumination. Even daylight contains a large percentage of rays harmful to eyesight. All that danger can be done away with if you view your work through lenses made to your prescription from the wonderful new glasses discovered by Sir William Crookes, that actually filter out all the harmful colors.

Don't neglect your sight, whether you work overtime or not.

Crookes Lenses, made from JARVIS measurements and by JARVIS methods, will give you the utmost in eye comfort.

The police are investigating now and if the man person who turned in the alarm is caught he will be justly punished.

COLLEGIATE OPENING.

The Collegiate opens on Tuesday next, and the indications are for a very large attendance. The registration of first form pupils already amounts to more than the entire total of last year. It is therefore probable that arrangements will have to be made for increased accommodation. There are no fees now for first form pupils belonging to the city, and it is desirable that all such should register as soon as possible with Principal Burt, who is at the school each afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Water Commissioner F. Frank stated the amount of water pumped in the city during the month of August, to the Courier this morning. The total amount for the month was 95,190,813 gallons, while the daily average was 3,070,677 gallons. During August of 1914 the total amount pumped was 146,119,776 gallons and the daily average was 4,713,540 gallons. The large difference was caused by so much rain this month, and filling of streets, doing away with water carts.

SOME FINE STORIES.

Rod and Gun for September is out and is a special duck shooting number. Bonnycastle Dale the naturalist writer, contributes the opening article, a readable one, on "Live Decoy Ducks and Shooting over them." "Duck shooting in the Cariboo" is an amusing story of the experience of two duck hunters who saw plenty of ducks but who failed to shoot any. "After the Black Ducks," "Two Hundred Acres of Geese," "Duck breeding in the Park country, Alberta," are other stories that give a wild duck flavor to this number, and in addition there are other interesting stories of outdoor life besides the regular departments devoted to gunning and fishing. W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont., are publishers of this magazine of outdoor life.

LIVELY TIME AT COUNCIL

Trades and Labor Have Hot Three Hours Discussion.

The Trades and Labor Council held its regular session last night and the meeting at times was rather stormy. The trouble arose over the launching of the "Brantford Free Press", a weekly journal devoted to the interests of labor which will make its appearance shortly. Some time ago a committee was formed to start the paper, going and a board of trustees appointed to sign any cheques necessary and to safeguard the committee. This board was replaced by a new board, which resigned. The committee then went to the original trustees, got their signatures to cheques, closed a contract for starting the paper and have already paid out moneys towards it.

There was a considerable amount of acrimonious discussion over the action of the committee and some members of it were put through an ordeal of questions. The upshot of the whole business was that the committee was ordered to report next meeting, the paper will be proceeded with, and the Trades and Labor Council will labor the bill.

The Labor Educational Association intend to initiate a campaign this winter to aid municipalities to grapple with the problem of unemployment, and asked a committee from the local council to be appointed to act in conjunction. Delegates Simons, Mullin and Pygrave form the committee named.

The report of the municipal railway commissioners was commented upon as being too obscure. Further discussion was stopped however as Trades and Labor delegates will attend a meeting to discuss this question.

Many Repairs Completed At Zion Church

Extensive improvements have been made to the choir gallery and church organ of Zion Presbyterian Church. A new choir gallery of most artistic design has been constructed, which has a seating capacity of sixty. The seats in the east and west transepts have been rearranged to accommodate the new plan.

The organ has been completely overhauled and remodeled. The old system of water power has been replaced by a kinetic organ blower of the most modern type. There has been installed a full set of twenty tubular Chimes of exceptionally sweet quality. Also a "Vox Humana" stop has been added to the swell organ. This has been doubly enclosed, adding greatly to the effectiveness of this beautiful stop.

The steps of the choir organ have all been enclosed in a "Swivel Box" and a Tremolo has been added to the choir organ.

The organ is now conceded to be one of the finest in the city. The work has been done by the Karm Morris Piano and Organ Co., of Woodstock, Ont.

Mr. D. L. Wright, the most capable organist and choir master of Zion Church, will demonstrate the new organ at the regular services on Sunday next, and under his leadership and with the impetus given by the new and improved accommodation, the choir will undoubtedly be unexcelled in the city.

The editor of the Stillwater State Prison Mirror has been released from the jail.

PRETTY MILITARY WEDDING WAS HELD LOCALLY

A very pretty military wedding took place Tuesday afternoon at Trinity Church when Miss Elizabeth Cowperthwaite became the bride of the popular young Sergt. J. McGratton, Mr. Harry Cowperthwaite, brother of the bride, acting as best man. Miss Phyllis Cowperthwaite made a very pretty bridesmaid, supported by her sister, Miss Francis, and Pte. T. Walsia and Bugler H. Rance who came down from Niagara for the happy event.

The bride who entered the church leaning on the arm of her father looked sweet in Emire Voile, with orange blossom wreath and veil, and wearing a cameo and pearl necklace, the gift of the groom and carried a shower bouquet of Chrysanthemum Asters and Sweet Peas.

The bridesmaids wore embroidered voile and carried bouquets of mauve and white asters. The bride's mother wore black silk with corsage bouquet of mauve asters.

After the ceremony the guests to the number of about 60 sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast, which was served in the diningroom at the home of the bride's mother.

During the evening, Comp. Sergt. Major Blanchard and a number of the groom's fellow comrades paid a surprise visit and all spoke well of the groom. Sergt. Major Blanchard congratulated the groom on having the courage to marry a man and then send him out to fight for his King and Country.

The many and costly presents show the great esteem in which the happy couple are held.

It was indeed a happy company which broke up in the "wee sma' hours" after wishing the bride and groom every happiness.

Announcement to this effect was made here to-day officially as follows. "In the Dardanelles the last week of August, has been calm throughout on the southern front. In the northern zone, British troops delivered successful attacks which put them in possession of a hillock to the west of Avuk Anafarta, which had been contested keenly."

To the transport sunk on the 20th of August by one of our aviators at the anchorage at Achashilman, it is necessary to add four transports torpedoed by British submarines, two of them at the same point and two others between Gallipoli and Nagara.

The guns of the battleships have hit several vessels anchored in the straits."

Modish Suits and Coats

Styles which show the Newest Ideas in Cut, Length and Trimmings

The belt is much in evidence in various forms, perhaps because the creators are imbued with the war spirit.

But there is nothing else war-like about the new suits and coats some are simple and others ornate, but all have style. The collars are unique and generally quite large and the skirts quite large and "swagger."

Trimmings are not complicated, but striking, bold and simple in most cases, excepting in the dress coats in which great liberty is taken by style creators.

PITTSBURG UNAFFECTED

By Special Wire to the Courier. Pittsburgh, Sept. 2.—The demoralization of the foreign exchange market owing to the depreciation of value of English money, is not affecting the Pittsburgh district, where large quantities of war munitions are being manufactured, according to local bankers and manufacturers. They declare that practically all the European orders placed so far in this district have been made on the basis of so many American dollars for so much finished products.

AFTER THIS TRUST

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, Sept. 2.—Acting on charges made in the report of the Chamber of Deputies committee on commerce and industry that a trust has been formed to illegally corner the supply of calcium carbide, large quantities of which are used by the army for lighting purposes, Paris police are searching the offices of a number of companies engaged in its manufacture and sale. They have seized many documents, and the magistrate who is conducting the investigation, declares these papers fully establish the truth of the charges. A similar investigation is being carried on in the provinces.

CLEAR UP DOUBTS

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, Sept. 2.—Some doubt having existed in the minds of British shipping men regarding the position under American laws of ships using defensive armament, the Imperial Merchants' Guild to-day publishes rules adopted for the guidance of officers of the American government who are charged with the duty of determining the peaceful character of partially armed vessels. The rules, as summarized, occupy a half column in the newspapers. They show that ships may carry guns up to the six-inch calibre variety, providing owners of vessels are able to show the investigators that such armament is intended only for defense.

BIG STORM

By Special Wire to the Courier. Winnipeg, Sept. 2.—A storm which apparently reached almost cyclonic proportions visited a considerable area of East Central Saskatchewan last night, between Melville and the Manitoba boundary. Telegraph wires are down between Pivers, Man. and Melville, Sask. and the long distance telephone is also out of business. Consequently details are hard to gather regarding early reports of a Grand Trunk Pacific Railway train having run into an open bridge. The company's agent at Melville states positively there is no wreck, although a bridge in the second division was wrecked or partially carried away. No train ran into the bridge.

RICH GOLD DISCOVERY NEAR KOWKASH, ON N.T.R.

Cochrane, Ont., Sept. 2.—A rich gold find has been made near Kowkash, about 300 miles west of here on the Transcontinental Railway. Samples brought in here are very rich in the precious metal, one large specimen being procured by a local jeweller to contain at least five hundred dollars' worth of gold. A rush for the scene of the discovery started yesterday with the departure of the National for the west. Amongst those to leave for the scene was Mayor Ben Rothschild of Cochrane.
