Mr. D. Hanna, D. L. S., who has spent the winter months very pleasantly in Athens and vicinity, returned to the Prairie Province on Monday.
Rev. Mr. Tesdale, president of the Nova Scotia Conference of the Methodist Church, is this week visiting his daughter, the wife of Rev. Mr. Fleming.
Rev. G. G. Hartshorn, chairman of the district, conducted missionary services in the Methodist church on Sabbath last. A number of members of the sister churches were present at the morning service.
The 4th of April will be Good Friday, a public holiday. We do not know how our intentions may be observed, but would suggest that they fall in line with employers in other towns and give their employees a holiday.
A large number of young people from Athens enjoyed the hospitality of the Rev. Mr. King on Friday evening last, and on Monday the Algou family made their annual trip to Mr. King's sugar bush.

Mr. Bullis is reported to be engaged in buying horses in the vicinity of Westport for the American market. Should the new tariff regulations at present proposed on the other side come into force, this market will be practically closed to Canadians.

Miss Lou Moxley, in conducting her school in Lansdowne, found it necessary to "trim a refractory pupil." He was accordingly "tricked" but the father of the boy objected to ornamentation of this kind, and brought Miss Moxley before a magistrate. Case dismissed with costs.
Gannaque school board has purchased a set of flags to be hoisted over the school on certain days. We are not deeply interested in the flag-on-the-school idea, but we believe it is generally conceded that a new weather vane on the high school would add to its architectural beauty.
By petition the pupils of the high school secured a holiday yesterday and today (Tuesday). The Institute will occupy the school on Wednesday and Thursday, and these days with Good Friday and Easter Monday will give the students a welcome vacation. Their motto will doubtless be—"To the sugar woods, away!"

OBITUARY.
Henry L. Hagerman departed this life on Friday last at the residence of his son, Athens. Mr. Hagerman was born in Elizabethtown on Dec. 1st, 1806, being at his death aged 83 years, 3 months and 28 days. His children are John, who resides in Chicago; Henry, of Denver, Col.; Mrs. F. L. Moore, of Addison; Mrs. Barrington, of Elbe Mills; and Maria unmarried. In early life deceased had received a good education and for a number of years he taught school. The factory he purchased and successfully conducted the mills at Temperance Lake for a period of twenty years. During this time the mills were greatly damaged by a fire and were finally destroyed by fire. In this way Mr. Hagerman sustained heavy losses from which in subsequent years he was unable to recover. The closing years of his life he spent in Athens, and our citizens will remember with pleasure the fact that his mind was not impaired by the weight of years. His views of life were softened and refined by time, and under the name of "Ere" he contributed to this paper many meritorious poems. He was during his whole life, a strong advocate of temperance and a staunch Liberal.
