

News of the World

ALBERTA

STRATHCONA, Alta., July 18.—The announcement is made today of the appointment of Mr. Malcolm MacIntyre to the position of Canadian immigration agent at Glasgow, Scotland. The appointment meets with the hearty approval here as Mr. MacIntyre is very popular and is recognized as a competent man for the position he has accepted.

Mr. MacIntyre, has for the past six years filled with eminent satisfaction the post of custom officer and immigration agent in Strathcona. Mr. MacIntyre will sail for Scotland in August.

EDMONTON, July 19.—Word has reached the city of the finding of the body of Maude Kenzie, aged 19, lost in the North Paddler river on July 14th. It is supposed that the death was the result of the sudden death of her mother which affected her mind.

EDMONTON, Alta., July 21.—This morning a party of forty men and eleven teams, left Edmonton for the Peace River valley, a journey of 600 miles. The party is expected to reach the Peace River valley in the latter part of the month. The destination of the party is not known.

CALGARY, July 21.—The editor of the "Weekly Chinook," published in Calgary, in this week's issue, published an open letter to the public, calling the members of the lumber combine, giving them until August 31st to reduce the price of lumber and saws. If the same is not done by that time he will enter the courts and bring action against them as members of the combine to restrict competition.

EDMONTON, July 21.—The Canadian American Oil Co., boring for oil at Morinville, twenty miles north of this city, has struck a strong flow of natural gas at a depth of 400 feet. The strike was made two days ago and since that time the pressure has steadily increased.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

SUMMERLAND, B. C., July 19.—The British Columbia Baptist Convention opened here this morning with 150 delegates in attendance. At the afternoon session the chief interest was the amalgamation of the Manitoba and Northwest home mission board was that of British Columbia, which was adopted unanimously. Rev. Paveley announced a scheme to found a home for aged ministers in Summerland, forty acres of land has been contributed by J. R. Ritchie, of this place, and other property worth $2,000 is already on hand.

PERNIE, B. C., July 19.—All station agents on the Crow's Nest Pass line have received instructions not to supply any more cars to saw mills on account of the high charges. The Michael mines were closed down yesterday for want of cars.

VANCOUVER, July 19.—Mrs. W. J. Orr, wife of the manager of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, was found dead from heart failure, by her son aged 12, who had accompanied her to the National Convention Society of Women. The remains will be shipped to Toronto tomorrow. Dr. Orr has been notified.

MANITOBA

WINNIPEG, Man., July 18.—Hamilton Soudy, employed as a brakeman on a Canadian Pacific Railway Co. freight, was injured in a horrible manner this afternoon, while working at Holland, Man. He was on the top of a train and started to walk from one car to another when the train pulled apart and he fell to the ground, following car passing over one leg and mangle it. He was brought to the city but lost much blood on the way, and his recovery is doubtful. His home is at Toronto.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—Three of the men recently found guilty of stealing from the Canadian Pacific Railway cars in Winnipeg yards were sentenced by Magistrate McKicken in the police court this morning. H. Hall, who was regarded as the ring leader goes to the penitentiary for three years. A. Erickson to jail for six months and W. Hicks to jail for three months.

In passing sentence the magistrate spoke of the seriousness of the offence and of the very severe penalty which it was within his power to impose. The guilty men had occupied positions of trust and were paid good wages.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—Only a few days ago seven young boys were sent to the reformatory for three years, having been convicted of stealing brass from railway shops and factories.

This morning the man who bought some of the brass, knowing it to have been stolen, appeared in the dock at the police court, and left it under sentence to pay a fine of $100 and serve one year in jail. The man was Edward Saunders, a Jarvis street merchant.

Magistrate McKicken said that in considering the case he could not forget that Saunders has been, in great part at all events, responsible for the downfall and imprisonment of the seven little lads.

WINNIPEG, July 18.—At yesterday afternoon's Association of the West of Western Canada session the election of officers was held and resulted in the choice of the following by acclamation: President, Chief J. E. Buchanan, Winnipeg.

Vice-President, Chief J. A. MacFadden, Moose Jaw. Secretary-Treasurer, Chief D. H. Williamson, Medicine Hat. Vice-President for the several provinces, Chief James Smart, Calgary. Chief W. A. White, Regina; Chief J. Lester, Dawson, Y.T.; Chief F. U. Hudson, Nelson, B.C.; Chief F. U. Hudson, Kenora, Western Canada.

ONTARIO

WINNIPEG, July 21.—Joseph Leybourne, a former liveryman at Holland, Man., died Saturday afternoon at Oberon, Man., as the result of an accident which befell him on the previous day. He was driving along the road in a rig, leading some horses behind, when his team became unmanageable. He was thrown out, falling on his head and shoulders. He became unconscious and remained in that state until death. He is survived by a wife, one daughter, and one son.

OTTAWA, July 17.—The immigration department is forwarding circulars to the farmers of Ontario, with whom immigrants have been placed, inquiring as to what satisfaction they are giving, and if there are any complaints as to the character, and class of immigrants coming to the country.

The number of wage earners in 1906 was 345,053 and in 1907 they were 307,487. The total wages by 45 per cent. The salaries paid in 1906 were $113,249,350, and in 1907 $145,149,350. There was an increase in the average wage per employee of $30.74. The employees increased in the five years by 20 per cent. The total wages by 45 per cent. and the average wage per employee by 27 per cent.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Bartender Gardiner of the Hotel Vendome, Hailybury, was last night held responsible by the coroner's jury here for the death of Edward Boylan, a few weeks ago. Boylan died in Ottawa as the result of a blow inflicted by Gardiner, who attacked deceased for remonstrating with him over the price of a drink. Gardiner is held on a charge of aggravated assault which was probably altered to murder.

TORONTO, July 18.—A queer case of robbery, or trespass, was revealed in the police court today. Two Italians on a drunk wandered into the house of Alex Martins and began carrying out furniture. Martins was at supper when he heard a disturbance and went down to the hall in time to see two men carry a bedroom dresser into the street. They were arrested but nothing more serious than drunkenness was charged against them.

KINGSTON, Ont., July 18.—A message from Peterborough camp says: "Private Charles Smith of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Fort Fredericton, was drowned while bathing here this afternoon."

Mathew Tobin, bachelor, about 35 years of age, was found drowned in the Bay of Quinte railway bridge, near Yarker, this afternoon.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Contracts for five steel bridges on the Eastern Quebec section of the National Transcontinental railway have been let to the Dominion Bridge Co., of Montreal. The contracts total about $150,000.

OTTAWA, July 18.—The fifty-second annual convention of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Ontario opened in Harmony Hall yesterday morning with an attendance of about 1,000 members of the craft from all parts of Ontario. The principal features of the opening session were the civic address of welcome and that of the grand master and report of the grand master, J. H. Burditt of Pembroke, and Albrecht White of Toronto. The amount contributed by Masonry, The amount spent for benevolence by the grand lodge was $25,555 and by private lodges $14,500.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Some thirty representatives of the meat packing establishments of Canada and of the transportation companies, met today to discuss the draft regulations for the enforcement of the act passed last session providing for the inspection of meats and canned foods.

The names into force on September 3, next and its enforcement will be in charge of Dr. Rutherford, chief of the department of the regulations the minister expressed approval of the plans of the department for carrying out the intent of the act. The regulations will not be published until ratified by the governor general in council.

OTTAWA, July 18.—Word was received in Ottawa today, that Alex Hume, a young Scotchman, employed by a government dredge at Papineauville, Quebec, was drowned in the Ottawa river late yesterday afternoon. He was the son of a brother of the late Mr. S. Henderson, of Ottawa, and Robt. Hume, of Montreal.

PORT ARTHUR, July 18.—Without ceremony and without any of the citizens being aware that the portentous event was to take place the blast from the mines of the Altkokan Iron Company were blown this afternoon. An idea of the magnitude of the Altkokan Iron Company's plant, which has been under construction during the last two years, may be gleaned from the fact that it involved a capital expenditure of $1,300,000.

OTTAWA, July 19.—Collingwood Schreiber, government consulting engineer for the Grand Trunk Pacific lines west of Winnipeg, has returned from a western trip covering several weeks. He speaks in high praise of the headway being made by the Grand Trunk Pacific in the West and declares that when the line is completed it should be the best transcontinental line in existence.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., July 19.—Thos. Orr, aged 32, unmarried, was drowned this morning at Marsh's Falls, Ox Tongue river. Orr was a lumberman, in the employ of McKie and Dymond for some time.

OTTAWA, July 19.—F. A. Acland, secretary of the Labor Department, has returned from Cobalt. He says: "It is not likely that any more can be done by this department to bring about a settlement of the strike, unless an application is made for a conciliation board."

Ten of the mines have accepted the union terms, thirty are holding out, thirty-five are against and 20 are non-committal, about 75 per cent. of the men are working.

GALT, Ont., July 19.—Harry Burkhardt, of Galt, was sufficed by natural gas at the Kerr street reservoir in Galt today. The Dominion Natural Gas Co. is erecting a large storage reservoir on Kerr street. Deceased was engaged in installing the reservoir and was working alone. How the accident occurred is unknown. A boy passing along Kerr street, about one o'clock, saw the man lying in the reservoir and gave the alarm. He was at once pulled out but was found to be dead.

OTTAWA, July 19.—Canada's foreign trade for the present fiscal year ending June 30 last shows a very small growth over the same time last year. The aggregate trade is $150,140,539, about $100,000 over the three months of 1906. The imports show a gain of over fourteen millions and the exports a decrease of nearly the same amount.

The decrease of June exports was $800,000. The decrease was also partly due to the congestion of traffic and the labor strikes at Montreal and Halifax.

For the month of June the imports showed an increase of over two millions.

OTTAWA, July 19.—A bulletin issued today by the census department deals with the number of wage earners and salaries paid to all classes of employees in manufacturing establishments in Canada in the years of 1906 and 1905.

The number of wage earners in 1906 was 345,053 and in 1907 they were 307,487. The total wages by 45 per cent. The salaries paid in 1906 were $113,249,350, and in 1907 $145,149,350. There was an increase in the average wage per employee of $30.74. The employees increased in the five years by 20 per cent. The total wages by 45 per cent. and the average wage per employee by 27 per cent.

PORT WILLIAM, July 19.—John MacRae, a young Scotchman, was drowned in the Neelburg river to night. He went in for a bath and beyond his depth, and not being able to swim drowned before help could get to him. The body was recovered shortly after ten.

HAVELOCK, Ont., July 19.—Geo. Armstrong, 35 years old, son of a respected farmer, Adam Fitz, was found dead in a ditch, having taken a large dose of Paris green and arsenic.

MIDLAND, Ont., July 19.—Two men were killed today in the O'Hara Wooten Mills, Edward O'Hara, of Midland, and Elmer Hewson, of Thornbury. John O'Hara, brother of the dead man, was seriously injured, and will probably lose his right eye. John O'Hara was extending a tank of acid when the gas became ignited. A violent explosion followed, wrecking the building and killing two men.

TORONTO, July 19.—James Swan, a teamster, was fatally injured in a cave in of a sand pit on Bloor street, this morning. His skull was fractured and he died after lingering a short time.

OTTAWA, July 21.—The amount of money for inland revenue collected in the Dominion for June was $12,245,200. The increase of $19,881 over June last year.

TORONTO, July 21.—While in a demoted condition, probably due to poor health, a man went on strike at the corner of Broad and York streets, about four and a half miles west of this place, shot and killed his wife yesterday morning. The woman was in her car, and the man was in her arms, when he procured a shot gun and placed the bullet in her head. He was later shot and killed by a police officer. The body was found hanging from a beam in a barn, by his brother, who had just returned from the fields. He was fifty years of age and unmarried.

OTTAWA, July 21.—Kohr Hardie labor representative of the British House of Commons is here. He is on his way round the world, taking the trip for the benefit of his health. Mr. Hardie is strongly opposed to Britain giving a trade preference to the colonies. The following subsection was added on the motion of Lord Elgin: In the case of the provinces of British Columbia and Prince Edward Island the amount paid on account of the grant payable per head of population to the provinces under this act shall be less than the amount corresponding of the grant payable at the commencement of this act, and it is to be found on the basis of the population of the province has decreased since the last decennial census the amount paid on account of the grant shall not be decreased below the amount then payable, notwithstanding the decrease in population.

LONDON, July 17.—The will of Rev. John Watson (Mr. MacLaren) who died at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, May 6, leaves an estate valued at $283,500. The bulk of the estate, and the control of all published and unpublished works in trust, and for the benefit of his estate.

LONDON, July 18.—The railway pliers bill, preliminary to the bill for the amendment of the Blackstock Bill, and Canada, was introduced in the House of Commons, and has been reported for third reading.

LONDON, July 19.—Pedlar Palmer, the well-known English pugilist, has been sentenced five years penal servitude for having caused the death of Robert Choate, a gas house stoker of Deptford.

GLASGOW, July 19.—It is authoritatively stated that Mr. Fife, who is now on his way to America, has been commissioned to design a yacht that will challenge for the American cup. Denny Brothers will build the boat. The name of the challenger is unknown.

Sir Thomas Lipton's name is naturally connected with the enterprise and it seems certain that he will be the challenger.

DUBLIN, July 21.—Hon. Edward Blake, member of Parliament for the south division of Longford, is about to resign his seat owing to ill health.

FOREIGN

PARIS, July 17.—Theobald Chartre, painter, is dead. He was 63 years of age, and had made nine visits to America. His work was almost as well known in America as in France.

COPEN HAGEN, Denmark, July 18.—Fourteen persons are reported to have been drowned at Marstrand.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—One of the most notable meetings ever held in connection with the Japanese emigration convention was that of the Japanese emigrants yesterday when hundreds of Japs came to hear addresses in their own language and sing American songs. Secretary Shas "Red" the Japanese that the Christian Endeavor Society plans to hold a convention in Japan in a few years.

CHICAGO, July 18.—Two more cases of death from lockjaw, due to injuries sustained by toy pistols on July 4, have sent the total list of fatalities in America on that day up to 102. Chicago victims number 10.

CHICAGO, July 18.—While talking to friends on the fifteenth floor of the Masonic Temple, Miss Anna Nor-moyle, a stenographer, deliberately walked to an open court window and without a word of warning threw herself to the stone pavement of the rotunda, 150 feet below. The girl was mutilated almost beyond recognition. No cause is known for the suicide.

SEATTLE, July 18.—Secretary of Commerce and Labor Strickland yesterday that the tide of immigration is changing, particularly from the Oriental countries, and is pointing towards Canada. "In the last three months," said the secretary, "the number of immigrants coming into the United States has increased ten per cent. while immigration from Japan has decreased. Canada is a one of the largest problems you men of the Pacific coast will have to face in the future."

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 18.—With one blow of his fist on the jaw Harry McGurk, a Chicago prize fighter, knocked out McGurk last night before the neck of David Brennan, a miner, in the house of Annie Brennan, a widow, who was a physician's reach him. McGurk phoned the police what he had done and the officers arrested him. He refused to talk.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 18.—Money on call steady. Highest 3 per cent. lowest 2 1/4, ruling rate 2 3/4. Last loan easier, sixty days 4 1/4 to 4 3/4 per cent. and 90 days 5 1/4 to 5 3/4 per cent. six months 5 3/4 to 6 per cent.

PHILADELPHIA, July 18.—Jack Johnson, colored, fought Bob Fitz-Johnson, white, for the world's heavyweight championship. The fight was a six-round bout and the champion was declared to be Johnson. The fight was a great success and the crowd was enormous.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Three children and two men died today as the result of the intense heat. Hundreds of people slept in the parks last night. The heat was so intense that many people died. The heat was so intense that many people died.

NEW YORK, July 21.—William Fife, the designer of Lipton's race challenge for the America's cup, decided to enter an English challenger who was in an American waters to compete for the International trophy. He now for the international trophy. He now for the international trophy.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21.—The Department of Justice has directed the Federal Bureau of Investigation to investigate the alleged killing of seal in the Behring sea be taken to Valdez, Alaska and be tried there.

DULUTH, Minn., July 21.—Nearly fifteen hundred miners in the Vermilion and Mesabi ranges went on strike today, completing the tie-up in the upper part of Lake Superior region. The men demand a big increase in pay.

BRITISH

LONDON, July 17.—The British North America act, passed last session, has been increased grants to the various provinces of the Dominion, passed the House of Lords yesterday.

The following subsection was added on the motion of Lord Elgin: In the case of the provinces of British Columbia and Prince Edward Island the amount paid on account of the grant payable per head of population to the provinces under this act shall be less than the amount corresponding of the grant payable at the commencement of this act, and it is to be found on the basis of the population of the province has decreased since the last decennial census the amount paid on account of the grant shall not be decreased below the amount then payable, notwithstanding the decrease in population.

LONDON, July 17.—The will of Rev. John Watson (Mr. MacLaren) who died at Mount Pleasant, Iowa, May 6, leaves an estate valued at $283,500. The bulk of the estate, and the control of all published and unpublished works in trust, and for the benefit of his estate.

LONDON, July 18.—The railway pliers bill, preliminary to the bill for the amendment of the Blackstock Bill, and Canada, was introduced in the House of Commons, and has been reported for third reading.

LONDON, July 19.—Pedlar Palmer, the well-known English pugilist, has been sentenced five years penal servitude for having caused the death of Robert Choate, a gas house stoker of Deptford.

GLASGOW, July 19.—It is authoritatively stated that Mr. Fife, who is now on his way to America, has been commissioned to design a yacht that will challenge for the American cup. Denny Brothers will build the boat. The name of the challenger is unknown.

Sir Thomas Lipton's name is naturally connected with the enterprise and it seems certain that he will be the challenger.

DUBLIN, July 21.—Hon. Edward Blake, member of Parliament for the south division of Longford, is about to resign his seat owing to ill health.

FOREIGN

PARIS, July 17.—Theobald Chartre, painter, is dead. He was 63 years of age, and had made nine visits to America. His work was almost as well known in America as in France.

COPEN HAGEN, Denmark, July 18.—Fourteen persons are reported to have been drowned at Marstrand.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—One of the most notable meetings ever held in connection with the Japanese emigration convention was that of the Japanese emigrants yesterday when hundreds of Japs came to hear addresses in their own language and

THE LEADER GIVES ALL THE NEWS OF THE PROVINCE

INDIAN HEADS NOTES OF NEWS

DATE OF CORNER STONE LAYING
—ANNUAL REGATTA FIXTURE
—WEEKLY HALF HOLIDAY

INDIAN HEAD, July 17.—Com-mittees from the high and public school boards met this morning, and arranged for the rental of a part of the school building to be used for the class rooms and laboratory for a weekly half holiday.

On motion of Mr. D. W. Adam, Dr. P. H. Tyerman, Rev. A. D. Dewdney, Rev. T. M. Marshall, Rev. D. J. Davies, Rev. James Taylor, Sheriff Neilson, Mr. R. Brandt, and the secretary, Mr. James Platt.

On motion of the Rev. James Taylor the meeting expressed the opinion that the university should be established in Prince Albert.

The Aquatic Association have at last settled upon the date for the annual regatta. It will be held on Monday, August 19. The committee in charge are working hard to make this the best of its kind ever held in the west.

There will be aquatic events of every kind from canoe and greasy pole up to lurch and yachting.

St. Andrew's congregation held its annual Sunday school picnic this afternoon. The afternoon was perfect for a picnic and great numbers took advantage of the pleasant weather.

In accordance with a numerous petition to the town council, asking for a weekly half holiday, Mayor Donnelly this afternoon has had notices issued requesting all the business men of the town to close their stores and offices every Thursday afternoon until August 15th. The first half holiday comes tomorrow afternoon.

The Groceries and the hardware men play a baseball match tomorrow afternoon in the park.

INDIAN HEAD, July 18.—The first weekly half holiday in the history of the town was taken this afternoon. Most of the business places were closed and many employees and employees took this time to go to the lake. The first half holiday comes tomorrow afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Dural, of Knox Church, of Winnipeg, will be the principal speaker at the laying of the corner stone of the new Presbyterian church on the 24th of July.

Dr. Seymour, of Regina, provincial health officer, inspected the general hospital here yesterday.

The baseball team went to Sinitola this afternoon to play a match with the team in the town. A report has been made that they won the game.

Rehearsals for the comic opera "Pinafore" have commenced in the opera house.

WHEAT HEADING WELL

Good for Crop

BALOGNIE, July 18.—The wheat outlook in this district is second to none in the province and with reasonably good weather at least fifty per cent. will be headed out by the 22nd of this month. Prospects are not so long as in some previous years, but will make good sheaves of grain.

The St. George's picnic held recently at Pilot Butte was a great success financially, as well as socially. The sum of $135 being the balance now in hand, over and above all expenditures.

St. Philip's (Anglican) Sunday school picnic is being held today on the large farm of J. H. Hawkes. The number of children are being large and doing full justice to the good things so amply provided for them through the hospitality of the Hawkes family.

Thomas Wohlbaum's new cement block house is now about completed and does credit to the builder, Joseph Hyde, who is being fairly busy at the present time.

Dr. J. W. Kemp of Indian Head was in town on Tuesday on a brief visit to his friend, Dr. Warren.

William Gibson left for Winnipeg on Wednesday evening in order to take in the fair.

Sweden, by the capsizing of a sail boat. One of the party escaped.

QUAQUAQU, Ecuador, July 19.—The four military barracks in this city were attacked simultaneously by a group of armed men (revolutionists) who were finally beaten off. Several of them were killed. The revolutionists proposed to kill the president but he came out of the fight unharmed.

MADRID, July 21.—Spain and Switzerland have signed a treaty under the terms of which they agree to submit all questions arising between them to the arbitration of the Hague diplomatic channels to the Hague arbitration tribunal.

BOISE, Idaho, July 21.—James Hawley, the leading counsel for the State in the Haywood murder case, yesterday made his last appearance in court. He spoke for nearly eight hours, distributed over four sessions of the court. The association Monday.

UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

BUSY BROADVIEW IS BUILDING UP

PRINCE ALBERT WILL ASK CO-OPERATION OF NORTHERN TOWNS TO SECURE SEAT

PRINCE ALBERT TIMES: An enthusiastic meeting of those interested in the provincial university, a charter for which is held in this city, was held in the board of trade office on Saturday afternoon.

On motion of Mr. D. W. Adam, Dr. P. H. Tyerman, Rev. A. D. Dewdney, Rev. T. M. Marshall, Rev. D. J. Davies, Rev. James Taylor, Sheriff Neilson, Mr. R. Brandt, and the secretary, Mr. James Platt.

On motion of the Rev. James Taylor the meeting expressed the opinion that the university should be established in Prince Albert.

The Aquatic Association have at last settled upon the date for the annual regatta. It will be held on Monday, August 19. The committee in charge are working hard to make this the best of its kind ever held in the west.

There will be aquatic events of every kind from canoe and greasy pole up to lurch and yachting.

St. Andrew's congregation held its annual Sunday school picnic this afternoon. The afternoon was perfect for a picnic and great numbers took advantage of the pleasant weather.

In accordance with a numerous petition to the town council, asking for a weekly half holiday, Mayor Donnelly this afternoon has had notices issued requesting all the business men of the town to close their stores and offices every Thursday afternoon until August 15th. The first half holiday comes tomorrow afternoon.

Rev. Dr. Dural, of Knox Church, of Winnipeg, will be the principal speaker at the laying of the corner stone of the new Presbyterian church on the 24th of July.

Dr. Seymour, of Regina, provincial health officer, inspected the general hospital here yesterday.

The baseball team went to Sinitola this afternoon to play a match with the team in the town. A report has been made that they won the game.

Rehearsals for the comic opera "Pinafore" have commenced in the opera house.

WHEAT HEADING WELL

Good for Crop

BALOGNIE, July 18.—The wheat outlook in this district is second to none in the province and with reasonably good weather at least fifty per cent. will be headed out by the 22nd of this month. Prospects are not so long as in some previous years, but will make good sheaves of grain.

The St. George's picnic held recently at Pilot Butte was a great success financially, as well as socially. The sum of $135 being the balance now in hand, over and above all expenditures.

St. Philip's (Anglican) Sunday school picnic is being held today on the large farm of J. H. Hawkes. The number of children are being large and doing full justice to the good things so amply provided for them through the hospitality of the Hawkes family.

Thomas Wohlbaum's new cement block house is now about completed and does credit to the builder, Joseph Hyde, who is being fairly busy at the present time.

Dr. J. W. Kemp of Indian Head was in town on Tuesday on a brief visit to his friend, Dr. Warren.

William Gibson left for Winnipeg on Wednesday evening in order to take in the fair.

Sweden, by the capsizing of a sail boat. One of the party escaped.

QUAQUAQU, Ecuador, July 19.—The four military barracks in this city were attacked simultaneously by a group of armed men (revolutionists) who were finally beaten off. Several of them were killed. The revolutionists proposed to kill the president but he came out of the fight unharmed.

MADRID, July 21.—Spain and Switzerland have signed a treaty under the terms of which they agree to submit all questions arising between them to the arbitration of the Hague diplomatic channels to the Hague arbitration tribunal.

BOISE, Idaho, July 21.—James Hawley, the leading counsel for the State in the Haywood murder case, yesterday made his last appearance in court. He spoke for nearly eight hours, distributed over four sessions of the court. The association Monday.

NEWSPAPER MEN'S TRIP TO COAST

WESTERN CANADA PRESS ASSOCIATION HAVE ARRANGED A HOLIDAY JAUNT

The newspaper men of the three western provinces will start out from Winnipeg in special private cars on August 2nd, on their annual summer excursion, which will cover two weeks. It was the original intention to arrange a trip through the United States, but owing to the new interstate commerce law it was impossible to secure a special rate. The association was successful, however, in arrang-

BAPTISTS ERECTING HANDS